Hogg And Vaughan Social Psychology 4th Edition:

Social Psychology Michael A. Hogg, Graham M. Vaughan, 2005 Social Psychology 4th edition is a superb introductory text now fully revised and updated. It remains very accessible, written to engage and involve. It is clearly structured and comprehensive, exploring key aspects of social psychology. Through its many features and lively approach, Social Psychology will inform and challenge students everywhere. Social Psychology consolidates European and North American perspectives effectively to provide coverage with a unique global flavour. NEW FEATURES Increased coverage of social identity, affect, groups, deviance, ideology, and implicit attitudes reflects current issues and developments. New student-friendly features including theory and concepts boxes, research highlights, real world examples, and applied contexts highlight key information throughout. Inclusion of colour photographs and illustrations clarifies subject matter and supports understanding of every topic. CLASSIC FEATURES Coverage of inter-group relations, social identity, social representations, and levels of explanation presented within a European context. Full consideration of traditional topics such as social cognition, attitudes, influence, leadership, and decision making, interpersonal relationships, and aggression. Stand-alone chapters on culture, self and identity, and language and communication. Applied fields of health, organizations, and gender are integrated throughout. Addresses the historical context and background of social psychology's theories and research. Real world examples are used throughout to promote debate and further exploration of the subject. Students and Lecturers will find a range of targeted resources on our Companion Website such as self-test questions for each chapter, a password-protected Instructor's Manual, and testbank files. To access these materials, visit www.pearsoned.co.uk/hogg. THE AUTHORS Michael Hogg is Professor of Social Psychology at the University of Queensland and Visiting Professor of Psychology at the University of California Santa Barbara. He has previously lectured at Bristol University, Princeton University, and the University of Melbourne, and has been a British Academy Visiting Professor at Birmingham University. Graham Vaughan is Professor of Psychology at the University of Auckland. He has previously held posts at Bristol University, Cambridge University, the Maison des Sciences de l'Homme in Paris, the University of Illinois, Princeton University, and the National University of Singapore.

Creating Magical Worlds Marion Rana, 2009 A huge success in both bookshops and cinemas the Harry Potter series has drawn millions of readers and viewers into its magical world In constructing this world however J K Rowling has created Harry and his friends in sharp contrast to other members of the magical and non magical world Creating Magical Worlds Otherness and Othering in Harry Potter argues that the identities of the heroes are mainly based on delimitation from and rivalry to other characters the Slytherins and Death Eaters foreign students from Durmstrang and Beauxbatons magical races such as the house elves and centaurs Muggles and Squibs as well as to a certain extent girls and women Apart from explaining the social psychological and psychoanalytical reasons behind this exclusion Creating Magical Worlds also shows in how far this delimitation is necessary for the action and the plot of the series

Corruption, Social Sciences and the Law Jane Ellis, 2019-04-25 The problem of corruption however described dates back thousands of years Professionals working in areas such as development studies economics and political studies were the first to most actively analyse and publish on the topic of corruption and its negative impacts on economies societies and politics There was at that time minimal literature available on corruption and the law The literature and discussion on bribery and corruption as well as on the negative impact of each and what is required to address them particularly in the legal context are now considerable Corruption and anti corruption are multifaceted and multi disciplinary The focus now on the law and compliance and perhaps commercial incentives is relatively easy However corruption anti corruption and the motivations for them are complex If we continue to discuss debate engage address corruption and anti corruption in our own disciplinary silos we are unlikely to significantly progress the fight against corruption What do terms such as culture of integrity demand accountability transparency and accountability and ethical corporate culture dominating the anti corruption discourse mean if anything in other disciplines If they are meaningless what approach would practitioners in those other disciplines suggest be adopted to address corruption What has their experience been in the field How can the work of each discipline contribute to the work of whole and as such improve our work in and understanding of anti corruption This book seeks to answer these questions and to understand the phenomenon more comprehensively It will be of value to researchers academics lawyers legislators and students in the fields of law anthropology sociology international affairs and business

Corporate Social Responsibility in Developing and Emerging Markets Onyeka Osuji, Franklin N. Ngwu, Dima Jamali, 2020 A valuable interdisciplinary resource examining the concept and effectiveness of CSR as a tool for sustainable development in emerging markets Corporate Social Responsibility Across the Globe Onyeka K. Osuji, Franklin N. Ngwu, Gary Lynch-Wood, 2023-06-01 Corporate Social Responsibility Across the Globe demonstrates many ways that CSR can be applied by law to overcome regulation and governance challenges around the world Using interdisciplinary and comparative models and perspectives the book challenges dominant understandings of CSR such as neoliberal voluntarism and demonstrates the regulatory and governance implications of an interdependent relationship between CSR and the law The book identifies substantive and procedural barriers for CSR in national public and private international law By analyzing deconstructing and reframing CSR in these contexts the book underlines opportunities for more effective application of CSR as a governance mechanism Chapters investigate relevant regulation concepts paradigms and approaches for CSR methods for infusing CSR in corporate governance and ways to facilitate private regulation of CSR in more developed emerging and developing jurisdictions The Cambridge Handbook of Identity Michael Bamberg, Carolin Demuth, Meike Watzlawik, 2021-11-11 While identity is a key concept in psychology and the social sciences researchers have used and understood this concept in diverse and often contradictory ways The Cambridge Handbook of Identity presents the lively multidisciplinary field of identity research as working around three central themes i difference and sameness between people ii people's agency in the world and iii how identities can change or remain stable over time The chapters in this collection explore approaches behind these themes followed by a close look at their methodological implications while examples from a number of applied domains demonstrate how identity research follows concrete analytical procedures Featuring an international team of contributors who enrich psychological research with historical cultural and political perspectives the handbook also explores contemporary issues of identity politics diversity intersectionality and inclusion It is an essential resource for all scholars and students working on identity theory and research Attitude-Focused Therapy Windy Dryden, 2021-09-27 In this book Windy Dryden selects the eight ideas that have had the most influence on him in his career as a psychotherapist and which form the bedrock of his work These ideas reflect both his specific and his general interests in the field The book offers insight into the author's practice and the theories that have informed his work in a therapeutic setting It discusses the role that attitudes play in psychologically disturbed and psychologically healthy responses to life's adversities The book also elaborates the author's views on what promotes psychological change as well as why he considers the concepts of responsibility and choice to be so important in psychotherapy Finally the book highlights Windy Dryden's more recent work in the field of single session therapy This accessible and engaging book will be a fascinating read for counsellors and psychotherapists both in training and practice Attitudes Towards Inclusive Schooling Susanne Schwab, 2018 Over the last two decades the implementation of inclusive schooling has increased significantly in European countries and worldwide According to empirical evidence one of the most important success factors in implementing inclusive schooling are the attitudes of the actors involved Previous studies have shown that positive attitudes towards inclusive schooling are not only a condition for success regarding the implementation but also an important outcome variable of inclusive education The present study provides empirical insights into the attitudes towards students with learning disabilities and behavioral disorders A study called ATIS STEP Attitudes Towards Inclusive Schooling Students TEachers and Parents Attitudes was conducted in the school year 2016 17 in 48 inclusive classrooms in Austria It is the first study to provide longitudinal data that examines the attitudes of the three different stakeholder groups students teachers and parents Furthermore the interdependency of the attitudes of the three groups as well as the influence of previous contact experience on the attitudes are analyzed and discussed Dr Susanne Schwab Professorin f r Methodik und Didaktik in den F rderschwerpunkten Lernen sowie emotionale und soziale Entwicklung School of Education am Institut f r Bildungsforschung an der Bergischen Universit t Wuppertal Deutschland und Extraordinary Professor in der Research Focus Area Optentia an der North West University Vanderbijlpark South Africa Vorsitzende der Sektion Empirische p dagogische Forschung der sterreichischen Gesellschaft f r Forschung und Entwicklung im Bildungswesen FEB Arbeitsschwerpunkte Inklusionsp dagogik Lehrerprofessionalisierung Soziale Partizipation
