Bowing to Yoga?, No More Faking Fine Esther Fleece Allen, 2017-01-10 Scripture reveals a God who meets us where we are not where we pretend to be No More Faking Fine is your invitation to get honest with God through the life-giving language of lament If you've ever been given empty clichés during challenging times you know how painful it is to be misunderstood by well-meaning people When life hurts we often feel pressure from others and ourselves to keep it together suck it up or pray it away But Scripture reveals a God who lovingly invites us to give honest voice to our emotions when life hits hard For most of her life Esther Fleece Allen believed she could bypass the painful emotions of her broken past by shutting them down altogether She was known as an achiever and an overcomer on the fast track to success But in silencing her pain she robbed herself of the opportunity to be healed Maybe you've done the same Esther's journey into healing began when she discovered that God has given us a real world way to deal with raw emotions and an alternative to the coping mechanisms that end up causing more pain It's called lament the gut level honest prayer that God never ignores never silences and never wastes No More Faking Fine is your permission to lament taking you on a journey down the unexpected pathway to true intimacy with God Drawing from careful biblical study and hard won insight Esther reveals how to use God's own language to come closer to him as he leads us through our pain to the light on the other side teaching you that We are robbing ourselves of a divine mystery and a divine intimacy when we pretend to have it all together God does not expect us to be perfect instead he meets us where we are There is hope beyond your heartache disappointment and grief Like Esther you'll soon find that when one person stops faking fine it gives everyone else permission to do the same A Woman's Guide to Hearing God's Voice Leighann
