Un/belonging Identities: Relating Narratives of Queer Trauma Mark Vicars, Jordan Gonzalez, Liam Wrigley, Jonathan

Glazzard,2025-11-13 This Research Topic will examine the impact of trauma as it relates to the lived experiences of well being on and in LGBTQIA lives in educational domains The papers in the Topic will re present kaleidoscopic experiences of the social and cultural landscapes of the performative abjection of Queer gender and sexuality as experienced in and across cultural differences and intersectionality in school settings The papers in the collection will draw on the sociology of affect as a lens for addressing how social and emotional well being in LGBTQIA lives is a constant negotiation for young people The concept of social well being has been instrumental in bringing together a number of burgeoning disciplines across the social field sector and this Research Topic will focus on how LGBTQIA self identified young people navigate historical traumas social isolation and generate social well being in their personal lives and communities Researchers like Van der Kolk 2015 and Perry and Winfrey 2021 draw our attention to the impact of trauma on the body and the brain They highlight the damaging and often long term effect of trauma on brain development and the nervous system Attention is also given to the ways in which trauma can inhibit weaken and alter higher order thinking skills concentration and neurological pathways in the brain The body s response to trauma can also result in a constant release of hormones such as adrenalin and cortisol that can lead to a heightened nervous system To date there has been limited research on LGBTQI trauma informed narratives and their effects in Queer life worlds The Research Topic will disseminate trauma informed educative frameworks of practice strengths based resources and culturally inclusive language protocols Greig Bailey Abbott Brunzell 2021 Translation and Migration Moira Inghilleri,2016-12-08 Translation and Migration examines the ways in which the presence or absence of translation in situations of migratory movement has currently and historically shaped social cultural and economic relations between groups and individuals Acts of cultural and linguistic translation are discussed through a rich variety of illustrative literary ethnographic visual and historical materials also taking in issues of multiculturalism assimilation and hybridity analytically re framed This is key reading for students undertaking Translation Studies courses and will also be of interest to researchers in sociology cultural studies anthropology and migration studies India Today Arnold P.

Reconceptualising Power in Language Policy Abhimanyu Sharma, 2022-08-12 This book aims to expand the theoretical framework of and counter the Eurocentric narratives in language policy research by comparing policies of EU and India and demonstrating the importance of taking a comparative perspective while studying language policies This book challenges the notion of macro level power in language policy research and offers evidence that in democratic frameworks macro level power is not absolute It is not uniform across policy domains but rather susceptible to pressure especially in the domains of healthcare and social welfare This book makes three important contributions to the theory of language policy by Arguing for the need to reconceptualise macro level power Proposing Categories of Differentiation as a new analytical tool for policy research Demonstrating that socio political changes are reflected at the textual level This book is of interest to researchers working on language policies and those investigating language related legislation across different policy domains to practitioners and policymakers in language policy as well as to graduate students conducting comparative policy research This is a much valued and timely book making a strong case for the subject of language policy across Europe and India The large comparative case studies of four distinctive states across Europe and India in a simple descriptive mode makes the reading of this book enjoyable The domains of administration legislation healthcare and social welfare are undoubtedly novel ways to deal within the concept of language policy in a wider sense The author uses discourse analysis to bring out the relationship between intention explanation and interpretation of a phenomenon like language policy and its implementation The social diversity as expressed in linguistic mapping is well captured in the novel idea of categories of differentiation both as a normative methodological tool and its historical empirical manifestation Asha Sarangi Jawaharlal Nehru University New Delhi

Recharting Media Studies Philip Bounds, 2008 Scholars in Media Studies increasingly take the view that our understanding of the history of the discipline is deeply inadequate It is now widely recognised that a large number of important media analysts have simply been omitted from the standard histories This book aims to fill in some of the gaps by examining the work of eleven neglected writers each of whom has made a seminal contribution to the analysis of the media but whose work rarely appears in student textbooks anthologies and readers In keeping with the interdisciplinary ambitions of contemporary Media Studies the selected thinkers are drawn from a wide range of historical periods and intellectual backgrounds There are chapters on sociologists creative writers cultural theorists art critics journalists and even ancient Greek philosophers The aims of the book are by no means purely antiquarian The contributors believe that a revival of interest in the work of their chosen writers can go a long way towards revitalising Media Studies especially by 1 drawing attention to a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches which have yet to be adequately exploited 2 suggesting new areas of research and 3 transforming our understanding of the historical development of Media Studies
