The Shipbroking and Chartering Handbook Ashok Mulloth,2014 This book has been written so that people involved in the business of ship chartering get an excellent overview of this part of the shipping business As the book covers all aspects of chartering in a simple manner it will make an understanding of the business of ship chartering easy for those reading it The graphics in the book also make it easy for students to understand the Bill of Lading system and Incoterms and the essentials of freight market practice among others The book has ten chapters that have been arranged logically and sequentially Several standard chartering contracts have also been included as appendices Green Shipping Contracts Pia Rebelo,2024-08-22 This book applies a contract governance theory to the implementation of decarbonisation objectives in the international maritime sector In doing so it provides an overview of how the network of contractual relationships that characterise commercial shipping can become effective sites of collaboration between shipping actors to improve upon energy efficiency and CO2 reduction To achieve this aim the book investigates and develops a set of contractual tools that can enable private actors to strengthen their commitments to net zero targets whether state mandated or voluntary and develop cooperative norms to guide decision making and contractual interpretation These mechanisms include contractual clauses and drafting considerations which can secure a desired outcome for contractual performance thereby managing climate risks and providing adequate remedy where such risks materialise In a transnational sector such as shipping where contracts can exert greater influence on corporate decarbonisation efforts than international regulation the book challenges the traditional limitations of contract law and calls for a deeper integration of green principles into private relationships

Europeanisation Annina H Persson, Eleonor Kristoffersson, 2017-01-12 As part of the European integration an ambitious programme of harmonisation of European private law is taking place This new edition in the Swedish Studies in European Law series the work of both legal scholars and politicians aims to create a modern codification in the tradition of the great continental codifications such as the BGB and the Code Civil A significant step towards this development was taken in 2009 with the creation of the Draft Common Frame of Reference which contains model rules for a large part of central private law The process raises a number of questions What are the advantages and disadvantages of such an intensive process of harmonisation Are there lessons to be learnt from the Europeanisation of private law through history Are there any further steps which have been taken in order to create a European private law What is the future of European private law These crucial questions were discussed at a conference in Stockholm sponsored by the Swedish Network of European Legal Studies This important volume includes the answers offered by leading scholars in the field Shipping and Shipbroking Charles D. Macmurray, Malcolm M. Cree, 1925 The Hamburg Lectures on Maritime Affairs 2009 & 2010 Jürgen Basedow, Ulrich Magnus, Rüdiger Wolfrum, 2012-03-31 In 2007 the International Max Planck Research School for Maritime Affairs together with the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea ITLOS both based in Hamburg decided to establish an annual lecture series the Hamburg Lectures on Maritime Affairs giving distinguished scholars and practitioners the opportunity to present and discuss recent developments in this field The present volume the second in the series collects eight of the lectures held in 2009 and 2010 by David Joseph Attard Lucius Cafilisch Beate Czerwenka Lars Gorton Francesco Munari Kyriaki Noussia Peter Wetterstein and Wolfgang Wurmnest
