

Question 9

Panel of citizens were brought together in 1997 in an attempt to reinvent the tax agency. Each panel is composed of volunteers and a local taxpayer advocate. Members are chosen from a diverse cross section of the population. They serve either a two or three-year term. The groups hold public meetings and monitor how effectively the tax agency provides customer service and handles complaints. They gather citizen input and identify and evaluate problems. They then make recommendations for improving customer service and refer taxpayers to the appropriate tax office for assistance.

How are citizens able to make suggestions to the tax agency?

Directly to the tax agency

By joining a panel

Meetings involving the tax agency

Through the panels of citizens
