historic highway's most recognized authorities Jim Ross and Shellee Graham chronicle these and dozens of other tales as they peel away the layers of history to expose the weird wonderful and obscure of America's Mother Road The Hidden Path Marion Harland (pseud. [i.e. Mary Virginia Hawes, afterwards Terhune.]), 1855 The Copper-Colored Mountain Jigme Lingpa, 2022-11-01 A translation of Jigme Lingpa's eighteenth century Tibetan Buddhist aspiration prayer for taking rebirth in the pure land Copper Colored Mountain accompanied by a commentary and analysis by the translators While Pure Land Buddhism is generally thought of as an East Asian tradition with an Indian origin the Copper Colored Mountain is in fact the first and only pure land with scriptural origins entirely in the Tibetan tradition It represents Tibetan culture's fascinating intersection of traditional history with liturgical tantric practice The Copper Colored Mountain is understood to be the current abode of Padmasambhava the Indian master credited with first bringing Buddhism to Tibet and founding Tibet's first monastery Samye After leaving Tibet it is said that Padmasambhava set up residence on C mara one of the two islands on either side of the continent of Jambudvīpa our world according to Buddhist cosmology After taming the resident ogres of C mara and converting them to Buddhism he then built an octagonal palace where Buddhist practitioners may be transported in visions and dreams or reborn through aspiration prayers This work is a translation and analysis of one such aspiration prayer This prayer was composed by Jigme Lingpa a treasure revealer of the Nyingma tradition in the eighteenth century and remains the most important prayer to this pure land in Tibetan Buddhism Merging academic precision in representing the Tibetan texts and devotion to the principles of tantric Buddhism translators Georgios T Halkias and Christina Partsalaki enable a wider appreciation of the history and impact of this prayer in Tibetan Buddhist literature while elucidating its meaning for Buddhist practitioners Music Transforming Conflict Ariana Phillips-Hutton, 2020-11-12 Teach the world to sing and all will be in perfect harmony or so the songs tell us Music is widely believed to unify and bring peace but the focus on music as a vehicle for fostering empathy and reconciliation between opposing groups threatens to overly simplify our narratives of how interpersonal conflict might be transformed This Element offers a critique of empathy's ethical imperative of radical openness and positions the acknowledgement of moral responsibility as a fundamental component of music's capacity to transform conflict Through case studies of music and conflict transformation in Australia and Canada Music Transforming Conflict assesses the complementary roles of musically mediated empathy and guilt in post conflict societies and argues that a consideration of musical and moral implication as part of studies on music and conflict offers a powerful tool for understanding music's potential to contribute to societal change Teaching Social Justice Using Postcolonial Texts Geraldine Balzer, Teresa Strong-Wilson, Anne Burke, 2023-07-28 This book explores how teachers can re-examine their emotional investments in enacting dominant settler values through changing their text selection and teaching practices Based on a longitudinal qualitative research study conducted by a national team of literacy scholars in collaboration with practicing literacy teachers at eight sites across Canada the book investigates how groups of teachers working
