Matthew 27:27-31 “Mocked & Abused for Us!”

Intro. Have you ever been verbally abused? Has someone ever made fun of you, or ridiculed you? Has someone ever physically abused you? I believe all of us have suffered some kind of abuse or ridicule at some time in our lives. Some may be going through it right now.

Well I want you to know that Jesus Christ suffered abuse and ridicule more than anyone I know. He knows what it feels like. And so when you go through such times of suffering, you can take your problem to the Lord. He understands. He will sympathize with you, and comfort you, and strengthen you. And this morning we are going to learn more about what we should do when we suffer abuse & ridicule.

We are also going to see a dark picture of the depravity of man. Right before Jesus was crucified, the Roman soldiers were utterly cruel to Jesus. Now we may not be as bad as these Roman soldiers, but we all share the same problem of having a sin nature. As a result we all have sinned against a holy God, and so often, we just can't seem to help ourselves, especially when we get in certain situations, or around certain people. So we all need to be saved from sin, and Jesus was willing to suffer incredibly in order to pay the full penalty of sin.

Now this morning we will partake of the Lord's Supper. Before we do, let us reflect upon one aspect of the suffering of Jesus for us. In a moment we will take the bread, by which we are to remember the body of Jesus. We will reflect upon the fact the Jesus suffered in His body. He was lashed with a whip, and the flesh of His head was pierced with many thorns. Then we will take the cup, which is to remind us of His blood, and I will invite you to reflect upon the fact that His blood flowed freely even from His head and brow. And as we reflect upon the sufferings of Jesus for us, we should certainly respond by loving Jesus more, and desiring to serve Him more fully and faithfully.

So let's look into this brief text of Scripture, and consider the lessons that God has for you and for me. Now first of all:

I. THE SOLDIERS SHOW US HOW SINFUL WE CAN BE

Jeremiah 17:9 says, “The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked.” If ever there was a place where we could see that verse proved, it was in the palace of the governor. Jesus had already suffered incredibly in Gethsemane, during His mock trials (26:67-68), and during His flogging (27:26). By now His body must have been throbbing with pain. He was about to suffer to an even greater degree during His crucifixion. Wouldn't that be enough? No! The blood-thirsty soldiers sunk to even lower levels of depravity as they added to the suffering of Jesus. I will share with you the specifics in just a moment.

Now what happened to Jesus was not all that unusual. First-century executions were not like modern ones. When any criminal was to be crucified, he was turned over to the Roman soldiers. They were a brutal lot. And since the authorities wanted to make an example of condemned criminals, they wanted the condemned prisoners to suffer greatly. So they often permitted the soldiers to abuse & humiliate such men before their crucifixion. They were free to
