Shark Net Robert Drewe:

The Shark Net Robert Drewe, 2000 De Australische auteur blikt terug op zijn jeugd in de jaren zestig overschaduwd door een reeks moorden in zijn omgeving The Shark Net by Robert Drewe Shelley O'Reilly, 2004 The Shark Net Robert Drewe, 2003-07-08 Aged six Robert Drewe moved with his family from Melbourne to Perth the world's most isolated city and proud of it This sun baked coast was innocently proud too of its tranquillity and friendliness Then a man he knew murdered a boy he also knew The murderer randomly killed eight strangers variously shooting strangling stabbing bludgeoning and hacking his victims and running them down with cars an innocent Perth was changed forever In the middle class suburbs which were the killer's main stalking grounds the mysterious murders created widespread anxiety and instant local myth The murders and their aftermath have both intrigued me and weighed heavily on me for three decades To try to make sense of this time and place and of my own childhood and adolescence I had finally to write about it The result is The Shark Net a vibrant and haunting memoir that reaches beyond the dark recesses of murder and chaos to encompass their ordinary suburban backdrop

Bodysurfers" by Robert Drewe. The Landscape and its Effects on the Identity of the Characters Anna

Rauch, 2014-05-13 Seminar paper from the year 2010 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Pedagogy Literature Studies grade 2 University of Innsbruck Department of English course The Urban and the Rural in Australian Literature language English abstract In my paper I want to talk about the book The Bodysurfers Robert Drewe by focusing on the description of the different landscapes and the way people identify with it I also find it important to mention the mixed feelings of the different characters all of them living by the coast While I was reading the book I could notice the rather different ways of describing the landscapes each narrator and character senses the surroundings differently The environment in which the characters are living is one of the main topics of the book it focuses on the descriptions and provides the reader with the opportunity to live the book and to understand in a better way how important the sea and the beach are for Australians In The Bodysurfers the beach is the most popular and most described landscape It is fantastic how many different ways of seeing and feeling the beach can be found in this book and how different varieties of language can influence the reader by providing him with many ways of understanding the characters The Bodysurfers is not an easy book maybe you have to read it twice but it can give you a perfect possibility to deal with other nations and cultures and to distinguish between different characters and their ways of speaking and telling When I was dealing with my topic I was impressed how ones opinion can change while reading a book e g in one story the beach is described as a lonely and quiet place in another story as a sand heap full of rubbish In my paper I want above all to show these different ways of describing on the one hand describing by using different sorts of language and on the other hand describing by feeling and observing the place you live in I want to show that these depictions are the essence of the book and make it vivid because these stories breathe Taut yet teeming with life they are shot through with gritty phrases that catch at one s throat Goodreads Paper Empires Craig Munro, Robyn Sheahan-Bright, 2010-07 This new volume in UQP s History of the Book in Australia series explores Australian book production and consumption from 1946 to the present day In the immediate postwar era most books were imported into a colonial market dominated by British publishers Paper Empires traces this fascinating and volatile half century using wide ranging resea Beyond Words Jacqueline Kent, 2019-02-04 In 1985 Jacqueline Kent was content with her life She had a satisfying career as a freelance book editor and was emerging as a writer Living and working alone she relished her independence But then she met Kenneth Cook author of the Australian classic Wake in Fright and they fell in love With bewildering speed Jacqueline found herself in alien territory with a man almost twenty years older whose life experience could not have been more different from her own She had to come to terms with complicated finances and expectations and to negotiate relationships with Ken s children four people almost her own age But with this man of contradictions funny and sad headstrong and tender she found real and sustaining companionship Their life together was often joyful sometimes enraging always exciting until one devastating evening But as Jacqueline discovered even when a story is over that doesn t mean it has come to an end The SAGE Handbook of Writing Development Roger Beard, Debra Myhill, Jeni Riley, Martin Nystrand, 2009-07-09 Writing development is currently the focus of substantial international debate because it is the aspect of literacy education that has been least responsive to central government and state reforms Teaching approaches in writing have been slower to change than those in teaching reading and pupil attainment in writing has increased at a much more modest rate than pupil attainment in reading This handbook critically examines research and theoretical issues that impact on writing development from the early years through to adulthood It provides those researching or teaching literacy with one of the most academically authoritative and comprehensive works in the field With expert contributors from across the world the book represents a detailed and valuable overview of a complex area of study Philippine Studies Priscelina Patajo-Legasto, 2008 These essays by Philippine and U S based scholars illustrate the dynamism and complexities of the discursive field of Philippine studies as a critique of vestiges of universalist Western hegemonic paradigms as an affirmation of traditional and emergent cultural practices as a site for new readings of old texts and new popular forms brought into the ambit of serious scholarship and as a liberative space for new art and literary genres The Rough Guide to Australia Rough Guides, 2017-04-18 This in depth coverage of Australia s local attractions history and sites takes you to the most rewarding spots from the wild Outback to the Sydney Opera House and stunning color photography brings the land to life on the pages Discover Australia s highlights with expert advice on exploring the best sites participating in festivals and exploring local landmarks through extensive coverage of this fascinating island continent Easy to use maps reliable advice on how to get around and insider reviews of the best hotels restaurants bars clubs and shops for all budgets ensure that you won t miss a thing Make the most of your time with The Rough Guide to Australia The Bulletin , 2003 Carnage Mark Dapin, 2023-08-02 Millions have been entertained by the viral video of a man being arrested after a succulent Chinese meal But when Mark Dapin investigated it emerged that this man s story went to the heart of the Australian underworld A true crime cult classic in the making Whether you know it as the succulent Chinese meal video or democracy manifest chances are you have seen the video of baritone larrikin Jack Karlson getting arrested outside a Brisbane Chinese restaurant in 1991 The Guardian called it perhaps the pre eminent Australian meme of the last 10 years When Karlson called crime writer Mark Dapin out of the blue though Dapin hadn t heard of him But there was enough that intrigued him about this theatrical outlaw to continue the conversation Over the following months emerged a dark and complex past It turned out that Karlson had been in the background of many notorious incidents in late twentieth century Australian crime from collaborating with infamous prison playwright Jim McNeil to befriending hitman Christopher Dale Flannery Mr Rent a Kill But most shockingly of all Karlson s life story led Dapin to shed new light on a number of unsolved murders by two serial killers The result is an extraordinary deeply revealing portrait of Australian crime from the 60s to the 2010s a portrait of carnage Mark Dapin could never be accused of glorifying crime but he is guilty as sin for understanding it Inhabited by flawed humans filled with violence humour tears and dreams Carnage is a classic Australian crime story Gary Jubelin author of I Catch Killers True crime at its grim and richly entertaining best and let s face it its truest Robert Drewe author of The Shark Net If ever there was a book crammed with colourful villains who are mad bad and dangerous to know it s definitely Mark Dapin s extraordinary book Carnage Kate McClymont author of He Who Must Be Obeid Carnage is a window into Australian mayhem killingly funny and beautifully told Dapin finds pathos in a twisted world Matthew Spencer author of Black River Carnage begins by probing what seems a minor curiosity an internet meme centred on a colourful character then takes a turn into the lives of traumatised youths hurled without care or thought into brutalising reformatories From there they graduate to rorts robberies violence Bleak lives interspersed with occasional forays into squaresville spouses kids even jobs and attempts at betterment via theatre and literature A unique deeply felt take on the Australian underworld Peter Doyle author of Crooks Like Us The moment I start reading anything by Mark Dapin I m captivated intrigued and engaged for the entire journey There is no finer writer documenting the history and characters of Australian criminality Stuart Coupe The Devil's Milk John Tully,2011-02 John Tully has done an extraordinary job tying together the disparate elements historical geographical sociological anthropological of the rubber industry He provides a deft treatment of a complicated and typically overlooked natural and synthetic resource that remains fundamental to the world economy I strongly recommend it John Borsos vice president National Union of Healthcare Workers NUHW Multiliteracies in Motion David R. Cole,Darren Lee Pullen,2009-12-04 Offers information on the evolution of multi literacies and the state of literacy theory in relation to it This book discusses the aims of multi literacies movement in 1996 Literacies Mary Kalantzis,Bill Cope,Eveline Chan,Leanne Dalley-Trim,2016-08-11 With the rise of new technologies and media the way we communicate is rapidly changing Literacies provides a comprehensive introduction to literacy pedagogy within today s new media environment It focuses not only on reading and writing but also on other modes of communication including oral visual audio gestural and spatial This focus is designed to supplement not replace the enduringly important role of alphabetical literacy Using real world examples and illustrations Literacies features the experiences of both teachers and students It maps a range of methods that teachers can use to help their students develop their capacities to read write and communicate It also explores the wide range of literacies and the diversity of socio cultural settings in today s workplace public and community settings With an emphasis on the how to practicalities of designing literacy learning experiences and assessing learner outcomes this book is a contemporary and in depth resource for literacy students The Beach Robert Drewe,2015-11-01 Robert Drewe internationally acclaimed writer writes here about the quintessential Australian experience Drewe looks at the sunny salty sexiness of the beach that first enticed the crusading Mr William Gocher into the ocean at Manly in 1903 defying authorities in his neck to knee bathing costume We ve come a long way from sunbathing in stockings and pantaloons to the unabashed display of sun kissed bodies of all shapes and sizes at any beach in the country today But the beach also has a dark side as a place of tragedy violence and danger a place where sharks attack prone surfers and prime ministers disappear Drewe s lyrical examination of Australian beach culture combines imagery from some of Australia s most celebrated photographers with his personal anecdotes a favourite boat a capsicum strewn beach a summer holiday with teenagers and an unwelcome great white This is a book for Australians dreaming of the beach that is those of us not there right now
