Design Guidelines for Downtown Shopping Centers Billy Kevin McGhee, 1987 This thesis focuses on urban design issues germane to downtown shopping center design The underlying concept is that all new downtown shopping centers should attempt to build upon the existing fabric in such a way as to become an integral part of the city This study first examines the nature of retail districts the shopping center as a building type and the recent emergence of the downtown shopping center Two recently constructed downtown centers will be reviewed to uncover urban design concerns that are pertinent to the conceptual design of shopping centers in the context of downtowns The intent of this study is to formulate design guidelines that address the problems of implementing this suburban retail model in the context of a downtown These guidelines are then applied to a specific site in the form of a sketch problem This study concludes with an evaluation of the guidelines and some recommendations for designing shopping places that are conceived as an integral part of the city

Code of Federal Regulations , 2005 The Routledge Companion to Automobile Heritage, Culture, and Preservation
Barry L. Stiefel, Jennifer Clark, 2019-12-06 The Routledge Companion to Automobile Heritage Culture and Preservation explores automotive heritage its place in society and the ways we might preserve and conserve it Drawing on contributions from academics and practitioners around the world and comprising six sections this volume carries the heritage discourse forward by exploring the complex and sometimes intricate place of automobiles within society Taken as a whole this book helps to shape how we think about automobile heritage and considers how that heritage explores a range of cultural intellectual emotional and material elements well outside of the automobile body itself Most importantly perhaps it questions how we might better acknowledge the importance of automotive heritage now and in the future The Routledge Companion to Automobile Heritage Culture and Preservation is unique in that it juxtaposes theory with practice academic approaches with practical experience and recognizes that issues of preservation and conservation belong in a broad context As such this volume should be essential reading for both academics and practitioners with an interest in automobiles cultural heritage and preservation
