Mountain Arapesh Margaret Mead, For approximately eight months during 1931-1932 anthropologist Margaret Mead lived with and studied the Mountain Arapesh a segment of the population of the East Sepik Province Papua New Guinea She found a culture based on simplicity sensitivity and cooperation In contrast to the aggressive Arapesh who lived on the plains both the men and the women of the mountain settlements were found to be in Mead's word maternal The Mountain Arapesh exhibited qualities that many might consider feminine they were in general passive affectionate and peace-loving Though Mead partially explains the male's femininity as being due to the type of nourishment available to the Arapesh she maintains social conditioning to be a factor in the type of lifestyle led by both sexes Mead's study encapsulates all aspects of the Arapesh culture She discusses betrothal and marriage customs sexuality gender roles diet religion arts agriculture and rites of passage In possibly a portent for the breakdown of traditional roles and beliefs in the latter part of the twentieth century

Mead discusses the purpose of rites of passage in maintaining societal values and social control Mead also discovered that both male and female parents took an active role in raising their children Furthermore it was found that there were few conflicts over property the Arapesh having no concept of land ownership maintained a peaceful existence with each other In his new introduction to The Mountain Arapesh Paul B Roscoe assesses the importance of Mead's work in light of modern anthropological and ethnographic research as well as how it fits into her own canon of writings Roscoe discusses findings he culled from a trip to Papua New Guinea in 1991 to clarify some ambiguities in Mead's work His travels also served to help reconstruct what had happened to the Arapesh since Mead's historic visit in the early 1930s Margaret Mead 1901-1978 was associated with the American Museum of Natural History in New York for over fifty years becoming Curator of Ethnology in 1964 She taught at Columbia University and the New School for Social Research as well as a number of other universities Among her many books is Continuities in Cultural Evolution available from Transaction Publishers Paul B Roscoe is professor of anthropology at the University of Maine He is a frequent contributor to anthropology journals including American Anthropologist, American Ethnologist and Current Anthropology and is co-editor with Nancy Lutkehaus of Gender Rituals: Female Initiation in Melanesia The 1992 recipient of the Royal Anthropological Institute's Curl Essay Prize he has an archival specialization in ancient Polynesia

Healers in the Night Eric de Rosny,2004-05-10 Mysterious the sway of the masters of the night Of what unsubjugated region of myself had they taken possession Did they occupy the realm where dreams are born and bred Had they seized the spot where the most contrary desires mingle the one to kill and the one to love the one to make suffer and the one to adore the phantasms born of water and fire blood and death in a perpetual maelstrom like the one I had seen with my own eyes in the course of the night seances at the hands of the ngangas There must be a hidden relationship I thought a secret pact between the ngangas and myself Nothing else could have explained the fascination I felt when I was among them Since childhood I had always wanted to reach other cultural worlds to get as far away as I could from my own roots And now that I had done so I had the feeling of having arrived in a familiar land From the book Spiritual Verses of Sheikh Farid in Guru Granth Sahib Dr. Harpal Sodhi & Pritpaul Singh Bambah,2020-01-23 Spiritual Verses of Sheikh Farid in Guru Granth Sahib Sheikh Farid has penned down his vast experience which he had encountered during his life long search for the spiritual bliss and a deep rooted desire to meet God face to face In Saloka 90 he writes Farida your body has dried up and has become a skeleton and the crows find it a potential food source and peck at the palms Look at the fate of this humble person even now there is no indication of an approach by God Here are a few lessons to be learnt from the Verses Kalam Bani of Sheikh Farid in Guru Garanth Sahib Go to Church or temple or Masjid or Synagogue of your faith as per the practice established by your elders There you come in contact with persons of your views and concepts and your faith is enhanced Shaloka 70 of Sheikh Farid Do your prayers as dictated by your religion as best as you can it will add up to your spiritual belief in God and will give you confidence Shaloka 71st of Sheikh Farid Pay full attention to the voice of your conscience which your spiritual leaning keeps it vibrating Shaloka 39th of Sheikh Farid Do not criticize others method of spiritual belief and rituals It is the voice of your ego which induces you to down size others better search your conscience Shaloka 6th of Sheikh Farid Do not be a hypocrite the death equalizes everyone at the end Shaloka 26th of Sheikh Farid Avoid bad deeds they bring you shame at the end Shaloka 59 of Sheikh Farid Do good even to a bad person do not let anger over power you such a way of life will enhance your life span and will give you all the satisfaction you desire Salok 78 of Sheikh Farid All the Salokas of Sheikh Farid depict his state of mind and his eagerness and his whole hearted devotion to God of his faith He reacted strongly to the cunning and
