Luxor Capital Hedge Fund:

The Politics of Late Urban Entrepreneurialism Greig Charnock, Jose Mansilla, Ramon Ribera-Fumaz, 2025-11-19 The Politics of Late Urban Entrepreneurialism provides a critical examination of how innovation district transformation in Barcelona has led to periodic crisis and an overproduction of commercial real estate alongside a chronic housing shortage gentrification touristification and a growth in low quality employment among other damaging results Today innovation districts are widely seen as a disruptive but generative solution to post industrial decline and inefficient land use in urban centres and as an effective means of bringing inclusive economic dynamism quality jobs and improved public spaces to city neighbourhoods Their advocates often point to the pioneering transformation of the 22 District This book challenges the celebratory discourse surrounding the Barcelona case and with a critical eye on how innovation district transformation is conditioned by the prevailing global political economic context It also chronicles how this transformation has continually ignited forms of class based struggle in Barcelona by embattled residents angered at how their own neighbourhood has been used as an urban laboratory and site for speculative forms of capital accumulation Ultimately this book challenges the notion that innovation is always a beneficent force through a critical examination of the disruptive consequences of innovation district transformation by engaging with existing literature and interrogating the dominant narratives that celebrate them as being universally beneficial Instead it underscores the tensions and contradictions inherent in them With its focus on the historical development of global capitalism and the retention of a narrow repertoire of entrepreneurial approaches towards urban governance The Politics of Late Urban Entrepreneurialism will be of great interest to scholars and students researching globalisation and urbanisation

Hedged Margot Susca, 2024-01-23 The untold history of an American catastrophe The ultrawealthy largely own and guide the newspaper system in the United States Through entities like hedge funds and private equity firms this investor class continues to dismantle the one institution meant to give voice to average citizens in a democracy Margot Susca reveals the little known history of how private investment took over the newspaper industry Drawing on a political economy of media Susca s analysis uses in depth interviews and documentary evidence to examine issues surrounding ownership and power Susca also traces the scorched earth policies of layoffs debt cash outs and wholesale newspaper closings left behind by private investors and the effects of the devastation on the future of news and information Throughout Susca reveals an industry rocked less by external forces like lost ad revenue and more by ownership and management obsessed with profit and beholden to private fund interests that feel no responsibility toward journalism or the public it is meant to serve
