The Decisive Network Nadya Bair, 2020 Since its founding in 1947 the legendary Magnum Photos agency has been telling its own story Its photographers were concerned witnesses to history and artists on the hunt for decisive moments their pictures were humanist documents of the postwar world Based in unprecedented archival research The Decisive Network peels back layers of the Magnum mythology to offer a new history of what it meant to shoot edit and sell news images after World War II Between the 1940s and 1960s Magnum expanded the human interest story about the everyday life of ordinary people to global dimensions while bringing the aesthetic of news pictures into new markets Its best known work started as humanitarian aid promotion travel campaigns corporate publicity and advertising Working with this range of clients Magnum made photojournalism integral to visual culture Yet Magnum's photographers could not have done this alone This book unpacks the collaborative nature of photojournalism as it transpired on a daily basis focusing on how picture editors sales agents spouses and publishers helped Magnum photographers succeed in their assignments and achieve fame The Decisive Network concludes in the late 1960s and early 1970s when amidst the decline of magazine publishing and the rise of an art market for photography Magnum turned to photo books and exhibitions to manage its growing picture archives and consolidate its brand In that moment Magnum s photojournalists became artists and their assignments turned into oeuvres Such ideas were necessary publicity and they also managed to shape discussions about photography for decades Bridging art history media studies cultural history and the history of communication this book transforms our understanding of the photographic profession and the global circulation of images in the pre digital world David 'Chim' Seymour Carole Naggar,2022-06-21 He used his camera like a doctor would use a stethoscope in order to diagnose the state of the heart His own was vulnerable Cartier Bresson wrote about David Seymour who liked to be called Chim Chim is best known as one of the cofounders of photojournalism s famous cooperative Magnum Photos Weaving Chim s life and work this book discovers this empathetic photographer who has been called The First Human Rights Photographer In 1947 Chim was one of the four cofounders of the Magnum Photos cooperative with Robert Capa Henri Cartier Bresson and George Rodger He also wrote Magnum s 1955 bylaws which are still in effect today But he is the only one of those famous photographers who does not have a full biography to his name This book examines his life and work from Poland to France to the Spanish Civil War his work for British intelligence during World War II his reportage on Europe s children after the war his reportages on Italian actors illiteracy and religious festivals in Southern Italy his coverage of Israel s beginnings before his 1956 death during the Suez war His complex itinerary is emblematic of the displacements and passages of the XXth century The Great Beginning of Citeaux E. Rozanne Elder,2012-05-01 In the closing decades of the twelfth century the Cistercian Order had become an important ecclesiastical and economic power in Europe Yet it had lost its influential spokesman Bernard of Clairvaux and as the century drew to a close religious sensibilities were changing The new mendicant orders the Franciscans and the Dominicans and the impulses they embodied were to shift the center of gravity in Christian religious life for centuries to come It was in this transitional period that Conrad of Eberbach gradually between the 1180s and 1215 compiled the Exordium magnum cisterciense The Great Beginning of C teaux It is a book of history and lore often with miraculous stories meant to continue a great spiritual tradition and it is also a book meant to justify and repair the Order The Exordium magnum was in part an effort to provide a historical and formative context for those who were to be Cistercians in the thirteenth century Conrad s combination of a historical sensibility and the edifying exempla makes the Exordium magnum a remarkably innovative book Its unique combination of genres narratio and exempla is conceivable only within the intellectual world of the twelfth or early thirteenth centuries before exempla collections came to be compiled solely for edification or use in sermons The Great Beginning of C teaux is a revealing book and an excellent place to begin more detailed study of the Cistercian Order between 1174 and the middle of the thirteenth century Getting the Picture Jason E. Hill,Vanessa R.

Schwartz,2020-09-08 Powerful and often controversial news pictures promise to make the world at once immediate and knowable Yet while many great writers and thinkers have evaluated photographs of atrocity and crisis few have sought to set these images in a broader context by defining the rich and diverse history of news pictures in their many forms For the first time this volume defines what counts as a news picture how pictures are selected and distributed where they are seen and how we critique and value them Presenting the best new thinking on this fascinating topic this book considers the news picture over time from the dawn of the illustrated press in the nineteenth century through photojournalism s heyday and the rise of broadcast news and newsreels in the twentieth century and into today s digital platforms It examines the many kinds of images sport fashion society celebrity war catastrophe and exoticism and many mediums including photography painting wood engraving film and video Packed with the best research and full colour illustrations throughout this book will appeal to students and readers interested in how news and history are key sources of our rich visual culture George Rodger

Carole Nagggar,2003-10-01 He was a trailblazing twentieth century British photojournalist but George Rodger lived in the adventurous tradition of nineteenth century explorers Cofounding Magnum Photos in 1947 with Henri Cartier Bresson and Robert Capa the modest Rodger was eclipsed by his partnersuntil now Rodger s Indiana Jones style escapades are legendary and worth the telling He once covered over 75 000 miles of old Africa in a Land Rover He even survived a white rhino charge He went on to become a key photographer of African tribal life During World War II he covered sixty one countries for Life magazine He was chased through three hundred miles of Burmese jungles by both the Japanese army and a tribe of headhunters And he was the first to record the liberation of the Bergen Belsen concentration camp He quit photography when he realized he was arranging thousands of Jewish corpses in nice photographic compositions In fascinating detail Carol Nagggar not only recalls Roger s singular life and artistic contribution but she also provides an in depth look at the complex dynamics of ethics violence and photojournalism As such it places the legacy of George Rodger within a broader sociohistorical context Blueprint ,2005 Print Matters Maria Antonella Pelizzari,Andrés Mario Zervigón,2025-11-11

This volume presents a nuanced exploration of how illustrated magazines shaped global visual culture between 1910 and 1970 In the early to mid twentieth century the vast majority of printed photographs appeared in the pages of illustrated magazines Publications such as Life China Pictorial Drum Picture Post and Ebony did more than showcase photographs they crafted visual narratives by combining images text and graphics into influential cultural artifacts These periodicals shaped public perception and mass media consensus like the Internet does today bringing a shared visual experience to homes and newsstands around the world The essays in this volume delve into the technologies and visual strategies behind these publications showing how their layouts were affected by political commercial editorial and artistic factors leading up to World War II The commentaries also explore how democracy dictatorships colonization and modernity at large gave rise to experimental magazine designs turning avant garde art and lifestyle reporting into popular formats Featuring over 150

The Haskins Society Journal 34 Person William North, Contributor Laura E Wangerin, 2024-10-08 Essays illuminating a wide range of topics from Cistercian preachers and the geography of purgatory to royal and ecclesiastical justice and power This volume continues the Society's commitment to historical and interdisciplinary research from the early and central Middle Ages and demonstrates its belief that the close interrogation of primary documents yields new insights into or important recalibrations of our understanding of the past It begins by surveying the works of the Greek Fathers rendered into Latin in late antiquity exploring their reception and deployment in England before the conquest The twelfth century occupies a central place in this volume Four papers offer close readings or re readings of key authors or sources one reconstructs William of Malmesbury's journeys in the mid 1130s another offers a new reading of two of Aelred of Rievaulx's royal biographies a third considers the influence of Henry of Marcy on Herbert of Clairvaux's Liber visionum et miraculorum Clarevallensium and a fourth examines the Historia Gaufredi Ducis and its outsized impact on the history of the ritual of dubbing Two papers address royal and ecclesiastical justice in mid thirteenth century France through meticulous work with archival sources they respectively consider the case of Geoffroy de Milly and limits of sovereign authority and enquetes as a technique of power Further topics include the emerging geography of purgatory in the imagination of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries the different dimensions of medieval institutional culture as seen in the intersection of earthly and angelic power in Angevin England placed in dialogue with American medieval historiography and the evolving historiographical treatment of men of the Church employed as trusted administrators by Italian communes The volume concludes with two essays on significant moments in the history of American medieval studies examinations of the publication history of Evelyn Faye Wilson's Stella Maris of John of Garland and of the life scholarship and legacy of Bennett David Hill round out the volume

Back into Focus Charles R. Herrick, 2024-12-05 This new account carefully details the events surrounding Robert Capa's D Day adventures using official SHAEF files and a variety of accounts of witnesses Although Capa's Falling Soldier image from the Spanish Civil War has been definitively proven to be a staged propaganda fake no one has applied a similarly critical eye to his later work This book is the first effort to establish the facts behind the fables surrounding his D Day adventures and the images he produced during that period This book examines the fictionalized account Robert Capa penned in his pseudo biography Slightly Out of Focus Written in the hopes of it becoming a movie Capa included many elements which were exaggerated or simply not true while omitting many relevant events As he himself said in the dust jacket for that book Writing the truth being obviously so difficult I have in the interests of it allowed myself to go sometimes slightly beyond and slightly this side of it All events and persons in the book are accidental and have something to do with the truth This new account carefully details the actual events surrounding Capa's D Day adventures using official SHAEF files still and motion picture images taken by other cameramen who were near or with Capa and a variety of accounts of witnesses It examines several aspects of Capa s narrative and reveals the truth behind the fiction he claimed that he landed in the First Wave with Company E in reality he landed almost two hours later in Wave 13 with the regimental commander Analysis reveals how many of his images were presented in a false context and as a result have been misinterpreted for decades Building on Allan Coleman and his team s proof that the bulk of Capa D Day photos could not possibly have been ruined in a darkroom accident this gripping expose details the effects the FORTITUDE deception plans had on censorship and how the censorship system would have retained the images popularly thought to have been lost American Photo ,1998-09 The Art of Cistercian Persuasion in the Middle Ages and Beyond ,2015-10-14

Focusing on the theory and practice of Cistercian persuasion the articles gathered in this volume offer historical literary critical and anthropological perspectives on Caesarius of Heisterbach s Dialogus Miraculorum thirteenth century the context of its production and other texts directly or indirectly inspired by it The exempla inserted by Caesarius into a didactic dialogue between a monk and a novice survived for many centuries and travelled across the seas thanks to rewritings and translations into vernacular languages An accomplished example of the art of persuasion medieval and early modern the Dialogus Miraculorum establishes a link not only between the monasteries the mendicant circles and other religious congregations but also between the Middle Ages and Modernity the Old and the New World Contributors are Jacques Berlioz Elisa Brilli Dani le Dehouve Pierre Antoine Fabre Marie Formarier Jasmin Margarete Hlatky Elena Koroleva Nathalie Luca Brian Patrick McGuire Stefano Mula Marie Anne Polo de Beaulieu Victoria Smirnova and Anne Marie Turcan Verkerk

American Photo - ND ,2007-01 Television Horace Newcomb,1987 The fourth edition of this acclaimed work features essays on such current topics as Mr T Dallas music videos soap operas and the ideology and politics of television The contributors span a wide range of disciplines and employ a variety of approaches including semiotics cultural studies and institutional analyses along with more traditional views of plots and themes to provide readers with a broad balanced perspective on popular television The Routledge Research Companion to Media Geography Paul C. Adams,Jim Craine,2016-03-23 This Companion provides an authoritative source for scholars and students of the nascent field of media geography While it has deep roots in the wider discipline the consolidation of media geography has started only in the past decade with the creation of media geography s first dedicated journal Aether as well as the publication of the sub discipline s first textbook However at present there is no other work which provides a comprehensive overview and grounding By indicating the sub discipline s evolution and hinting at its future this volume not only serves to encapsulate what geographers have learned about media but also will help to set the agenda for expanding this type of interdisciplinary exploration The contributors leading scholars in this field including Stuart Aitken Deborah Dixon Derek McCormack Barney Warf and Matthew Zook not only review the existing literature within the remit of their chapters but also articulate arguments about where the future might take media geography scholarship The volume is not simply a collection of individual offerings but has afforded an opportunity to exchange ideas about media geography with contributors making connections between chapters and developing common themes
