Making Connections in Elementary and Middle School Social Studies Andrew P. Johnson, 2009-10-15 Making Connections in Elementary and Middle School Social Studies Second Edition is the best text for teaching primary school teachers how to integrate social studies into other content areas This book is a comprehensive reader friendly text that demonstrates how personal connections can be incorporated into social studies education while meeting the National Council for the Social Studies' thematic pedagogical and disciplinary standards Praised for its wealth of strategies that go beyond social studies teaching including classroom strategies pedagogical techniques activities and lesson plan ideas this book examines a variety of methods both novice and experienced teachers alike can use to integrate social studies into other content areas Crossing Borders, Making Connections Allison Burkette, Tamara Warhol, 2021-01-18 This edited volume explores the scope of interdisciplinary linguistics and includes voices from scholars in different disciplines within the social sciences and humanities as well as different sub disciplines within linguistics Chapters within this volume offer a range of perspectives on interdisciplinary studies represent a connection between different disciplines or demonstrate an application of interdisciplinarity within linguistics The volume is divided into three sections perspectives connections and applications Perspectives The goal of this section is to address more generally the definition of and value of multi trans and interdisciplinary work In what areas and for what purposes is there a need for work that crosses discipline boundaries What are the challenges of undertaking such work What opportunities are available Connections This section features paired chapters written by scholars in different disciplines that discuss the same concept idea issue For example a discussion of how assemblage works in archaeology is paired with a discussion of how assemblage can be used to talk about style in linguistics Applications This section can be framed as sample answers to the question What does interdisciplinarity look like Kid's Eye View of Science Susan Kovalik, Karen D. Olsen, 2010-09-08 Examines learning science from multiple perspectives including the child's perspective guides readers through the steps of igniting students natural sense of wonder incorporating brain research integrating science concepts with other subjects and applying science to daily life demonstrates how to teach science conceptually through the lens of big ideas such as change interdependence and adaptation Geography McGraw-Hill Staff, Richard G. Boehm, 2001-11 The Routledge Handbook of Placemaking Cara Courage, Tom Borrup, Maria Rosario Jackson, Kylie Legge, Anita Mckeown, Louise Platt, Jason Schupbach, 2020-12-30 This Handbook is the first to explore the emergent field of placemaking in terms of the recent research teaching and learning and practice agenda for the next few years Offering valuable theoretical and practical insights from the leading scholars and practitioners in the field it provides cutting edge interdisciplinary research on the placemaking sector Placemaking has seen a paradigmatic shift in urban design planning and policy to engage the community voice This Handbook examines the development of placemaking its emerging theories and its future directions The book is structured in seven distinct sections curated by experts in the areas concerned

Section One provides a glimpse at the history and key theories of placemaking and its interpretations by different community sectors. Section Two studies the transformative potential of placemaking practice through case studies on different places, methodologies, and theoretical frameworks. It also reveals placemaking's potential to nurture a holistic community engagement, social justice, and human-centric urban environments. Section Three looks at the politics of placemaking to consider who is included and who is excluded from its practice and if the concept of placemaking needs to be reconstructed. Section Four deals with the scales and scopes of art-based placemaking, moving from the city to the neighborhood and further to the individual practice. It juxtaposes the voice of the practitioner and professional alongside that of the researcher and academic. Section Five tackles the socio-economic and environmental placemaking issues deemed pertinent to emerge more sustainable placemaking practices. Section Six emphasizes placemaking's intersection with urban design and planning sectors and includes case studies of generative planning practice. The final seventh section draws on the expertise of placemakers, researchers, and evaluators to present the key questions, today's new methods, and approaches to evaluation of placemaking in related fields and notions for the future of evaluation practices. Each section opens with an introduction to help the reader navigate the text. This organization of the book considers the sectors that operate alongside the core placemaking practice. This seminal Handbook offers a timely contribution and international perspectives for the growing field of placemaking. It will be of interest to academics and students of placemaking, urban design, urban planning, and policy, architecture, geography, cultural studies, and the arts.

The Cambridge Handbook of Spanish Linguistics Kimberly L. Geeslin, 2018-08-23. A state-of-the-art in-depth survey of the topics, approaches, and theories in Spanish linguistics today.
