Atelier Bow Wow S Pet Architecture Book And Made In Tokyo:

Seeing and Making in Architecture Taiji Miyasaka, 2013-08-22 You always aim to achieve that moment of insight that leads to ingenuity and novelty in your design but sometimes it remains elusive This book presents a variety of techniques for mapping and making hands on design build projects and relates this work to real architecture It helps you to learn new ways of seeing and making that will enhance your creative design process and enable you to experience moments that lead to ingenuity in design Each of the book s two parts Seeing and Making is organized according to technique which ranges from quantitative analysis and abstraction to pattern and scale to provide you with a framework for mapping and hands on exercises Interviews with architects Yoshiharu Tsukamoto Atelier Bow Wow and Jesse Reiser and Nanako Umemoto Reiser Umemoto give you perspective on using these exercises in practice

The Fractal Dimension of Architecture Michael J. Ostwald, Josephine Vaughan, 2016-09-01 Fractal analysis is a method for measuring analysing and comparing the formal or geometric properties of complex objects In this book it is used to investigate eighty five buildings that have been designed by some of the twentieth century s most respected and celebrated architects Including designs by Le Corbusier Eileen Gray Frank Lloyd Wright Robert Venturi Frank Gehry Peter Eisenman Richard Meier and Kazuyo Sejima amongst others this book uses mathematics to analyse arguments and theories about some of the world s most famous designs Starting with 625 reconstructed architectural plans and elevations and including more than 200 specially prepared views of famous buildings this book presents the results of the largest mathematical study ever undertaken into architectural design and the largest single application of fractal analysis presented in any field The data derived from this study is used to test three overarching hypotheses about social stylistic and personal trends in design along with five celebrated arguments about twentieth century architecture Through this process the book offers a unique mathematical insight into the history and theory of design

The Routledge Companion to Architecture and Social Engagement Farhan Karim, 2018-05-11 Socially engaged architecture is a broad and emerging architectural genre that promises to redefine architecture from a market driven profession to a mix of social business altruism and activism that intends to eradicate poverty resolve social exclusion and construct an egalitarian global society The Routledge Companion to Architecture and Social Engagement offers a critical enquiry of socially engaged architecture s current context characterized by socio economic inequity climate change war increasing global poverty microfinance the evolving notion of professionalism the changing conception of public and finally the growing academic interest in re-visioning the social role of architecture Organized around case studies from the United States Brazil Venezuela the United Kingdom South Africa Rwanda Burkina Faso Nigeria Nepal Pakistan Iran Thailand Germany Australia Taiwan and Japan the book documents the most important recent developments in the field By examining diverse working methods and philosophies of socially engaged architecture the handbook shows how socially engaged architecture is entangled in the global politics of poverty reconstruction of the public sphere changing role of the state charity and neoliberal urbanism The book presents debates around the issue of whether architecture actually empowers the participants and alleviates socio economic exclusion or if it instead indirectly sustains an exploitive capitalism Bringing together a range of theories and case studies this companion offers a platform to facilitate future lines of inquiry in education research and practice Pragmatic Sustainability Steven A. Moore, 2016-07-04 This second edition of Pragmatic Sustainability proposes a pragmatic discursive and pluralistic approach to thinking about sustainability Rather than suggesting a single solution to the problem of how to live sustainably this collection discusses broader approaches to social and environmental change Eight continuing authors and seven new ones adjust their dispositions toward rapidly changing and still unsustainable conditions forging agreements and disagreements on five overlapping themes the Grounds for Sustainability the critique of Technological Culture the need to conceive of Sustainability in Place in Cities finally asking how should we reimagine the fraught relationship between Civil Society Industry and Regulation Editor Steven A Moore asks how a set of ideas now more than a century old remains relevant A partial answer can be found in reconstructing the very modern ideas confronted by those who came to call themselves Pragmatists at the beginning of the twentieth century evolution ecology and design Moore argues that we have yet to develop dispositions in theory and practice that critically integrate these ideas into sustainable development In sum this new edition provides a fresh and hopeful look at the wicked problems deliberated by almost anyone engaged in adapting to the always changing conditions of the built world The Skira Yearbook of World Architecture Luca Molinari, 2008 Spatial Agency: Other Ways of Doing Architecture Nishat Awan, Tatjana Schneider, Jeremy Till, 2013-09-13 This book offers the first comprehensive overview of alternative approaches to architectural practice At a time when many commentators are noting that alternative and richer approaches to architectural practice are required if the profession is to flourish this book provides multiple examples from across the globe of how this has been achieved and how it might be achieved in the future Particularly pertinent in the current economic climate this book offers the reader new approaches to architectural practice in a changing world It makes essential reading for any architect aspiring or practicing Behaviorology Atorie Wan, 2010 Achieving near cult status among architectural students around the world Yoshiharu Tsukamoto and Momoyo Kaijima of Atelier Bow Wow have built a career confronting the challenges posed by dense urban environments Terrain Vague PATRICK BARRON, Manuela Mariani, 2013-08-15 As planners and designers have turned their attentions to the blighted vacant areas of the city the concept of terrain vague has become increasingly important Terrain Vague seeks to explore the ambiguous spaces of the city the places that exist outside the cultural social and economic circuits of urban life From vacant lots and railroad tracks to more diverse interstitial spaces this collection of original essays and cases presents innovative ways of looking at marginal urban space with studies from the United States Europe and the Middle East from a diverse group of planners geographers and urban designers Terrain Vague is a cooperative effort to redefine these marginal spaces as a central concept for urban planning and design Presenting innovative ways of looking at marginal urban space and focusing on its positive uses and aspects the book will be of interest to all those wishing to understand our increasingly complex everyday surroundings from planners cultural theorists and academics to designers and architects Archilab 2006 Japan Akira Suzuki, Mariko Terada, 2006 Taira Nishizawa Ryue Nishizawa Kazuo Sejima Mitsuhiro Sato Oki Sato nendo Midio Tai architect cafe Takaharu Yui Tezuka Tomoyuki Utsumi Milligram Studio Makoto Sei Watanabe Yasuhiro Yamashita Atelier Tekuto Makoto Yokomizo Yasutaka Yoshimura Y08 Luca Molinari, 2008 A quintessential Skira Architecture publication which presents Skira's point of view on world architecture New Architecture in Japan Yuki Sumner, Naomi R. Pollock, David Littlefield, 2010 This informative and beautifully illustrated book showcases projects of all types sizes and budgets from the last decade in Japan and includes museums private houses schools shops hospitals airports and chapels Both cutting edge emerging young practices such as Sou Fujimoto and Junya Ishigami and established internationally known architects among them Toyo Ito Tadao Ando Kengo Kuma and SANAA are featured as are international practices working in Japan such as Rogers Stirk Harbour Foster Partners and Herzog de Meuron Stunning images by leading architectural photographer Edmund Sumner are accompanied by accessible critical texts and drawings This illuminating survey is essential not just for architects and designers but also for anyone fascinated by Japan's unique and increasing influence on architecture worldwide Encounters and Positions Susanne Kohte, Hubertus Adam, Daniel Hubert, 2017-03-20 Now as before Japanese architecture is very popular in Europe and the western world This publication provides an overview of its many design concepts and cross references Using design examples and interviews the book presents thirteen current positions The publication focuses on young architects who take up extremely independent positions within Japanese architecture as well as on Pritzker Prize winners Toyo Ito and Fumihiko Maki Six essays by European specialists on Japan provide supplementary insights into the aesthetics and space concepts of Japanese architecture making cross references to Japan's architectural history and explaining current lines of development The book thus combines a self reflective approach with an outsider's analytical view How Latitudes Become Forms Vasif Kortun, Hanru Hou, 2003 The rise of globalism has created tremendous challenges to old economic political and cultural paradigms and these changes are reflected in artistic practices Disciplinary boundaries are crossed as easily as geographical ones How does the new internationalism that we are facing affect aesthetics and artistic production Is there a link for example between the rise of video works and the global availability of the digital medium Does the global information age facilitate an international language of art and an alternative reading of art history toward art histories From the perspective of a museum of modern and contemporary art the institution has to overcome a major contradiction between its mission of permanence and its mission of change How can cultural institutions contribute to the revamping of their own structures now that the hegemony of Western modernity is being challenged How can museums connect with new audiences through different practices different scholarship and different interpretative strategies growing out of the sedimentation of their histories To invite and encourage such dialogue

How latitudes become forms art in a global age looks at current scholarship on globalism and changing curatorial practices and identifies critical models provided by artists themselves This catalogue features thought provoking essays and conversations by curators critics and cultural programmers from across the world as well as the multidisciplinary artworks of more than forty visual film video performing and new media artists from Brazil China India Japan South Africa Turkey and the United States book cover Strangely Familiar Andrew Blauvelt, 2003 This book features over forty innovative projects from the fields of architectural product furniture fashion and graphic design It includes essays on the tactics of formlessness and its impact on everyday consumption 日本, 2004 'Scape, 2006 Metropolis, 2003 日本 2000-2002, 2002 Abitare, 2007 AMC le moniteur architecture, 2004
