The Dramatic Writer's Companion Will Dunne, 2017-10-04 Spark your creativity hone your writing and improve your scripts with the self contained character scene and story exercises found in this classic guide Having spent decades working with dramatists to refine and expand their existing plays and screenplays Dunne effortlessly blends condensed dramatic theory with specific action steps over sixty workshop tested exercises that can be adapted to virtually any individual writing process and dramatic script Dunne s in depth method is both instinctual and intellectual allowing writers to discover new actions for their characters and new directions for their stories The exercises can be used by those just starting the writing process and by those who have scripts already in development With each exercise rooted in real life issues from Dunne s workshops readers of this companion will find the combined experiences of more than fifteen hundred workshops in a single guide This second edition is fully aligned with a brand new companion book Character Scene and Story which offers forty two additional activities to help writers more fully develop their scripts The two books include cross references between related exercises though each volume can also stand alone No ordinary guide to plotting this handbook centers on the principle that character is key The character is not something added to the scene or to the story writes Dunne Rather the character is the scene The character is the story With this new edition Dunne s remarkable creative method will continue to be the go to source for anyone hoping to take their story to the stage Dunne mixes an artist s imagination and intuition with a teacher s knowledge of the craft of dramatic writing May Brit Akerholt award winning dramaturg Conversations with August Wilson Jackson R. Bryer, Mary C. Hartig, 2006 Collects a selection of the many interviews Wilson gave from 1984 to 2004 In the interviews the playwright covers at length and in detail his plays and his background He comments as well on such subjects as the differences between African Americans and whites his call for more black theater companies and his belief that African Americans made a mistake in assimilating themselves into the white mainstream He also talks about his major influences what he calls his four B s the blues writers James Baldwin and Amiri Baraka and painter Romare Bearden Wilson also discusses his writing process and his multiple collaborations with director Lloyd Richards Publisher description

August Wilson Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2015-03-10 Award winning African American playwright August Wilson created a cultural chronicle of black America through such works as Ma Rainey s Black Bottom Fences Joe Turner s Come and Gone The Piano Lesson and Two Trains Running The authentic ring of wit anecdote homily and plaint proved that a self educated Pittsburgh ghetto native can grow into a revered conduit for a century of black achievement He forced readers and audiences to examine the despair generated by poverty and racism by exploring African American heritage and experiences over the course of the twentieth century This literary companion provides the reader with a source of basic data and analysis of characters dates events allusions staging strategies and themes from the work of one of America s finest playwrights The text opens with an annotated chronology of Wilson s life and works followed by his family tree Each of the 166 encyclopedic entries that make up the body of the work combines insights from a variety of sources along with generous citations each concludes with a selected bibliography on such relevant subjects as the blues Malcolm X irony roosters and Gothic mode

Charts elucidate the genealogies of Wilson's characters the Charles Hedley and Maxson families and account for weaknesses in Wilson's female characters Two appendices complete the generously cross referenced work a timeline of events in Wilson's life and those of his characters and a list of 40 topics for projects composition and oral analysis The Past as Present in the Drama of August Wilson Harry Justin Elam, 2009-05-21 Pulitzer prizewinning playwright August Wilson author of Fences Ma Rainey's Black Bottom and The Piano Lesson among other dramatic works is one of the most well respected American playwrights on the contemporary stage The founder of the Black Horizon Theater Company his self defined dramatic project is to review twentieth century African American history by creating a play for each decade Theater scholar and critic Harry J Elam examines Wilson's published plays within the context of contemporary African American literature and in relation to concepts of memory and history culture and resistance race and representation Elam finds that each of Wilson's plays recaptures narratives lost ignored or avoided to create a new experience of the past that questions the historical categories of race and the meanings of blackness Harry J Elam Jr is Professor of Drama at Stanford University and author of Taking It to the Streets The Social Protest Theater of Luis Valdez and Amiri Baraka The University of Michigan Press I Ain't Sorry for Nothin' I Done Joan Herrington, 1998 Limelight The most successful African American playwright of his time August Wilson is a dominant presence on Broadway and in regional theaters throughout the country Herrington traces the roots of Wilson's drama back to the visual artists and jazz musicians who inspired award winning plays like Ma Rainey's Come and Gone Fences and The Piano Lesson From careful analysis of evolving playscripts and from interviews with Wilson and theater professionals who have worked closely with him Herrington offers a portrait of the playwright as thinker and craftsman

Moving History/Dancing Cultures Ann Dils, Ann Cooper Albright, 2013-06-01 This new collection of essays surveys the history of dance in an innovative and wide ranging fashion Editors Dils and Albright address the current dearth of comprehensive teaching material in the dance history field through the creation of a multifaceted non linear yet well structured and comprehensive survey of select moments in the development of both American and World dance This book is illustrated with over 50 photographs and would make an ideal text for undergraduate classes in dance ethnography criticism or appreciation as well as dance history particularly those with a cross cultural contemporary or an American focus The reader is organized into four thematic sections which allow for varied and individualized course use Thinking about Dance History Theories and Practices World Dance Traditions America Dancing and Contemporary Dance Global Contexts The editors have structured the readings with the understanding that contemporary theory has thoroughly questioned the discursive construction of history and the resultant canonization of certain dances texts and points of view The historical readings are presented in a way that encourages thoughtful analysis and allows the opportunity for critical engagement with the text Ebook Edition Note Ebook edition note Five essays have been redacted including The Belly Dance Ancient Ritual to Cabaret Performance by Shawna Helland Epitome of Korean Folk Dance by Lee Kyong Hee Juba and American Minstrelsy by
