Four Arguments For The Elimination Of Television:

Four Arguments for the Elimination of Television Jerry Mander, 2013-08-13 Persuasive interesting and unusual Kirkus Reviews A total departure from previous writing about television this book is the first ever to advocate that the medium is not reformable Its problems are inherent in the technology itself and are so dangerous to personal health and sanity to the environment and to democratic processes that TV ought to be eliminated forever Weaving personal experiences with meticulous research the author ranges widely over aspects of television that have rarely been examined and never before joined together allowing an entirely new frightening image to emerge The idea that all technologies are neutral benign instruments that can be used well or badly is thrown open to profound doubt Speaking of TV reform is in the words of the author as absurd as speaking of the reform of a technology such as guns Praise for the work of Jerry Mander Lively provocative Publishers Weekly A skilled writer Kirkus Reviews starred review

Commonsense Rebellion Bruce E. Levine, 2001 Nearly one in four American adults are on psychiatric drugs and Ritalin production has increased 800 percent since 1990 yet the mental health industry laments the fact that two thirds of us with diagnosable mental disorders do not seek treatment The author argues that institutional mental health s ever increasing diseases disorders and drugs divert us from examining an important rebellion This rebellion mainly passive and too often self destructive is against an increasingly impersonal and coercive institutional society Institutional society s worship of speed power and technology has created fantastic wealth at least for some of us but its disregard for human autonomy community and diversity has come with a cost

War in Heaven/Heaven on Earth Stephen D. O'Leary, Geln S. McGhee, 2014-12-18 The apocalypse is a motif that lies behind many religious beliefs and practices War in Heaven Heaven on Earth theorizes the apocalyptic as it has arisen in a variety of religious traditions from Native American religion to Islam in Northern Nigeria and new terrorist movements Millennial theory and history are explored from the perspective of social psychology sociology and post modern philosophy The volume is unique in applying an analysis of millennial themes to a comparative study of religion
