Tell Them to Get Lost Brian Thacker, 2011-08-31 Travels with the Lonely Planet guidebook that started it all When Tony Wheeler wrote Lonely Planet's first ever shoestring guidebook South East Asia offered cheap and interesting travel without the constantly oppressing misery of some of the less fortunate parts of Asia Certain hotspots in the region attracted the tourist crowds but there were many untouched places too So have Tony's recommendations stood the test of time Just how much has South East Asia changed since the Wheelers ambled through the region in flared pants Brian Thacker decides to retrace Tony and Maureen's footsteps through Portuguese Timor Indonesia Singapore Malaysia Thailand Laos and Burma using the original 1975 South east Asia on a Shoestring as his only guidebook Along the way Brian meets a cast of folk from the old guidebook who are still manning hotel desks and serving in restaurants He also encounters mishap and adventure at every step of the Banana Pancake Trail breaking bread with a gang of ravenous rats swimming with a hungry goat and possibly also human eating crocodile crashing his scooter twice being wanted by the police and propositioned by Gary who likes pens and getting lost everywhere

No Touch Monkey! Ayun Halliday, 2015-08-25 Zine queen Ayun Halliday confesses the best and worst of her globetrotting misadventures I laughed hard on nearly every page of this shockingly intimate memoir and deeply funny book Stephen Colbert Ayun Halliday may not make for the most sensible travel companion but she is certainly one of the zaniest with a knack for inserting herself and her unwitting cohorts into bizarre situations around the globe Curator of kitsch and unabashed aficionada of pop culture Halliday offers bemused self deprecating narration of events from guerrilla theater in Romania to drug induced Apocalypse Now reenactments in Vietnam to a perhaps more surreal collagen implant demonstration at a Paris fashion show emceed by Lauren Bacall On layover in Amsterdam Halliday finds unlikely trouble in the red light district eliciting the ire of a tiny violent madam and is forced to explain tampons to soldiers in Kashmir they're for ladies Bleeding ladies that she admits might have looked like white cotton bullets lined up in their box A self admittedly bumbling vacationer Halliday shares with razor sharp wit and to hilarious effect the travel stories most are too self conscious to tell Includes line drawings generously provided by the author
