When an individual dies and they haven't got everything they own distributed to the beneficiaries named in their will, the estate is called an intestate estate. If a beneficiary is named, they might not receive their share of what is left of the estate, because it is split up between the other beneficiaries. The estate is called an intestate estate because the person who died did not have a will. If a beneficiary is named in the will, they will receive their share of the estate.

► Improving function: Making sure the pump runs more than three half-galls, or 1.5 gal, for every 100 ft of water column helps to keep the pump from overheating and burning out.
