Sweet, Ronald H. Rozensky, Steven M. Tovian, 1991-04-30 For two decades I have been responding to questions about the nature of health psychology and how it differs from medical psychology behavioral medicine and clinical psychology From the beginning I have taken the position that any application of psychological theory or practice to problems and issues of the health system is health psychology I have repeatedly used an analogy to Newell and Simon's General Problem Solver program of the late 1950s and early 1960s which had two major functional parts in addition to the executive component One was the problem solving core the procedural competence the other was the representation of the problem environment In the analogy the concepts knowledge and techniques of psychology constitute the core competence the health system in all its complexity is the problem environment A health psychologist is one whose basic competence in psychology is augmented by a working knowledge of some aspect of the health system Quite apparently there are functionally distinct aspects of health psychology to the degree that there are meaningful subdivisions in psychological competence and significantly different microenvironments within the health system I hesitate to refer to them as areas of specialization as the man who gave health psychology its formal definition Joseph Matarazzo has said that there are no specialties in psychology cited in the editors preface to this book Clinical Interviewing, with Video Resource Center John Sommers-Flanagan,Rita

General Questions Can you tell me about yourself Example Answer I have a master's degree in clinical psychology from University Name and have been working in the field for over five years My experience includes providing therapy for individuals with a wide range of mental health issues including anxiety depression and trauma I am passionate about helping people improve their mental well being and have a strong background in cognitive behavioural therapy and mindfulness techniques Why did you choose to become a psychologist Example Answer I chose to become a psychologist because I have always been fascinated by human behaviour and the mind I am deeply motivated by the desire to help people navigate their emotional challenges and improve their quality of life Seeing clients make progress and achieve their goals is incredibly rewarding to me

Clinical Skills and Experience Can you describe your approach to therapy Example Answer My approach to therapy is integrative combining elements of cognitive behavioural therapy psychodynamic therapy and mindfulness based techniques I tailor my approach to each client's unique needs and believe in creating a collaborative supportive environment where clients feel safe to explore their thoughts and emotions How do you handle difficult cases or clients who are not making progress Example Answer When working with difficult cases or clients who are not making progress I first ensure that I am providing a supportive and empathetic environment I re-evaluate the treatment plan and consider alternative therapeutic approaches I also seek supervision or consultation from colleagues to gain new perspectives and strategies It's crucial to maintain patience and persistence while also empowering the client to take an active role in their therapy

Ethical and Professional Standards How do you ensure you maintain confidentiality with your clients Example Answer Maintaining confidentiality is paramount in my practice I ensure that all client records are securely stored and only accessible to authorized personnel I discuss the limits of confidentiality with clients during our first session and remind them periodically Additionally I follow all legal and ethical guidelines including obtaining informed consent and only sharing information when it is legally required or necessary to protect the client or others from harm Describe a time when you had to deal with an ethical dilemma in your practice How did you handle it Example Answer I once encountered an ethical dilemma when a client disclosed information that suggested they might harm someone I explained to the client my ethical and legal obligation to break confidentiality in this case I sought supervision to ensure I was taking the appropriate steps and then reported the necessary information to the relevant authorities to prevent harm while continuing to support the client through the process

Personal and Interpersonal Skills

How do you manage stress and avoid burnout in your job

Example Answer To manage stress and avoid burnout I prioritize self care by maintaining a healthy work life balance engaging in regular physical activity and practicing mindfulness and relaxation techniques I also seek regular supervision and peer support to discuss challenging cases and gain perspective Taking vacations and setting boundaries between work and personal life are also key strategies I use

Can you give an example of how you handled a conflict with a colleague

Example Answer In a previous job I had a disagreement with a colleague about the treatment approach for a mutual client I addressed the conflict by initiating an open and respectful conversation where we each shared our perspectives We then collaborated to find a solution that incorporated both of our insights and ultimately benefited the client This experience reinforced the importance of communication and teamwork in providing effective care

Specific Techniques and Knowledge

What are some therapeutic techniques you find most effective

Example Answer Some therapeutic techniques I find most effective include cognitive behavioural therapy CBT for its structured approach to changing negative thought patterns mindfulness based stress reduction MBSR for its ability to help clients manage stress and anxiety and EMDR Eye Movement Desensitization and Reprocessing for clients dealing with trauma I also value motivational interviewing for its effectiveness in addressing ambivalence and enhancing client motivation

How do you stay current with developments in psychology and therapy techniques

Example Answer I stay current with developments in psychology by regularly attending professional conferences participating in continuing education courses and subscribing to peer reviewed journals I am also a member of professional organizations such as the American Psychological Association APA which provides access to the latest research and best practices Additionally I engage in peer supervision groups where we discuss recent findings and their practical applications

Closing Questions

Do you have any questions for us

Example Answer Yes I do have a few questions

Can you tell me more about the team I would be working with and the types of cases I might encounter

Also what opportunities for professional development and supervision are available here

Finally how does the organization support its staff in maintaining a healthy work life balance

By preparing thoughtful and comprehensive answers to these questions you can effectively showcase your qualifications experience and approach to psychology making a strong impression on potential employers
