

Weekly Clinical Reflection Journals Weeks 2 through 7

Pass/Fail- Clinical Agency

Each student is expected to submit 5 clinical reflection journals, which should be completed at the conclusion of each clinical field day starting the second week of your clinical experience. The final journal is related your attendance at a Community Education program (instructions for this are included below). The journals will be evaluated for a pass/fail grade and will be considered into the overall grade the student receives for the clinical experience.

Length & Format: 2 1/2 pages double-spaced; name and date at top of each page; proofread and grammatically correct.

The content of each clinical reflection should include the following items:

1. Describe the clinical event or experience (What happened, including when, where, how and who was involved-no patient names or PHI please).
2. Which aspects of the experience were related to tertiary, secondary or primary health care? Explain
3. Evaluate the overall clinical experience.
 - a. What was good about the experience? Why?
 - b. What was problematic about the experience? Why?
4. Consider alternative strategies for the situation.
 - a. What do you think would have made the experience better for you and/or for the client(s)?
 - b. What other approaches could have been used?
5. Any other thoughts or comments about the clinical experience.
6. In addition to completing the above entries concerning the clinical field experience, address the following focus questions at the end of the journal each week:

Reflections are due for clinical experiences weeks 2-7; No reflective journal is due for first day of clinical at your agency

- First Journal : Identify the populations being cared for at your clinical setting. Define whether they are a community or a population. Explain your rationale.
- Second Journal: What are some of the community health resources that you or someone you know has personally utilized? Be specific & describe these.
- Third Journal: Knowledge of health and welfare services is essential when nursing in the community. Suppose you were the CHN in a specific community. Mrs. Jones contacts you. She is 23-years-old, pregnant, and has 3 children under 10 years of age, and is about to be evicted from her apartment for failure to pay rent. She has no money and no resources. She is currently unemployed. She quit school at 16 and has not returned. What would you do?
- Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Journals: Identify 3 vulnerable populations in your own community. Describe what resources are available for each vulnerable population (1 population per week 4, 5 and 6) to support them in the community.

Principles of Assessment and Outcome Measurement for Occupational Therapists and Physiotherapists Alison Laver Fawcett, 2013-03-15 This textbook on assessment and outcome measurement is written for both occupational therapy and physiotherapy students and qualified therapists. It begins by defining what is meant by assessment, outcome evaluation and measurement and discussing the complexity of therapy assessment and measurement including the challenge of measuring human behaviour and the impact of factors such as task demand and context including the environment. Methods of data collection e.g. observation, interview, standardised testing and sources e.g. self-report proxy for collecting information about clients are then reviewed and the main purposes of assessment e.g. descriptive, evaluative, predictive, discriminative presented. The book then addresses the topics of standardisation, levels of measurement, reliability, validity and clinical utility. There is a chapter describing and applying models for categorizing levels of function to aid assessment and measurement. The concept of clinical reasoning and reflective practice is then explored. Application of principles is supported through detailed case studies and worksheets and the criteria for test critique and guidelines for choosing a particular assessment approach are discussed.

Becoming a Reflective Practitioner Christopher Johns, 2009-07-27 From Reviews of the second edition Christopher Johns is an internationally recognised pioneer of reflective practice in nursing and health care. The first edition of this book was an excellent resource and this updated version is equally impressive. This is a superb resource for nurses and all those eager to enhance their knowledge and skills in reflective practice. It is well presented, user friendly and stimulating. Nursing Standard. Becoming a Reflective Practitioner is a practical guide to using reflection in every day clinical practice. It explores the value of using models of reflection with particular reference to Christopher Johns' own model for structured reflection. Becoming a Reflective Practitioner includes accounts of everyday practice to guide the reader through the stages of reflective practice within the context of care, desirable practice and the caring relationship. This third edition reflects significant developments in reflective theory and gives greater attention to different approaches to reflection including the use of narrative dialogue. New chapters are included on ensuring quality and managing conflict. Exemplars are included throughout and further references and reflected reading are included at the end of each chapter. Reflective practice is acknowledged as an effective approach to developing nursing care which evolves as the practitioner develops his or her own practice. This book will therefore be of interest to all nurses involved in developing their clinical practice. A practical guide to developing reflective practice. Reflects significant developments in reflective theory. Examines Christopher Johns' own model for structured reflection. Centred on care and the caring relationship. Challenges practitioners to question their practice.

Using Occupational Therapy Theory in Practice Gail Boniface, Alison Seymour, 2012-03-26 Competence in any profession depends upon an understanding of the theory that underlies it. This concise and practical text for students and practitioners bridges the gap between occupational therapy theory and clinical practice, offering highly practical advice on using theory in practice in a wide range of settings. It considers the nature of professional practice and the need for a sound theoretical basis from which to plan, implement and justify interventions and investigates the practical use of occupational therapy theory and the issues such use raises in health and social care settings from a European perspective Every occupational therapy student worldwide needs to know about the underlying theory of their profession and its application to practice The book particularly debates the nature of the theory of occupational therapy via the introduction of the concept of models of the profession as an umbrella for practice all of which is brought to life via case studies incorporating expert advice reflection exercises and assessment and evaluation forms
