Script Into Performance Richard Hornby, 1995 Applause Books An analysis of script interpretation for the theater The text includes theories on performance as well as examples from the works of Shelley Ibsen and Pinter In his new preface Hornby laments the modernization of classic plays which he believes subverts the original text Library Journal

Promised End Seth C. Hawkins, 2019-08-05 Perhaps the most important difficult and unresolved issue in Shakespeare studies is the question of Lear's last lines the whole meaning of Shakespeare's greatest and most controversial tragedy depends upon it In the 1608 Quarto it is O o o o that zero to which the Fool compares Lear himself In the 1623 Folio the King's last words are Look on her Look her lips Look there look there No one but Lear sees what he points us to envision Is it epiphany or delusion Is Lear's tragedy nihilistic or redemptive In search of an answer Hawkins deploys a wide spectrum of critical approaches close scrutiny of the rival texts and comparison with the play's sources the unique double structure of Lear its symbols and imagery its visual and verbal scriptural allusions even its numerology The book enlists its readers in a quest for final meaning not unlike the movement of the play itself towards Dover and the extreme verge of its imagined cliff that high place where life borders upon death and earth meets sky and sea

Supreme Court, Writing Without Words Elizabeth Hill Boone, Walter Mignolo, 1994 The history of writing or so the standard story goes is an ascending process evolving toward the alphabet and finally culminating in the full writing of recorded speech Writing without Words challenges this orthodoxy and with it widespread notions of literacy and dominant views of art and literature history and geography Asking how knowledge was encoded and preserved in Pre Columbian and early colonial Mesoamerican cultures the authors focus on systems of writing that did not strive to represent speech Their work reveals the complicity of ideology in the history of literacy and offers new insight into the history of writing The contributors who include art historians anthropologists and literary theorists examine the ways in which ancient Mesoamerican and Andean peoples conveyed meaning through hieroglyphic pictorial and coded systems systems inseparable from the ideologies they were developed to serve We see then how these systems changed with the European invasion and how uniquely colonial writing systems came to embody the post conquest American ideologies The authors also explore the role of these early systems in religious discourse and their relation to later colonial writing Bringing the insights from Mesoamerica and the Andes to bear on a fundamental exchange among art history literary theory semiotics and anthropology the volume reveals the power contained in the medium of writing Contributors Elizabeth Hill Boone Tom Cummins Stephen Houston Mark B King Dana Leibsohn Walter D Mignolo John Monaghan John M D Pohl Joanne Rappaport Peter van der Loo

Queer Ancient Ways Zairong Xiang,2018 Queer Ancient Ways advocates a profound unlearning of colonial modern categories as a pathway to the discovery of new forms and theories of queerness in the most ancient of sources In this radically unconventional work Zairong Xiang investigates scholarly receptions of mythological figures in Babylonian and Nahua creation myths exposing the ways they have consistently been gendered as feminine in a manner that is not supported and in some cases actively discouraged by the texts themselves An exercise in decolonial learning to learn from non Western and non modern cosmologies Xiang's work uncovers a rich queer imaginary that had been all but lost to modern thought in the process critically revealing the operations of modern colonial systems of gender sexuality and knowledge formation that have functioned from the Conquista de America in the sixteenth century to the present to keep these systems in obscurity At the heart of Xiang s argument is an account of the way the unfounded feminization of figures such as the Babylonian co-creatrix Tiamat and the Nahua creator figures Tlaltecuhltli and Coatlicue is complicit with their monstrification This complicity tells us less about the mythologies themselves than about the dualistic system of gender and sexuality within which they have been studied underpinned by a consistent tendency in modern colonial thought to insist on unbridgeable categorical differences By contextualizing these deities in their respective mythological linguistic and cultural environments through a unique combination of methodologies and critical traditions in English Spanish French Chinese and Nahuatl Xiang departs from the over reliance of much contemporary queer theory on European post modern thought Much more than a queering of the non Western and non modern Queer Ancient Ways thus constitutes a decolonial and transdisciplinary engagement with ancient cosmologies and ways of thought which are in the process themselves revealed as theoretical sources of and for the queer imagination
