The Opacity of Narrative Peter Lamarque, 2014-03-25 What is narrative What is distinctive about the great literary narratives In virtue of what is a narrative fictional or non fictional In this important new book Peter Lamarque one of the leading philosophers of literature at work today explores these and related questions to bring new clarity and insight to debates about narrative in philosophy critical theory and narratology He highlights opacity as a feature of literary narratives and examines the implications for our understanding of fictional worlds and fictional characters Throughout he challenges received views about narrative questioning the indispensability of narrative in an individual s self conception and the importance of both truth and emotion as measures of literary greatness He reflects on the non fiction novel arguing that it does not weaken the distinction between fiction and no fiction The book offers a compelling and original account of these and other issues making a critical contribution to topical and wide ranging debates

A Critical Rationalist Aesthetics Joseph Agassi, Ian Charles Jarvie, 2008 This book is a first attempt to cover the whole area of aesthetics from the point of view of critical rationalism It takes up and expands upon the more narrowly focused work of E H Gombrich Sheldon Richmond and Raphael Sassower and Louis Ciccotello The authors integrate the arts into the scientific world view and acknowledge that there is an aesthetic aspect to anything whatsoever They pay close attention to the social situatedness of the arts Their aesthetics treats art as emerging from craft in the form of luxurious and playful challenge to the audience In developing it they place emphasis on the number of questions and claims that can be settled by appeal to empirical facts on the historical character of aesthetic judgements and on the connection of aesthetic truth to true love and true friendship i e fidelity and integrity not to informative truth

The Triadic Structure of the Mind Francesco Belfiore,2014-05-23 In The Triadic Structure of the Mind Francesco Belfiore begins from the basic ontological conception of the structure and functioning of the mind or spirit as an evolving conscious triad composed of intellect sensitiveness and power each exerting a selfish or moral activity Based on this concept Belfiore has developed a coherent philosophical system through which he offers fresh solutions in the fields of ontology knowledge language aesthetic ethics politics and law The second edition of the book includes a more extensive treatment of the topics addressed in the first edition the introduction of new concepts and the inclusion of additional thinkers whose views have been discussed and reinterpreted

Contemporary Moral and Social Issues ,2014-04-15 Contemporary Moral and Social Issues is a uniquely entertaining introduction that brings ethical thought to life It makes innovative use of engaging topically oriented original short fiction together with classic and influential readings and editorial discussion as a means of helping students think philosophically about ethical theory and practical ethical problems Introduces students to ethical theory and a range of practical moral issues through a combination of key primary texts clear editorial commentary and engaging original fiction Includes discussion of topics such as world poverty abortion animals the environment and genetic engineering containing Facts and Factual Issues for each topic to give students an up to date understanding of related factual issues Uses immersive original short works of fiction as a means to engage students to think philosophically about serious ethical issues Sample Course Framework available

Philosophy of Law Larry May,Jeff Brown,2009-05-18 Philosophy of Law provides a rich overview of the diverse theoretical justifications for our legal rules systems and practices Utilizes the work of both classical and contemporary philosophers to illuminate the relationship between law and morality Introduces students to the philosophical underpinnings of International Law and its increasing importance as we face globalization Features concrete examples in the form of cases significant to the evolution of law Contrasts Anglo American law with foreign institutions and practices such as those in China Japan India Ireland and Canada Incorporates diverse perspectives on the philosophy of law ranging from canonical material to feminist theory critical theory postmodernism and critical race theory

The Subject of Copyright Ewa Laskowska-Litak,2023-09-22 Exploring the concept of copyright subject matter through the lenses of law aesthetics and cognitive science this book describes the historical evolution of a work into an artefact that qualifies as copyrightable subject matter Discussing the originality requirement towards an artefactual understating of intangible goods copyright s present struggles with modern societies and technologies and growing inequalities between rights holders and producers the book adopts an interdisciplinary approach based on studies in law aesthetics neuroscience and cognitive science to present a novel perspective on the non artefactual and contextual identification of copyright subject matter The book examines the challenges raised by aesthetic and neuroaesthetic concepts and cognitive studies seeking to create a unifying framework of identification strategies for modern copyright law which embrace historical philosophical and social perspectives the book develops a research methodology that offers a new interdisciplinary and holistic approach for understanding the subject of copyright and better addressing the needs of modern society technology and business models Touching on normative understandings of creativity and legal philosophical aesthetic and cognitive considerations with regard to the idea expression dichotomy in copyright law the book will be of immense interest to legal scholars legal philosophers aestheticians and neuroaestheticians
