Nyamnjoh,U. Nwosu,2021-06-09 This book is a timely addition to debates and explorations on the epistemological relevance of African proverbs especially with growing calls for the decolonisation of African curricula The editors and contributors have chosen to reflect on the diverse ways of being and becoming African as a permanent work in progress by drawing inspiration from Chinua Achebe s harnessing of the effectualness of oratory especially his use of proverbs in his works The book recognises and celebrates the fact that Achebe s proverbial Igbo imaginations of being and becoming African are compelling because they are instructive about the lives stories struggles and aspirations of the rainbow of people that make up Africa as a veritable global arena of productive circulations entanglements and compositeness of being The contributions foray into how claims to and practices of being and becoming African are steeped in histories of mobilities and a myriad of encounters shaped by and inspiring of the competing and complementary logics of personhood and power that Africans have sought and seek to capture in their repertoires of proverbs The task of documenting African proverbs and rendering them accessible in the form of a common hard currency with fascinating epistemological possibilities remains a challenge yearning for financial scholarly social and political attention The book is an important contribution to John Mbiti s clarion call for an active and sustained interest in African proverbs African Legacies, African Fictions Ann Clayton,2018-04-24 AFRICAN LEGACIES

AFRICAN FICTIONS is a collection of interviews and essays on African fiction African Indigenous Religious Traditions in Local and Global Contexts Ogungbile, David O.,2015-09-23 This volume honours one of the great scholars of our era Professor Jacob Olupona Although he has conducted significant portions of his career outside of Nigeria he has not separated himself from his colleagues or from interests in religions in Nigeria and elsewhere in Africa His publications and presentations offer the international scholarly community important critical insights into a range of religious activities life ways and ideas originating in Africans and the African Diaspora In spite of the diversity in the thoughts and opinions expressed and equally of the range of disciplines and topics contained in the book one can say that the contributors have developed a shared concern about the role of African Indigenous Religious Traditions in the processes of development and the context within which it development had or is taking place The book guides us to a deep understanding and appreciation of how Africans in their varied situations grapple with existential problems through philosophical ruminations complex ritual processes cultivated memory and organized coping strategies Key Concepts in Theatre/Drama Education S.

Schonmann, 2011-07-22 Key Concepts in Theatre Drama Education provides the first comprehensive survey of contemporary research trends in theatre drama education. It is an intriguing rainbow of thought celebrating a journey across three fields of scholarship: theatre education and modes of knowing. Hitherto no other collection of key concepts has been published in theatre drama education. Fifty-seven entries written by sixty scholars from across the world aim to convey the zeitgeist of the field. The book's key innovation lies in its method of writing through collaborative networking, an open peer review process and meaning making involving all contributors. Within the framework of key concept entries, readers will find valuable judgments and the viewpoints of researchers from North and South America, Europe, Asia, Africa, New Zealand and Australia. The volume clearly shows that drama theatre educators and researchers have created a language with its own grammar and lucid syntax. The concepts outlined convey the current knowledge of scholars, highlighting what they consider significant. Entries cover interdependent topics on teaching and learning, aesthetics and ethics, curricula and history, culture and community, various populations and their needs, theatre for young people, digital technology, narrative and pedagogy, research methods, Shakespeare and Brecht, other various modes of theatre and the education of theatre teachers. It aims to serve as the standard reference book for theatre drama education researchers, policymakers, practitioners and students around the world. A basic companion for researchers, students and teachers, this sourcebook outlines the key concepts that make the field prominent in the sphere of Arts Education.

South African Drama and Theatre from Pre-Colonial Times to the 1990S: an Alternative Reading Mzo Sirayi, 2012-07-09 Mzo Sirayi has embarked on a highly impressive and daring enterprise with the unflinching boldness of a scholar who is driven by a passionate pursuit to set the record straight. He manages to pull no punches and make no apologies by being true to his convictions, especially within the context of a new South Africa. The book adopts a largely historicized critical and analytical perspective which strikingly approximates that of postcolonial theory. Owen Seda. This new and authoritative book is an excellent addition to the few existing books on black South African drama and theatre. South African Drama and Theatre from Pre colonial Times to 1990s: An Alternative Reading takes the reader on a tour of the indigenous as well as the modern South African theatre zones. The chapters reverberate with echoes of Africanisation and rock on renaissance waves. This exciting and stimulating book is transparently readable, accessible and is of inestimable value to academics and general readers. Patrick Ebewo

The Companion to African Literatures G. D. Killam, Ruth Rowe, 2000 Refreshing African Studies Review. The entries are knowledgeable, thorough and clearly written. Highly recommended. Choice. An ambitious reference guide to works on African literature. African Studies Review. This comprehensive compendium will be a handy companion for anyone working on African literatures. The entries are authoritative and up to date, providing reliable information on the hundreds of authors and texts that have contributed to a whole continent's literary flowering. Bernth Lindfors. Bosede Funke Afolayan, 2021-03-17 This book showcases the important but often understudied work of Nigerian women playwrights As in many spheres of life in Nigeria in literature and other creative arts the voices of men dominate and the work of women has often been sidelined However Nigerian women playwrights have made important contributions to the development of drama in Nigeria not just by presenting female identities and inequalities but by vigorously intervening in wider social and political issues This book draws on perspectives from culture language politics theory orality and literature to shine a light on the engaged creativity of women playwrights From the trail blazing but more traditional contributions of Zulu Sofola through to contemporary postcolonial work by Tess Osonye Onwueme Julie Okoh and Sefi Atta to name just a few the book shows the rich variety of work being produced by female Nigerian dramatists This the first major collection devoted to Nigerian women playwrights will be an important resource for scholars of African theatre and performance literature and women s studies African Christianity Rises , Nigeria's Cultural and Creative Industries Ikechukwu Obiaya, Kizito Ogedi Alakwe, Emmanuel Nzeaka, 2025-12-08 This book offers a compelling exploration of Nigeria s vibrant cultural and creative industries unpacking their core components challenges institutional frameworks and transformative potential for national development From the role of government and regulatory bodies to the power of local innovation the volume provides a timely and strategic assessment of how Nigeria s creative economy is shaping a new narrative for growth As Africa s most populous country Nigeria boasts a rich cultural mosaic and a growing generation of dynamic creatives making waves both locally and globally With Nollywood Afrobeats and indigenous fashion now commanding international attention creative output is fast overtaking oil as Nigeria s most influential export Through sector specific case studies the book critically examines this shift highlighting high impact sectors like film fashion music and visual arts while also shining a light on underexplored industries such as publishing advertising and hospitality It asks bold questions about whether the right structures are in place to truly harness Nigeria s soft power for economic and social impact Providing a thorough and nuanced analysis of Nigeria s creative landscape this book will be an important read for researchers students and policymakers with an interest in the future of African culture innovation identity and industry Awakening African Women Ginette Curry, 2004 The book is a comparative analysis of recent films by African male and female filmmakers and literary works by female African authors from Senegal Mali the Ivory Coast Nigeria Togo and Burkina Faso The films are Finzan Cheikh Oumar Sissoko 1990 Women with Open Eyes Anne Laure Folly 1994 and Faces of Women Desire Ecare 1985 In addition the manuscript includes the study of Women are Different Flora Nwapa 1986 Double Yoke Buchi Emecheta 1983 and So Long a Letter Mariama Ba 1980 Curry analyzes the homogeneous themes such as oppression sabotage cultural alienation exploitation sexual bargaining and the changing dynamics of sexual relationships that appear through these productions She concludes that African women continue to undergo a metamorphosis This transformation is the result of a blend of traditionally African and European influences Modernist terms such as oefeminism and oewomanism intended to capture the emerging African women as subjects and not objects of study are avoided In so doing a theoretical approach is used based on the author TM s own experiences in West Africa Then building from that premise Curry analyzes the novels and films within this context to either prove or disprove her theories Enthusiasts without past experiences in the area of African literature and African films and also students and scholars in African studies specifically in comparative literature anthropology women TM s studies sociology African history film studies and social studies will all find this book of great interest In raising the issues that West African women face this book as the title suggests aims to awaken other African women and indeed a western readership to the fast changing lives of women in Africa Georgina Holmes in African Research and Documentation No 102 2007
