Highest Reality | A Treatise On Religion, Truth, Morality and The Purpose of Life Paritosh M.

Chakrabarti,2024-04-23 How does one's upbringing determine one's ethical and religious views Are humans unique in this universe Is God dead as Nietzsche declared Is there any truth beyond scientific facts How different religions relate to one another What are the truth and falsehoods in various religions Are communism and nihilism more in sync with reality than religion How should we prioritise between self interest and sacrifice What should be our individual role to seek global peace Is there a higher purpose in life than just living The author a scientist scholar innovator entrepreneur and philanthropist discusses these questions in a well argued treatise sprinkled with memorable episodes and anecdotes al- Qur'ân ,1988

Literary Structures of Religious Meaning in the Qur'ân Issa J. Boullata,2000 This text examines the literary elements in the Qur'an and analyses how they function in conveying its religious message effectively Literary Structures of Religious Meaning in the Qu'ran Issa J Boullata,2013-09-05 This volume studies how the literary elements in the Qur'an function in conveying its religious message effectively It is divided into three parts Part one includes studies of the whole Qur'an or large segments of it belonging to one historical period of its revelation these studies concentrate on the analysis of its language its style its structural composition its aesthetic characteristics its rhetorical devices its imagery and the impact of these elements and their significance Part two includes studies on individual suras of the Qur'an each of which focuses on the sura's literary elements and how they produce meaning each also explores the structure of this meaning and the coherence of its effect Part three includes studies on Muslim appreciations of the literary aspects of the Qur'an in past generations and shows how modern linguistic semantic semiotic and literary scholarship can add to their contributions 'Arā'is Al-Majālis Fī Qisas Al-Anbiyā' or "Lives of the Prophets" William M. Brinner,2002-11-01 These 11th century tales written in many different languages and well known throughout the Muslim world have been read and studied through the years This is however the first complete translation of the Arabic text into English from the story of the creation of the world to the time just before the coming of the Prophet Muhammad and the revelation of Islam It includes tales of prophets who are Biblical figures but also of others not considered prophets in other traditions and contains tales too like The Thousand and One Nights with no prophetic content In the Islamic world this work has been and is still read and enjoyed both as a source of religious study and for simple pleasure From Heart of Stone to Heart of Flesh: Evolutionary Journey from Extremism to Moderation Zeina M. Barakat,2017-08-24 This book examines the forces of human transformation from extremism to moderation It analyzes the ethical indicators which determine making the choice of the path to take when one is faced with crucial decisions to make

The author focuses on three central values namely a moderation reflecting balance in dealing with individual and group issues b reconciliation reflecting willingness to heal wounds and repair broken relationships by showing respect for the personal and collective narrative of the other and feeling empathy and compassion for the pain and suffering of other and viewing the perspective of the other by putting oneself in the shoes of the other c peace coexisting with the other reflecting tolerance for the beliefs and views of other These three concepts are linked together in consequential sequence with each leading to the other and eventually resulting prosperity and security

Counsel for Kings: Wisdom and Politics in Tenth-Century Iran Marlow Louise Marlow, 2016-04-12 Mirrors for princes form a substantial and important genre in many pre modern literatures Their ostensible purpose is to advise the king at the same time they assert that the king if he is truly virtuous will appreciate being reminded of the contingency of his power The unknown author of the Counsel for Kings studied in this book wrote in a distinctive early tenth century Iranian environment He deploys an abundant set of cultural materials representing perennial wisdom of mixed provenances which he reinvigorates by applying them to the circumstances of his own time and place a The first volume situates Counsel for Kings in its historical context The second volume gives direct access to a substantial portion of the text through translation and commentary

War and Religion in the Secular Age Davis Brown, 2019-11-12 Is religion a factor in initiating interstate armed conflict and do different religions have different effects Breaking new ground in political science this book explores these questions both qualitatively and quantitatively concluding that the answer is yes Previous studies have focused on conflict within states or interstate aggression with overtly religious motivations in contrast Brown shows how religion affects states propensities to militarize even disputes that are not religious in nature Different religions are shown to have different influences on those propensities and those influences are linked to the war ethics inculcated in those religions The book analyses and classifies war ethics contained in religious scripture and other religious classics teachings of religions contemporary epistemic communities and religions historical narratives Using data from the new Religious Characteristics of States dataset project qualitative studies are combined with empirical measurements of governments institutional preferences and populations cultures This book will provide interesting insights to scholars and researchers in international security studies political science international law sociology and religious studies

Education, Religion and Society Dennis

Bates, Gloria Durka, Friedrich Schweitzer, 2006-06-28 Education Religion and Society celebrates the career of Professor John Hull a leading figure in the transformation of religious education in English and Welsh schools and co founder of the International Seminar on Religious Education and Values He has also made major contributions to the theology of disability and the theological critique of the money culture Leading international scholars join together to offer a critical appreciation of his contribution to religious education and practical theology and explore the continuing debate about the role of religious education in promoting international understanding intercultural education and human rights The contributors also deal with indoctrination racism and relationship in Christian religious issues and examine aspects of the theology of social exclusion and disability This unique book includes a complete list of John Hull s writings up to the beginning of 2005 providing both an excellent introduction to contemporary issues of religious education in the West and the most complete critical account yet of his work

The Mission and Death of Jesus in Islam and Christianity Mathias Zahniser, 2015-03-11 The common wisdom is that Christians and Muslims should dialogue only about what they agree on This book takes a different approach As the author observes If we focus only on our common ground we will miss some of the motivating force of our traditions because that force derives not only from what we hold in common but also from those convictions that keep us apart
