The Naqshbandi Sufi Tradition Guidebook of Daily Practices and Devotions Muhammad Hisham Kabbani,Shaykh Muhammad Hisham Kabbani,2004 One of the distinguished schools of Islamic spiritual discipline the Naqshbandi Sufi Order has a long and illustrious history from the first days of Islam Led by the shaykhs of the Golden Chain inheritors of spiritual knowledge from Prophet Muhammad the Naqshbandi Order has always played a central pivotal role in the life of people in the Muslim world and survived the turmoil and tribulations of the past century to remain one of the few authentic mystical traditions maintaining a living link with its ancient past The extraordinary vision of the Naqshbandi Saints was manifest in their establishment of fixed devotions and daily practices firmly rooted in the Qur an and Sunnah of the Prophet These practices have enabled devout seekers to awaken certainty of belief and to attain stations of nearness to the Divine Presence The renewed prominence of this order at the turn of the 21st century due to the indefatigable striving of Mawlana Shaykh Muhammad Nazim al Haqqani signals an impending change to our society in which aspirants to Divine Service will be granted to transcend the bounds of the physical senses in order to fulfill the unexplored potential in each human heart The Naqshbandi Devotions are a source of light and energy an oasis in a worldly desert Through the manifestations of Divine Blessings bestowed on the practitioners of these magnificent rites they will be granted the power of magnanimous healing by which they seek to cure the hearts of mankind darkened by the gloom of spiritual poverty and materialism We pray that each person who picks up this book of devotions with sincere intention to observe any of its efficacious practices will receive a portion of the blessings and manifestations bestowed on the greatest saints of earlier times

Freedom of Speech and Islam Erich Kolig,2016-04-15 Freedom of speech and expression is considered in the West a high public good and an important social value underpinned by legislative and ethical norms Its importance is not shared to the same extent by conservative and devout Muslims who read Islamic doctrines in ways seemingly incompatible with Western notions of freedom of speech Since the Salman Rushdie affair in the 1980s there has been growing recognition in the West that its cherished value of free speech and associated freedoms relating to arts the press and media literature academia critical satire etc episodically clash with conservative Islamic values that limit this freedom for the sake of holding religious issues sacrosanct Recent controversies such as the Danish cartoons the Charlie Hebdo affair Quran burnings and the internet film The Innocence of Muslims which have stirred violent reactions in the Muslim world have made the West aware of the fact that Muslims religious sensitivities have to be taken into account in exercising traditional Western freedoms of speech Featuring experts across a spectrum of fields within Islamic studies Freedom of Speech and Islam considers Islamic concepts of blasphemy apostasy and heresy and their applicability in the modern world Muhammad's Mission Tilman Nagel, 2020-07-06 Combining vast erudition with a refusal to bow before the political pressures of the day Muhammad's Mission Religion Politics and Power at the Birth of Islam by Professor Tilman Nagel one of the world's leading authorities on Islam is an introduction to three inseparable topics the life of Muhammad 570-632 CE the composition of the Koran and the birth of Islam While accessible to a general audience it will also be of great interest to specialists since it is the first English translation of Professor Nagel's attempt to summarize a lifetime of research on these topics The Introduction Chapters 1-2 and Appendix 1 provide essential historical background on the Arab tribal system and Muhammad's position within that system the political situation in pre-Islamic Arabia the history of Mecca and pre-Islamic Arabian religions Chapters 3-5 cover the beginnings of the revelations that Muhammad claimed to be receiving from Allah paying special attention to the influence on Muhammad of the hanifs a group of pre-Islamic pagan monotheists attested in the earliest Islamic sources The hanifs claimed to trace their religion back to the putative original monotheism of Abraham from which they claimed Jews and Christians had deviated by among other things abandoning animal sacrifice Chapter 6 explains how Muhammad's religious message included a thinly veiled claim to have the right to political power over Mecca a claim that exacerbated tensions with his own clan and led eventually to his expulsion from Mecca as recounted in Chapter 7 Chapters 8-10 describe the impact of the hijra on the evolution of Islam Seeing himself as the true heir to Abraham and the prophets who followed him Muhammad would demand allegiance from Jews and Christians as recounted in Sura 2 and other Medinan suras He would initiate a war against Mecca not in self-defense but in order to gain control over the Kaaba the central hanif shrine and the new qibla or direction of prayer for the Muslims The Muslim victory at the Battle of Badr in 624 would help to shape a new ideal of a militarized religiosity in which those who waged war under Muhammad's command would attain the rank of true believers while those converts who refused to make hijra and to fight for Muhammad were relegated to the lower rank of mere Muslims as Suras 8 and 49 make clear Muhammad's war against Mecca alienated many of his Medinan followers the ansar The refusal of the Jews to convert to Islam combined with the close connection of the Jews to the ansar led Muhammad to make war on the Jews as well as the Meccans The surrender of Mecca in 630 Chapter 11 did not lead to the end of war for the aggressiveness and military success of Muhammad's movement had made it attractive to a slew of new converts whose desire for booty had to be placated Sura 9 promulgated near the end of Muhammad's life served as a broad declaration of war against polytheists Jews and Christians Chapter 12 describes the evolution of Islam late in Muhammad's life into a religious warriors movement that sought to extend the rule of Islam over the entire inhabited world Chapter 13 covers the final pilgrimage and death of Muhammad while Chapters 14 20 describe the development of Islamic dogma surrounding the figure of Muhammad and its implications for politics in the Islamic world and interfaith relations with non Muslims up till the present day The book concludes with appendices in which Nagel summarizes the state of scholarship regarding the life of Muhammad Appendix 2 and the tensions between competing varieties of Muslim recollection of Muhammad Appendix 3 Muhammad s Mission Religion Politics and Power at the Birth of Islam is an erudite and authoritative guide to events of world historical importance by a scholar who has spent a lifetime mastering the primary sources documenting the birth of Islam

What Every Christian Needs to Know About the Qur'an James R. White, 2013-05-01 A Look Inside the Sacred Book of One of the World s Fastest Growing Religions What used to be an exotic religion of people halfway around the world is now the belief system of people living across the street Through fair contextual use of the Qur an as the primary source text apologist James R White presents Islamic beliefs about Christ salvation the Trinity the afterlife and other important topics White shows how the sacred text of Islam differs from the teachings of the Bible in order to help Christians engage in open honest discussions with Muslims

Medieval Islamic Civilization (2006) Josef Meri, 2018-01-12 Islamic civilization flourished in the Middle Ages across a vast geographical area that spans today s Middle and Near East First published in 2006 Medieval Islamic Civilization examines the socio cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the 7th and 16th centuries This important two volume work contains over 700 alphabetically arranged entries contributed and signed by international scholars and experts in fields such as Arabic languages Arabic literature architecture history of science Islamic arts Islamic studies Middle Eastern studies Near Eastern studies politics religion Semitic studies theology and more Entries also explore the importance of interfaith relations and the permeation of persons ideas and objects across geographical and intellectual boundaries between Europe and the Islamic world This reference work provides an exhaustive and vivid portrait of Islamic civilization and brings together in one authoritative text all aspects of Islamic civilization during the Middle Ages Accessible to scholars students and non specialists this resource will be of great use in research and understanding of the roots of today s Islamic society as well as the rich and vivid culture of medieval Islamic civilization

Freedom of Expression in Islam Muhammad Khalid Masud, Kari Vogt, Lena Larsen, Christian Moe, 2021-01-28 In Muslim countries apostasy and blasphemy laws are defended on the grounds that they are based on Islamic Shari a and intended to protect religion But blasphemy and apostasy laws can be used both to suppress thought and debate and to harass religious minorities both inside and outside Islam This book comprising contributions from Muslim scholars experts and activists critically and constructively engages with the theological historical and legal reasoning behind the most restrictive state laws around the world to open up new ways of thinking The book focuses on the struggle within Muslim societies in Iran Egypt Pakistan and Indonesia where blasphemy and apostasy laws serve powerful groups to silence dissent and stifle critical thought The first part of the book covers the development of the law in shifting historical circumstances and surveys the interpretations of Qur'anic verses that seem to affirm freedom of religion The second part examines the present politics and practices of prosecuting alleged blasphemers and or apostates in Muslim countries The third part looks to the future and where reforms of the law could be possible Debates on Islam and freedom of expression are often cast in polarizing terms of rights versus religion East versus West This volume avoids such approaches by bringing together a diverse group of Muslim scholars and activists with the knowledge commitment and courage to contest repressive interpretations of religion and provide a resource for reclaiming the human rights to freedom of expression and belief

The Spirit of Tolerance in Islam Reza Shah-Kazemi, 2012-01-27 In 1932 the eminent British scholar of Islam Sir Hamilton Gibb wrote The nobility and broad tolerance of this religion Islam which accepted all the real religions of the world as God inspired will always be a glorious heritage for mankind No other society has such a record of success in uniting in an equality of status of opportunity and of endeavor so many and so various races of humanity Whither Islam Such scholarly objectivity towards the tolerance which has historically characterized the Islamic tradition as a whole is in short supply these days Through an insidious symbiosis of fanatical Muslims and prejudiced Islamophobes the very opposite image of Islam has emerged as one of the most dangerous stereotypes of our times The most cursory glance at history will not only reveal the falsity of this stereotype of an intolerant Islam it will also reveal the little known fact that not so long ago it was the Islamic world that provided models of tolerant conduct for a fanatically intolerant Christian world tearing itself apart over dogmatic differences The first part of this monograph examines the historical record of tolerance in the Islamic tradition illustrating the expression of the principle of tolerance through the rule of such dynasties as the Ottomans Mughals Fatimids and the Umayyads of Spain In the second the principle of tolerance is shown to be rooted in the spirit of the Qur'anic revelation and embodied in the exemplary conduct of the Prophet writings by four of West Africa's most renowned Sufi scholars. Outsiders have long observed the contours of the flourishing scholarly traditions of African Muslim societies but the most renowned voices of West African Sufism have rarely been heard outside of their respective constituencies. This volume brings together writings by Uthman b. Fudī d. 1817 Nigeria, Umar Tal d. 1864 Mali, Ahmad Bamba d. 1927 Senegal, and Ibrahim Niass d. 1975 Senegal, who between them founded the largest Muslim communities in African history. Jihad of the Pen offers translations of Arabic source material that proved formative to the constitution of a veritable Islamic revival sweeping West Africa in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Recurring themes shared by these scholars: etiquette on the spiritual path, love for the Prophet Muhammad, and divine knowledge demonstrate a shared vibrant scholarly heritage in West Africa that drew on the classics of global Islamic learning but also made its own contributions to Islamic intellectual history. The authors have selected enduringly relevant primary sources and richly contextualized them within broader currents of Islamic scholarship on the African continent. Students of Islam or Africa, especially those interested in learning more of the profound contributions of African Muslim scholars, will find this work an essential reference for the university classroom or personal library.
