Theodore Celenko, Harrison Eiteljorg, 1983 Handbook of African Catholicism Ilo, Stan Chu, 2022-07-13 A disciplinary map for understanding African Catholicism today by engaging some of the most pressing and pertinent issues topics and conversations in diverse fields of studies in African Catholicism Contemporary Voices From The Margin Peter

Ukpokodu, Omiunota N. Ukpokodu, 2012-06-01 Traditionally American educators and communities have looked to Europe and Asia for ideas for rethinking and reforming education for America s diverse children This book Contemporary Voices from the Margin African Educators on African and American Education brings together new voices of diverse African born teacher educators and Africanist scholars who share personal experiences as well as researchbased perspectives about education in Africa and America that will be valuable to rethinking and reforming education for America s struggling schools The book is a comprehensive work of experienced educators and scholars in the field of teacher education and African Studies The editors of the book invited a diverse group of African born teacher educators and scholars from different countries of Africa who teach in the U S The contributors share a common African experience but they are geographically diverse in countries of origin and research Their knowledge about African communal living as well as colonial powers and imperialism as they operated in various African countries enables them to compare and contrast various educational models and practices including traditional ones They are also diverse in their fields of specialization but have expertise in multicultural education urban education and culturally responsive pedagogy that have become the focus of U S discourses in public education and teacher preparation programs Given that these scholars were born or socialized and educated in as well as taught schools and colleges in their respective African countries before settling in the United States they bring a wealth of experience and insights into what it means to successfully educate children and youth The book is divided into three parts Part 1 examines African processes and practices of education both formal and informal as contributing authors share perspectives about African indigenous education including cultural socialization and formal western type education and organization of schools Part 2 focuses on patterns and structures of formal western type education in selected African countries Part 3 explores cross cultural perspectives on American education The contributors provide chapters of stimulating and rich perspectives that will engage the discourse on rethinking and reforming education and schooling for America s diverse students

African Masks and Emotions Z. S. Strother, 2025-12-23 In this groundbreaking book Z S Strother inspired by dialogues with African masquerade patrons and performers disputes assumptions that masks universally hide reveal or transform In Western European languages the word mask exerts a powerful presence as a figure of speech To masquerade is to pretend to be someone or something one is not By extension unmasking is a heroic metaphor for exposing a hidden truth In this volume art historian Z S Strother counters that narrative using African case studies to offer an alternative vision of masquerading She explores the aesthetic emotions aroused by masks or more precisely by dances of masks joy wonder awe fear and the release of laughing out loud She also investigates the uncanny a sensation of delicious shiveriness triggered when familiar spaces and individuals become strange and changeable Inspired by Strother s studies in DR Congo African Masks and Emotions takes a comparative perspective and moves emotion from the periphery to the center of analysis Frans M. Olbrechts, 1899-1958 Etnografisch Museum (Antwerp, Belgium),2001 In conjunction with the exhibition Frans M Olbrechts in Search of Art in Africa held in the Antwerp Ethnographic Museum from 7 December 2001 to 31 March 2002 UNESCO General History of Africa, Vol. III, Abridged Edition Unesco. International Scientific Committee for the Drafting of a General History of Africa,1992-11-03 The book first places Africa in the context of world history at the opening of the seventh century before examining the general impact of Islamic penetration the continuing expansion of the Bantu speaking peoples and the growth of civilizations in the Sudanic zones of West Africa Back cover Leadership Formation in the African Context Samuel Deressa,2022-03-25 The teachings of Christian leadership have been dominated by a focus on the influence of a leader on its followers Samuel Deressa s new book Leadership Formation in the African Context highlights how an African concept of community and holistic approach to ministry provides a biblically sound approach to understanding leadership formation and practice in this new age This book links the issue of missional leadership with the life of the congregation It provides theological and practical insights into how we can understand leadership formation in contexts where churches are engaged in the Missio Dei as a community of believers Catalogue of the Harvard University Fine Arts Library, The Fogg Art Museum Harvard University. Fine Arts Library,1976 Collecting African Art Werner Gillon,1980 Asante in the Nineteenth Century Ivor Wilks,1989-09-29 Originally published in 1975 and reprinted with additional introductory material in 1989 this book provides an in depth account of Asante history during the nineteenth century The focus of the book is on the broad political development of Asante society concentrating on the material factors which affected the decision making process during various administrations This focus reflects the complex and sophisticated nature of the Asante social system a system which had its basis in administrative unity and a core idea of nationhood The text utilizes the abundant archival printed and oral source materials available regarding the Asante offering the reader a profound insight into the nature and structure of a remarkable society This is a fascinating book that will be of value to anyone with an interest in African history Voodoo, Hoodoo and Conjure in African American Literature James S. Mellis,2019-06-20 From the earliest slave narratives to modern fiction by the likes of Colson Whitehead and Jesmyn Ward African American authors have drawn on African spiritual practices as literary inspiration and as a way to maintain a connection to Africa This volume has collected new essays about the multiple ways African American authors have incorporated Voodoo Hoodoo and Conjure in their work Among the authors covered are Frederick Douglass Shirley Graham Jewell Parker Rhodes Zora Neale Hurston Richard Wright Ntozake Shange Rudolph Fisher Jean Toomer and Ishmael Reed

State of the Continent John M. Fobanjong, 2018-11-28 What precisely is the state of the African continent today Depending on one's perspective the answer may either dwell on Africa's recent economic and political accomplishments or focus on the long standing single story of failure disaster and eternal dictatorships This book provides a nuanced forceful and balanced assessment of Africa's political and economic performance since independence While acknowledging Africa's tragic pitfalls dating to the transatlantic slave trade and colonialism State of the Continent skillfully argues that theories associated with the dependency school are no longer enough to explain the continent's failures in governance and economic performance For a continent so richly blessed and endowed with both human and material resources the blame for Africa's lackluster performance falls squarely on its leadership To get things right Nkrumah's vision of the primacy of the political kingdom must be prioritized whereupon economic gains shall predictably follow In lucid and persuasive prose this volume is an ideal book for scholars as well as students of international studies and African politics

The De-Africanization of African Art Denis Ekpo, Pfunzo Sidogi, 2021-08-12 This book argues for a radical new approach to thinking about art and creativity in Africa challenging outdated normative discourses about Africa's creative heritage Africanism which is driven by a traumatic response to colonialism in Africa has an almost unshakable stranglehold on the content stylistics and meaning of art in Africa Post African aesthetics insists on the need to move beyond this counter colonial self consciousness and considerably change re work and enlarge the ground principles and mission of artistic imagination and creativity in Africa This book critiques and dismantles the tropes of Africanism and Afrocentrism providing the criteria and methodology for a Post African art theory or Post African aesthetics Grounded initially in essays by Denis Ekpo the father of Post Africanism the book then explores a range of applications and interpretations of Post African theory to the art forms and creative practices in Africa With particular reference to South Africa this book will be of interest to researchers across the disciplines of Art Literature Media Studies Cultural Anthropology and African Studies
