Bloomsbury Handbook of Postcolonial Print Cultures Toral Jatin Gajarawala, Neelam Srivastava, Rajeswari Sunder Rajan, Jack Webb, 2023-08-10 The texts that make up postcolonial print cultures are often found outside the archival catalogue and in lesser examined repositories such as personal collections the streets or appendages to established collections This volume examines the published and unpublished writing magazines pamphlets paratexts advertisements cartoons radio and street art that serve as the intellectual forces behind opposition to colonial orders as meditations on the futures of embryonic nation states and as visions of new forms of equality The print cultures examined here are necessarily anti institutional they serve as a counterpoint to the colonial archive and relatedly to more traditional genres and text formats coming out of large scale publishers This means that much of the primary material analyzed in this book has not been scrutinized before Many of these print productions articulate collective liberation projects with origins in the grassroots They include debates around the shape of the postcolonial nation and the new state formation that necessarily draw on a diverse and contentious public sphere of opinion Their rhetoric ranges from the reformist to the revolutionary Reflecting the diversity indeed the disorderliness of postcolonial print cultures this book covers local national and transnational cultures from Asia Africa Europe and the Americas Its wide ranging essays offer a nuanced and taken together a definitive though that is not to say comprehensive or systematic study of a global phenomenon postcolonial print cultures as a distinct literary field The chapters recover the efforts of writers readers and publishers to produce a postcolonialism from below and thereby offer a range of fresh perspectives on the meaning and history of postcolonialism African Literature Jonathan P.

Kalliney, 2024-12-10 How decolonization and the cold war influenced literature from Africa Asia and the Caribbean How did superpower competition and the cold war affect writers in the decolonizing world In The Aesthetic Cold War Peter Kalliney explores the various ways that rival states used cultural diplomacy and the political police to influence writers In response many writers from Africa Asia and the Caribbean such as Chinua Achebe Mulk Raj Anand Eileen Chang C L R James Alex La Guma Doris Lessing Ng g wa Thiong o and Wole Soyinka carved out a vibrant conceptual space of aesthetic nonalignment imagining a different and freer future for their work Kalliney looks at how the United States and the Soviet Union in an effort to court writers funded international conferences arts centers book and magazine publishing literary prizes and radio programming International spy networks however subjected these same writers to surveillance and intimidation by tracking their movements tapping their phones reading their mail and censoring or banning their work Writers from the global south also suffered travel restrictions deportations imprisonment and even death at the hands of government agents Although conventional wisdom suggests that cold war pressures stunted the development of postcolonial literature Kalliney's extensive archival research shows that evenly balanced superpower competition allowed savvy writers to accept patronage without pledging loyalty to specific political blocs Likewise writers exploited rivalries and the emerging discourse of human rights to contest the attentions of the political police A revisionist account of superpower involvement in literature The Aesthetic Cold War considers how politics shaped literary production in the twentieth century

New World Orderings Lisa Rofel, Carlos Rojas, 2022-11-09 The contributors to New World Orderings demonstrate that China's twenty first century rise occurs not only through economics and state politics but equally through the mutual entanglements of overlapping social economic and cultural worlds in Southeast Asia Africa and Latin America They show how the Chinese state has sought to reconfigure the nation's position in the world and the centrality of trade labor religion migration gender race and literature to this reconfiguration Among other topics the contributors examine China's post Bandung cultural diplomacy with African nations how West African pastor entrepreneurs in China interpreted and preached the prosperity doctrine the diversity of Chinese Argentine social relations in the soy supply chain and the ties between China and India within the complex history of inter Asian exchange and Chinese migration to Southeast Asia By examining China's long historical relationship with the Global South this volume presents a non state centric history of China that foregrounds
