All Consuming Images Stuart Ewen,1999 Theories of the Information Society Frank Webster,2002 In the first edition of Theories of the Information Society Frank Webster set out to make sense of the information explosion taking a sceptical look at what thinkers mean when they refer to the information society and critically examining all the major post war theories and approaches to informational development Theories of the Information Society , Living Up to the Ads Simone Weil Davis,2000 Explores interactions between novels and advertising in the construction of subjectivity in the early part of the twentieth century Cries of Joy, Songs of Sorrow

Marc L. Moskowitz,2009-11-24 Since the mid 1990s Taiwan s unique brand of Mandopop Mandarin Chinese language pop music has dictated the musical tastes of the mainland and the rest of Chinese speaking Asia Cries of Joy Songs of Sorrow explores Mandopop s surprisingly complex cultural implications in Taiwan and the PRC where it has established new gender roles created a vocabulary to express individualism and introduced transnational culture to a country that had closed its doors to the world for twenty years In his early chapters Marc L Moskowitz provides the historical background necessary to understand the contemporary Mandopop scene beginning with the birth of Chinese popular music in the East Asian jazz Mecca of 1920s Shanghai A brief overview of alternative musical genres in the PRC such as Beijing rock and revolutionary opera is included The section concludes with a look at the manner in which Taiwan s musical ethos has influenced the mainland s music industry and how Mandopop has brought Western music and cultural values to the PRC This leads to a discussion of Taiwan pop s exceptional hybridity beginning with foreign influences during the colonial period under the Dutch and Japanese and continuing with the country s political cultural and economic alliance with the U S Moskowitz addresses the resulting wealth of transnational musical influences from the rest of East Asia and the U S and Taiwan pop s appeal to audiences in both the PRC and Taiwan In doing so he explores how Mandopop s songs of sorrow with their ubiquitous themes of loneliness and isolation engage a range of emotional expression that resonates strongly in the PRC Later chapters examine the construction of male and female identities in Mandopop and look at the widespread condemnation of the genre by critics Drawing on analyses and data from earlier chapters including interviews with dozens of performers song writers and lay people in Taipei and Shanghai Moskowitz attempts to answer the question Why if the music is as bad as some assert is it so central to the lives of the largest population in the world To answer he highlights Mandopop s important contribution as a poetic lament that simultaneously embraces and protests modern life Cries of Joy Songs of Sorrow is a highly readable introduction to an important but understudied East Asian phenomenon It will find a ready audience among scholars and students of Chinese and Taiwanese popular culture as well as musicologists studying transnational music flows and non Western popular music Popular Music Roy Shuker,2005 With Key Concepts in

The Construction of Authorship Martha Woodmansee, Peter Jaszi, 1994 What is an author What is a text At a time when the definition of text is expanding and the technology whereby texts are produced and disseminated is changing at an explosive rate the ways authorship is defined and rights conferred upon authors must also be reconsidered This volume argues that contemporary copyright law rooted as it is in a nineteenth century Romantic understanding of the author as a solitary creative genius may be inapposite to the realities of cultural production Drawing together distinguished scholars from literature law and the social sciences the volume explores the social and cultural construction of authorship as a step toward redefining notions of authorship and copyright for today's world These essays illustrating cultural studies in action are aggressively interdisciplinary and wide ranging in topic and approach Questions of collective and collaborative authorship in both contemporary and early modern contexts are addressed Other topics include moral theory and authorship copyright and the balance between competing interests of authors and the public problems of international copyright musical sampling and its impact on fair use doctrine cinematic authorship quotation and libel alternative views of authorship as exemplified by nineteenth century women's clubs and by the Renaissance commonplace book authorship in relation to broadcast media and to the teaching of writing and the material dimension of authorship as demonstrated by Milton's publishing contract
