Ama Ata Aidoo Language In The Dilemma Of A Ghost:

The Politics of Heritage in Africa Derek R. Peterson, Kodzo Gavua, Ciraj Rassool, 2015-03-02 This book shows African heritage to be a mode of political organisation where heritage work has a uniquely wide currency Spectres from the Past Portia Owusu, 2019-11-22 Spectres from the Past The History of Slavery in West African and African American Narratives examines the merit of the claim that West African writers in comparison to African Americans authors deliberately expunge the history of slavery from literary narratives The book explores slavery in contemporary West African and African American literature by looking at the politics of history and memory It interrogates notions of History and memory by considering the possibility that shared traumas such as West African and African American experiences of slavery can be remembered and historicised differently according to critical factors such as socio economic realities cultural beliefs and familial traditions At the heart of the book are compelling and new readings of slavery in six literary narratives that draws on cultural philosophies musicology and linguistics to demonstrate diverse and unusual ways that Black writers in West Africa and North America write about slavery in literature Critical Dimensions of African Studies Jennifer L. De Maio, Suzanne Scheld, Tom Spencer-Walters, 2023-09-12 This book brings together top researchers thinkers and activists from across disciplines to reflect on the study of Africa Critical Dimensions of African Studies Re Membering Africa emphasizes a critique of power structures the promotion of human liberation a commitment to social justice and transformation and critical reflection on the politics of the production and circulation of knowledge of Africa The editors Jennifer De Maio Suzanne Scheld and Tom Spencer Walters organize the book around three related key themes international transnational humanistic and combined critical theory and practice perspectives They argue that each theme represents an important dimension of contemporary African and African diaspora studies and re centering these themes within the discipline will help to advance the field The diverse contributors capture the goal and method for re membering Africa by reflecting and defining the field from various disciplines in order to consider the history the critical debates and the challenges to current views of the status and future direction of African studies Currents in African Literature and the English Language, 2018-05

European-language Writing in Sub-Saharan Africa Albert S. Gérard, 1986 The first major comparative study of African writing in western languages European language Writing in Sub Saharan Africa edited by Albert S G rard falls into four wide ranging sections an overview of early contacts and colonial developments Under Western Eyes chapters on Black Consciousness manifest in the debates over Panafricanism and Negritude a group of essays on mental decolonization expressed in Black Power texts at the time of independence struggles and finally Comparative Vistas sketching directions that future comparative study might explore An introductory e Gender in African Women's Writing Juliana Makuchi Nfah-Abbenyi, 1997-12-22 This is a cogent analysis of the complexities of gender in the work of nine contemporary Anglophone and Francophone novelists offers illuminating interpretations of worthy writers Multicultural Review This book reaffirms Bessie Head's remark that books are a tool in this case a tool that allows readers to understand better the rich lives and the condition of African women. Excellent notes and a rich bibliography. Choice a college level analysis which will appeal to any interested in African studies and literature. The Bookwatch. This book applies gender as a category of analysis to the works of nine sub-Saharan women writers: Aidoo, B. Beyala, Dangarembga, Emecheta, Head, Liking, Tlali, and Zanga Tsogo. The author appropriates western feminist theories of gender in an African literary context and in the process she finds and names critical theory that is African indigenous self-determining which she then melds with western feminist theory and comes out with an over-arching theory that enriches western post-colonial and African critical perspectives.
