Elleman,2019-08-31 The Making of the Modern Chinese Navy includes 14 historical case studies that help to illuminate a number of special characteristics of the modern day Chinese navy most Chinese naval officers perhaps take for granted including a belief in the Mandate of Heaven tributary system and the fear of losing face either in a diplomatic setting or by risking valuable equipment in battle Ethnic and language differences regional loyalties and political mistrust potentially exacerbate these problems Special peculiarities include the Mongol dual officer diarchy that led to the political commissar system utilized by the People s Liberation Army Outside influences such as blockade sanctions or embargoes can exert a profound impact on China just as foreign intervention or equally important a decision not to intervene can often determine the outcome of major maritime events NP The 14 case studies discuss many of these characteristics while the Conclusion examines all case studies together and places them in a historical perspective The Making of the Modern Chinese Navy assesses which of these historical characteristics and peculiarities are still present in full force in China and which ones may no longer have as great an impact on the contemporary Chinese navy Notes and Queries ,1920 The Old World, the New World, and the Creation of the Modern World, 1400-1650 Aaron M.
