Digitization of Economy and Society Sudeshna Basu Mukherjee,Saheli Guha Neogi Ghatak,Nilanjan Ray,2021-10-20

This new volume looks at a selection of important issues resulting from the digitization of society which has fundamentally transformed organizations. These new technological innovations are creating new opportunities as well as new challenges. This volume considers the emerging paradigm of digitization in economy and society which covers a wide spectrum of digitization processes and consequences accelerated by the current COVID 19 pandemic, the lockdown scenario and the increase in digitization by individuals, businesses and governments. The book explores digital social trends, digital marketing and the service industry as well as the societal consequences of technologies and solutions to those problems. The diverse topics include the societal impact of digitization on gender issues, virtual relationships, e-government, online privacy, the gig economy using Uber as an example, work-life changes, online education, online media, health, public service, advertisements, loneliness of the elderly and more. This book is essential reading for students and faculty of social sciences, economics and management technology to understand the broad dimensions of digitization in our everyday life and the theoretical and practical utilization and outcome of digitization.

Exploring Education and Democratization in South Asia Tania Saeed, Radhika Iyengar, Matthew A. Witenstein, Erik Jon Byker, 2024-02-19. This volume brings together scholars, practitioners, activists and students to reflect on socio-political transitions taking place in countries across South Asia and their implications for democracy and education. It provides an important intervention for comparative education in South Asia by looking at the kind of ideological tensions that exist within the education systems and how these competing agendas are visible at different levels. At a time when students have been protesting for their rights across educational institutions in South Asia where the Covid 19 pandemic has exacerbated inequalities with learning losses and job losses, this collection creates a space to reflect on the limitations and possibilities of education in democracies across South Asia. IGNOU B.Ed
