She is looking down and to her left, with her arms crossed over her knees. The steps are made of large, weathered stone blocks. In the background, there is a low wall and some foliage.

Saturday Ian McEwan,2009-02-24 1 INTERNATIONAL BESTSELLER Dazzling and powerful The New York Times From Booker Prize winning and bestselling author of Atonement Ian McEwan s acclaimed novel Saturday follows an ordinary man through a single day whose high promise gradually turns nightmarish Saturday February 15 2003 Henry Perowne a successful neurosurgeon stands at his bedroom window before dawn and watches a plane ablaze with fire like a meteor arcing across the London sky Over the course of the following day unease gathers about Perowne as he moves among hundreds of thousands of anti war protestors who ve taken to the streets in the aftermath of 9 11 A minor car accident brings him into confrontation with Baxter a fidgety aggressive man who to Perowne's professional eye appears to be profoundly unwell But it is not until Baxter makes a sudden appearance at the Perowne family home that Henry's earlier fears seem about to be realized A book of great maturity beautifully alive to the fragility of happiness and all forms of violence Everyone should read Saturday Financial Times Guilt in Ian McEwan's "Atonement" and Joe Wright's film adaptation Carmen Odimba,2015-04-30 Seminar paper from the year 2009 in the subject Cultural Studies Basics and Definitions grade 3.0 Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz Department of British Irish Studies Translation Studies course Seminar Transferring Translating Media Novels to Film Ian McEwan's Atonement language English abstract Atonement the novel by Ian McEwan published in 2001 is qualified by many critics as a wartime love story It is an interpretation that suits the glamorous criteria needed by the public and provided by the media nowadays This interpretation however solely focuses on the characters of Cecilia and Robbie and forgets the important part that Briony or her writing process play in the novel and Joe Wright's film A complete reading of Atonement should include a study of the title and its implications in the story We will start by analyzing the meaning of the word atonement The choice of this title has a special significance for the whole novel and should lead us readers and spectators to understand its message to know whether the spirit of the novel has been respected by the film maker is a question to which we will also answer briefly The tragic event that happened in Part One of the novel could never have taken place in a more opened social environment With other codifications more courage and less things left unsaid the story would have been different We will examine some of the taboos that played an important role in the shaping of Atonement's characters The notion of guilt is very present in the novel thus it will be in relation to atonement the central focus of this paper We will consider the main characters i.e. Briony Robbie Cecilia Lola and Paul Marshall and try to evaluate the degree to which each one of them is guilty feels guilty and is willing to atone for his sins The last part of the paper will be essentially dedicated to the film to Joe Wright's interpretation of the concepts we named above Considering our paper's subject was it a good or a bad adaptation Ian McEwan Sebastian Groes,2013-07-18 Ian McEwan is one of the most significant and controversial British novelists working today His books are both critically and academically acclaimed and embraced by readers across the world Although primarily a novelist he has also written short stories television plays a libretto a children's book and a film adaptation Across these many forms his work retains a distinctive character that explores questions of morality place and history nationhood sexuality and gender Now fully updated for its second edition this guide brings together a collection of new critical perspectives on McEwan's oeuvre not only covering the early works and his writing for the screen but also incorporating detailed and original analyses of the later work including new readings of his latest books Solar and Sweet Tooth With an updated and extended guide to further critical reading on McEwan the book also includes an interview with the author himself a chronology of his life work and times and the full text of a lost early McEwan short story Connell Short Gd to Ian Mcewan's Atoneme Theo Tait,2016-02-12 Atonement Ian

McEwan, 2014-06-17 Brilliant and utterly enthralling in its depiction of childhood love and war England and class this beautiful hardcover edition of the bestselling tour de force The Sunflower The New York Times is a profound and profoundly moving exploration of shame and forgiveness and the difficulty of absolution On the hottest day of the summer of 1935 thirteen year old Briony Tallis sees her older sister Cecilia strip off her clothes and plunge into the fountain in the garden of their country house Watching Cecilia is their housekeeper's son Robbie Turner a childhood friend who along with Briony's sister has recently graduated from Cambridge By the end of that day the lives of all three will have been changed forever Robbie and Cecilia will have crossed a boundary they had never before dared to approach and will have become victims of the younger girl's scheming imagination And Briony will have committed a dreadful crime the guilt for which will color her entire life In each of his novels Ian McEwan has brilliantly drawn his reader into the intimate lives and situations of his characters But never before has he worked with so large a canvas In Atonement he takes the reader from a manor house in England in 1935 to the retreat from Dunkirk in 1941 from the London's World War II military hospitals to a reunion of the Tallis clan in 1999 Don't miss Ian McEwan's new novel Lessons coming in September

Ian McEwan Irena Księżopolska, 2024-04-30 This book offers a discussion of seven canonical novels by Ian McEwan The Cement Garden The Comfort of Strangers The Child in Time The Innocent Black Dogs Atonement On Chesil Beach introducing radical new readings which are offered not as ultimate and conclusive solutions of the textual puzzles but as possibilities to engage with the text creatively to enrich the critical consensus and restore interpretative freedom to the readers This project formulates a strategy of inclusive reading an approach to the text that does not seek to reduce it to a single interpretation and yet is comprehensively informed through the analysis of the primary text critical discussion authorial comments and the context of the composition Each reading demonstrates the metafictional structure of the texts indicating that McEwan's works may be treated as invitations to roam within their worlds examining the multiple frames of their structure and the meanings generated thereby All the chapters attend to submerged repressed or deliberately masked voices The Cement Garden is seen as a multi layered dream with a shifting hierarchy of dreamers The Comfort of Strangers is viewed as an inverted metafiction with insubstantial characters corrupting more complex heroes The Child in Time is read as Stephen's book written for his dead daughter The Innocent as a memory narrative of Leonard who refuses to notice Maria's role as a spy In Black Dogs the over exposure of unreliability is studied as a screen for personal trauma in the analysis of Atonement Briony's claim to authorship is questioned and Cecilia is suggested as an alternative narrative agent Finally examining On Chesil Beach both characters voices are reconstructed in search of the superior narrative power which in the end is seen to be elusive as the text seeks to undermine the hierarchy of voices

Ian McEwan's Atonement & Saturday Christina Byrnes, 2006-01-01 Waiting for the End Earl G. Ingersoll, 2007

Waiting for the End examines two dozen contemporary novels within the context of a half century of theorizing about the function of ending in narrative That theorizing about ending generated a powerful dynamic a quarter century ago with the advent of feminist criticism of masculinist readings of the role played by ending in fiction Feminists such as Theresa de Lauretis in 1984 and more famously Susan Winnett in her 1991 PMLA essay Coming Unstrung were leading voices in a swelling chorus of theorist pointing out the masculinist bias of ending in narrative With the entry of feminist readings of ending it became inevitable that criticism of fiction would become gendered through the recognition of difference transcending a simple binary of female male to establish a spectrum of masculine to feminine endings regardless of the sex of the writer Accordingly Waiting for the End examines pairs of novels one pair by Margaret Atwood and one by Ian McEwan to demonstrate how a writer can offer endings at either end of the gender spectrum
