

Attendance Discipline Grievance Template

Discipline for the charge of "Irregular attendance" or "Failure to Meet Attendance Requirements" are the most common charges cited in attendance discipline cases. The task of the Steward is to challenge the basis for the discipline in order to be successful the Union must establish a case file that refutes the allegations and/or the basis management relies on for the issuance of the discipline. That is the mission of the Union in all discipline cases.

In order to achieve that goal, the Union should obtain all of the following documentation. Note that not all of the documentation will be included in the final case file. Only those documents which support the Union argument should be included in the final package.

- Discipline Letter
- Copies of all prior discipline cited
- Article 16 Just Cause Principles
- Applicable excerpts from Articles 10, 16, 19 and ELPM Sections 513 & 685
- MI – 39, Section 115
- PS Form 2871 for all cited absences
- PS Form 2872 for previous 2 years
- ELPM's Employee Key Indicator Report for current and previous year.
- Medical documentation submitted for any cited absence
- PDI notes from Steward / Supervisor
- Documentation of attendance reviews / discussions
- Detailed statement from Steward in re PDI Q & A
- Detailed statement from grievant explaining cited absences
- Documentation of installation absence percentage for current and prior years.
- Restricted sick leave list / ELPM's Deems Desirable list*
- EAP referral record*
- Local Agreement*
- FMLA documentation*

(* if necessary / applicable.)

All of the above needs to be requested and obtained before meeting at Informal A. Requests for any documentation must be in writing and copies included in the case file. Denied or delayed requests for documentation, interviews or Stewards time should generate a separate Article 17 / 31 grievances.

As a Steward you have specific rights to information, to do your job, within Articles 17 and 31 but they are worthless if you do not compel management to honor them.

As with any grievance involving discipline the PDI meeting is the crucial foundation for going forward. That is where positions are exchanged and discussed, essentially cards laid out. It is also where the grievance can be quickly resolved.
