Literary Research and the Literatures of Australia and New Zealand Faye H. Christenberry, 2010-11-19 Literary Research and the Literatures of Australia and New Zealand Strategies and Sources is a research guide to the literatures of the two major countries of Oceania Australia and New Zealand Covering over 200 years of these geographically and chronologically connected countries this guide contains references to many different types of resources illustrating how the researcher is best served by using the increasing variety of research tools in combination with each other The book emphasizes research methodology and outlines the best practices for the research process paying special attention to the unique challenges inherent in conducting research on the literatures of Australia and New Zealand specifically The book includes commentary on general literary reference materials library catalogs print and online bibliographies indexes and annual reviews scholarly journals contemporary reviews period journals and newspapers microform and digital collections manuscripts and archives and web resources It is an essential tool for anyone conducting research on Australia or New Zealand and it is a helpful guide for readers with a special interest in these countries literatures Seen and Unseen:

Visual Cultures of Imperialism , 2017-10-02 Seen and Unseen teases out and explores how visual mediums construct visual cultures that often create limited perspectives of certain issues and groups This volume focuses in particular on the representation of Islam and Muslims It deals with fixed and stereotypical visual representations and explores alternative and challenging visual representations that reconstruct and dismantle existing belief systems It approaches the topic from a vantage point of diverse multiple perspectives Covering issues from Brunei Iran Egypt and England and cyberspace the essays in this volume examine the visual cultures of how Islam and Muslims are understood misunderstood misrepresented or even embraced visually Scholars in this volume draw on historical paintings books and their covers photography and news to demonstrate the diversity and sometimes contradictory visual cultures that construct and adhere meaning to how Islam and Muslim people are seen Contributors Hoda Afshar Jared Ahmed Syed Farid Alatas Sanaz Fotouhi Christiane Gruber Layla Hendow Raihana M M Bruno Starrs and Esmaeil Zeiny David Malouf Don Randall, 2013-07-19 Don Randall s comprehensive study situates Malouf within the field of contemporary international and postcolonial writing but without losing sight of the author s affiliation with Australian contexts The book presents an original reading of Malouf finding the unity of his work in the continuity of his ethical concerns for Malouf human lives find their value in transformations specifically in instances of self overcoming that encounters with difference or otherness provoke However the book is fully aware of and informed by the quite ample body of criticism on Malouf and thus provides readers with a broad based understanding of how Malouf s works have been received and assessed It is an effective companion volume for studies in postcolonial or Australian literature for any study project in which Malouf figures prominently Poetics and Politics of Relationality in Contemporary Australian Aboriginal Fiction Dorothee Klein, 2021-10-28 This is the first sustained study of the formal particularities of works by Bruce Pascoe Kim Scott Tara June Winch and Alexis Wright Drawing on a rich theoretical framework that includes approaches to relationality by Aboriginal thinkers Edouard Glissant and Jean Luc Nancy and recent work in New Formalism and narrative theory the book illustrates how they use a broad range of narrative techniques to mediate negotiate and temporarily create networks of relations that interlink all elements of the universe Through this focus on relationality Aboriginal writing gains both local and global significance Locally these narratives assert Indigenous sovereignty by staging an unbroken interrelatedness of people and their land Globally they intervene into current discourses about humanity s relationship with the natural environment urging readers to acknowledge our interrelatedness with and dependence on the land that sustains us

Contemporary Art and Feminism Jacqueline Millner,Catriona Moore,2021-07-05 This important new book examines contemporary art while foregrounding the key role feminism has played in enabling current modes of artmaking spectatorship and theoretical discourse Contemporary Art and Feminism carefully outlines the links between feminist theory and practice of the past four decades of contemporary art and offers a radical re reading of the contemporary movement Rather than focus on filling in the gaps of accepted histories by adding the missing female queer First Nations and women artists of colour the authors seek to revise broader understandings of contemporary practice by providing case studies contextualised in a robust art historical and theoretical basis Readers are encouraged to see where art ideas come from and evaluate past and present art strategies What strategies materials or tropes are less relevant in today s networked event driven art economies What strategies and themes should we keep hold of or develop in new ways This is a significant and innovative intervention that is ideal for students in courses on contemporary art within fine arts visual studies history of art gender studies and queer studies

Rural Lifestyles, Community Well-being and Social Change: Lessons from Country Australia for Global Citizens Angela T. Ragusa,2014-01-08 In our increasingly global world individuals are highly mobile and interconnected Politics policies and technologies foster interconnection amongst and within countries as individuals relocate from one place to another One key issue facing developed and developing countries is urban overcrowding In Australia urban density is one factor prompting institutions and individuals to embrace rural revival as a possible solution to urban congestion and rural decline In the past decade rural Australia has received heightened publicity and interest as a lifestyle destination encouraged by national decentralization policies to alleviate urban overcrowding particularly the metropolises Melbourne and Sydney regional councils marketing initiatives and international refugee relocation Rural communities struggle in contrast with urban counterparts for several often complex reasons The realities of rural life are frequently marginalized while marketing campaigns evoke stereotypical imagery of idyllic lifestyles and bucolic pastures to sell dreams of country bliss to fatigued urbanites This edited e book is a collection of articles that explores rural realities of country life in Australia for global audiences interested in rurality health and well being By transcending disciplinary specific boundaries this multi disciplinary book not only presents contemporary challenges but also equips readers with evidence based knowledge to improve resilience in communities and individuals facing key issues such as aging depression disability environmental degradation limited service delivery and social isolation Utilizing a variety of social science research methods each chapter will enhance readers insights about rural amenities geography identity culture health and governance which impact wellbeing and lifestyle satisfaction Collectively this book exposes readers to ideas from a dynamic range of experts in the humanities social and natural sciences to encourage a holistic approach to developing solutions for a complex social world The content of this volume will interest a wide audience of graduates and undergraduates researchers professional practitioners and policymakers involved with non profit and government organizations and interested community members

Literary Research and British

Postmodernism Bridgit McCafferty, Arianne Hartsell-Gundy, 2015-09-02 Literary Research and British Postmodernism is a guide for scholars that aims to connect the complex relationships between print and multimedia technological advancements and the influence of critical theory that converge in postwar British literature This era is unique in that strict boundaries between fiction nonfiction multimedia and print are not useful Postmodern literature is defined by the breaking down of boundaries as a reaction to modernism and requires an innovative multifaceted approach to research In this guide the authors explore these complex relationships and offer strategies for researching this new period of literature This book takes a holistic approach to postmodern literature that recognizes the way in which digital media film critical theory popular music and more traditional print sources are inextricably linked Through this approach the authors present a broad view of postmodernism that includes a wide variety of British authors writing in the last half of the twentieth century The book s definition of postmodern includes any British literature following World War II that engages issues central to postmodern theory including the social construction of gender sexuality and power the subjectivity of truth technology as a social force intertextuality metafiction post colonial narrative and fantasy This guide aims to aid researchers of postwar British literature by defining best practices for scholars conducting research in a period so broadly varied in the way it defines literature

The Language of Postcolonial Literatures Ismail S. Talib, 2002 Exploring literatures from a range of countries this book provides a comprehensive introduction to some of the central features of language in a wide variety of postcolonial texts

The Oxford Handbook of Modern Indian Literatures Ulka Anjaria, Anjali Nerlekar, 2024 The Oxford Handbook of Modern Indian Literatures is a compilation of scholarship on Indian literature from the 19th century to the present in a range of Indian languages On one hand because of reasons associated with national academic structures publishing resources and global visibility English writing gets privileged over all the other linguistic traditions in the scholarship on Indian literatures On the other hand within the scholarship on regional language literary productions in Hindi Marathi Bengali etc the critical works and the surveys focus only on that particular language and therefore frequently suffer from a lack of comparative breadth and or global access Both reflect the paradigm of monolingualism within which much literary scholarship on Indian literature takes place This handbook instead focuses on the multilingual pathways through which modern Indian literature gets constituted It features cutting edge literary criticism from at least seventeen languages and on traditional literary genres as well as more recent ones like graphic novels It shows the deep connections and collaborations across genres languages nations and regions that produce a literature of diverse contact zones generating innovations on form aesthetics and technique Foregrounding themes such as modernity and modernism gender caste diaspora and political resistance the book collects an array of perspectives on this vast topic

The Encyclopedia of the Sri Lankan Diaspora Peter Reeves, 2013 Well over a million people of Sri Lankan origin live outside South Asia The Encyclopedia of the Sri Lanka Diaspora is the first comprehensive study of the lives culture beliefs and attitudes of immigrants and refugees from this island The volume is a joint publication between the Institute of South Asian Studies NUS and Editions Didier Millet It focuses on the relationship between culture and economy in the Sri Lanka diaspora in the context of globalisation increased transnational culture flows and new communication technologies In addition to the geographic mapping of the Sri Lanka diaspora in the various continents thematic chapters include topics on long distance nationalism citizenship Sinhala Tamil and Burgher diaspora identities religion and the spread of Buddhism as well as the Sri Lankan cultural impact on other nations

Myths of Wilderness in Contemporary Narratives K. Crane, 2012-10-19 The concept of wilderness as a foundational idea for environmentalist thought has become the subject of vigorous debates Myths of Wilderness in Contemporary Narratives offers a taxonomy of the forms that wilderness writing has taken in Australian and Canadian literature re emphasizing both country's origins as colonies

engaging style this book uses a series of case studies to show how popular media are important to us as a source of pleasure and entertainment but also in communicating about the world with others Social media platforms have changed how we talk about what we like and dislike in our popular media use Cultural citizenship shows how these discussions speak to belonging to what we feel our rights and responsibilities are in today's polarized world Cultural Citizenship and Popular Culture is based on audience led research and does not privilege textual analysis as a starting point for taking popular media use as a measure Instead it offers research tools to listen to others This book offers scholars and students of media and creative industries a means to understand their professional position as one in which they engage with rather than assume to know what users of popular cultural texts and products think and feel The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English Manju Jaidka, Tej N. Dhar, 2023-09-29 Today Indian writing in English is a field of study that cannot be overlooked Whereas at the turn of the 20th century writers from India who chose to write in English were either unheeded or underrated with time the literary world has been forced to recognize and accept their contribution to the corpus of world literatures in English Showcasing the burgeoning field of Indian English writing this encyclopedia documents the poets novelists essayists and dramatists of Indian origin since the pre independence era and their dedicated works Written by internationally recognized scholars this comprehensive reference book explores the history and development of Indian writers their major contributions and the critical reception accorded to them The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English will be a valuable resource to students teachers and academics navigating the vast area of contemporary world literature The Postcolonial Historical Novel H. Dalley, 2014-10-17 The Postcolonial Historical Novel is the first systematic work to examine how the historical novel has been transformed by its appropriation in postcolonial writing It proposes new ways to understand literary realism and explores how the relationship between history and fiction plays out in contemporary African and Australasian writing APAIS, Australian Public Affairs Information Service, 2000 Vol for 1963 includes section Current Australian serials a subject list Security, Socialisation and Affect in Indian Families Ira Raja, 2016-05-23 Sociological research on Indian families has largely focused on questions of household form and structure to the exclusion of not only the more nebulous dimensions of family life and relationships but also the discursive and imagined aspects of our familial worlds such as may be accessed through an analysis of film literature and the electronic media Moreover when sociological inquiry has sought to go beyond the demographic and census aspects of the household it has trained its eye on the heterosexual family centred on the conjugal couple frequently at the expense of those relational patterns and diversities that fall outside the familiar circuits of desire within the family The present volume brings together ten essays from a range of disciplines including law literature anthropology sociology and queer studies to engage with hitherto neglected and emergent aspects of Indian family life This book was published as a special issue of South Asia Journal of South Asian Studies Maoriland Jane Stafford, Mark Williams, 2006 This critical examination of Maoriland literature argues against the former glib dismissals of the period and focuses instead on the era's importance in the birth of a distinct New Zealand style of writing. By connecting the literature and other cultural forms of Maoriland to the larger realms of empire and contemporary criticism, this study explores the roots of the country's modern feminism, progressive social legislation, and bicultural relations.

Index to Commonwealth Little Magazines, 1974 Homing in Bruce Bennett, 2006. There are many issues raised when talking about Australia's literature. The main criterion for inclusion in these essays is not the canonical status of authors but their fruitful engagement with themes of alienation and belonging in a changing Australia.
