Instaurare, reficere, renovare Emanuele Romeo, 2020-09-28 Sin dall'et classica l'atteggiamento degli architetti e dei committenti nei confronti delle preesistenze ha assunto connotazioni differenti a seconda dei periodi e degli ambiti culturali da un lato un'attenzione al testo antico attraverso la tutela di quei monumenti la cui memoria storica andava conservata dall'altro la distruzione attraverso la damnatio memoriae di quei simboli che dovevano essere rimossi dalla memoria collettiva da una parte l'intervento di restauro mimetico o l'aggiunta di parti nuove con un linguaggio dichiaratamente moderno dall'altro l'uso di spolia o il riuso di antichi edifici Il volume ripercorre le tappe più significative della teoria e storia della tutela e del restauro dall'et classica alle codificazioni ottocentesche con l'obiettivo di informare gli studenti sulle questioni teoriche stimolando riflessioni personali che aumentino le loro capacità critiche nei confronti delle problematiche legate alla conservazione dei manufatti storici

L'eccezione come regola: il paradosso teorico del restauro / The Exception as the Rule: The Paradox of Restoration Susanna Caccia Gherardini , 2025-04-01 Ripensare il restauro nei suoi aspetti teorici significa oggi affrontare alcuni nodi epistemici e culturali che possono far scivolare lo studioso nei terreni insidiosi del dibattito critico Un nodo quello della critica che il restauro deve affrontare per non incorrere nell'empirismo ingenuo e per arginare l'allargarsi incontrollato di paradossali specializzazioni ma anche di grottesche declinazioni di ciò che può essere patrimonio Il volume tenta di tracciare un proprio orientamento teorico confrontando esperienze e punti di vista ma passando anche attraverso la stretta cruna della questione del linguaggio del restauro Senza una teoria il restauratore si troverebbe quasi disarmato di fronte alla ricchezza dell'eccezione che ogni pratica di cantiere porta fortunatamente con sé Rethinking restoration in its theoretical aspects today means addressing certain epistemic and cultural issues that can lead scholars into the intricate terrain of critical debate Criticism is a crucial aspect that restoration must confront to avoid naïve empiricism and to curb the uncontrolled expansion of paradoxical specializations as well as grotesque reinterpretations of what can be considered heritage This volume seeks to establish its own theoretical orientation by comparing experiences and perspectives while also navigating the narrow passage of the language of restoration Without a solid theoretical foundation the restorer would find themselves almost defenseless in the face of the richness of exceptions that each restoration site practice inevitably brings

The Importance of Place Borut Juvanec,Amir Pašić,2016-04-26 How do we value historic urban landscape in order to intervene within it as designers This is the central question posed in this volume and is tackled by its 16 essays which investigate different facets of value as bases of building and design practices on a range of spatial scales and brought about by a variety of historical circumstances While the modernist metanarrative of universalism propagated functionalism and through it biological and psychological motives of design activity contemporary building practices are based on more complex and diverse patterns of values that range from cultural to market driven Researched reconstructed and critically assessed the different case studies brought together here reveal the many possible shades of the importance of place with which architects urban planners and city officials work today in the Southern European context Marked in recent decades by social and political transition and economic hardship the reality of this region s cities caused repeated revisions of value systems in all spheres of public life making it thus a particularly intriguing context to observe in these terms In this sense these essays will be of interest to university scholars in architecture art history urbanism and planning in addition to practicing designers and public officials who encounter problems of value definitions in their everyday working tasks related to the shaping and management of contemporary urban space
