Objectives: Read Chapter 8, Section 1 (pages 24-26) in your textbook, and then answer the questions below. Please respond to the first 4 questions using complete sentences, and then give one paragraph for each last 1 "short" style question.

1. What were the characteristics of French society?

The last social-ordered class before French society was social class was made up of nobles, a very small percentage of population in France. The nobles were filled with the dignity of the population consisting of the middle, lower middle and peasant.

2. What three things led to revolution?

First, the bourgeoisie was brought to France and people acknowledged the idea that everyone should be treated equally. Secondly, the French economy was falling and taxes were high. Third, when King Louis XVI was when people were when people were.

3. Why did the bourgeoisie become angry?

Because, France became the first state to have a king. The king was the only one who could make laws. The king was the only one who could make laws. The king was the only one who could make laws.

4. What happened during the Great Fear?

During the Great Fear, the king was the only one who could make laws. The king was the only one who could make laws. The king was the only one who could make laws.
