Karate Do My Way Of Life Gichin Funakoshi:

Karate-Do Gichin Funakoshi, 1981 This text presents the autobiography of the man who made karate an international martial art in which he recalls his own teachers and of his efforts to define and spread knowledge about karate without compromising its spirit Linking the time when karate was a strictly Okinawan art of self defense shrouded in the deepest secrecy and the present day when it has become a martial art practiced throughout the world is Gichin Funakoshi the Father of Karate do Out of modesty he was reluctant to write this autobiography and did not do so until he was Karate-dō Nyūmon Gichin Funakoshi, 1994 This introduction to karate teaches both the physical training and the mental philosophy necessary for karate mastery The book also provides the complete history of karate Karate do Nyumon literally means a passage through the gates of the Karate way in other words an introduction to the world of Karate Karate do Nyumon is the result of Master Funakoshi's wish to clarify Karate thought and practice for those who know nothing about it It comprises unpublished writings from the years before his death in 1957 together with simplified kata sequences of The Twenty Guiding Principles of Karate Gichin Funakoshi, Genwa Nakasone, Jotaro Takagi, 2003 This translation of the guiding principles of karate is aimed at martial arts enthusiasts particularly followers of karate The original text was written as terse axioms the precepts of which are open to various interpretations Many unresolved questions are answered in this commentary Gichin Funakoshi the father of karate once said that the ultimate aim of karate lies not in victory nor defeat but in the perfection of the character of its participants To support his life long stance and offer guidance to future practitioners he penned his now Black Belt, 1992-06 The oldest and most respected martial arts title in the industry this popular monthly magazine addresses the needs of martial artists of all levels by providing them with information about every style of self defense in the world including techniques and strategies In addition Black Belt produces and markets over 75 martial arts oriented books and videos including many about the works of Bruce Lee the best known martial arts figure in the world Black Belt, 1992-04 The oldest and most respected martial arts title in the industry this popular monthly magazine addresses the needs of martial artists of all levels by providing them with information about every style of self defense in the world including techniques and strategies In addition Black Belt produces and markets over 75 martial arts oriented books and videos including many about the works of Bruce Lee the best known martial arts figure in the world Black Belt, 1993-02 The oldest and most respected martial arts title in the industry this popular monthly magazine addresses the needs of martial artists of all levels by providing them with information about every style of self defense in the world including techniques and strategies In addition Black Belt produces and markets over 75 martial arts oriented books and videos including many about the works of Bruce Lee the best known martial arts figure in the world Black Belt, 1993-04 The oldest and most respected martial arts title in the industry this popular monthly magazine addresses the needs of martial artists of all levels by providing them with information about every style of self defense in the world including techniques and strategies In addition Black Belt produces and markets over 75 martial arts oriented books and videos including many about the works of Bruce Lee the best known marital arts figure in the world Hajime Antonio (Tone) Resende,2013-09-16 For several years I have wanted to write the history of karate in Southeastern Massachusetts However there always seemed to be other priorities that distracted my focus In 2009 I retired from my position as a police detective and having been retired from the armed forces I now had no legitimate reason not to devote as much time as possible to such a good karate ideawell except for a brief period of hospitalization due to a serious surgery that kept me hospitalized for twenty seven days and then at home for three weeks under nurses care with months of recovery Karate history in general is in some cases somewhat obscured including in the United States I am willing to bet that not many people have thought of or proceeded to put in writing any historical account of karate in specific communities of the United States other than the Armed Services Judo and Jujitsu Academy in Pensacola Florida and the paper Helium by Can Tran There are a number of historical writings as to how karate was introduced to the United States however I have not come across any historical account that takes us from Japan to the United States and to a particular community There are also a number of historical accounts but only pertaining to individual organizations or instructors For this reason I decided that this may spark the interest of other practitioners of martial arts to write factual accounts to the best of their abilities so that other young martial artists may draw some knowledge from these written facts or events Even if this does not occur at least the Shotokan practitioners can have some guidance as to the historical facts at least in a certain US community The reason I emphasize the Shotokan practitioners is because I have a greater involvement with the Shotokan system of karate Perhaps this can be used as the basis of historical research or studies especially among the college clubs and even dojos I hope to keep your interest from beginning to end as I will cover a short history of karate in general and Shotokan karate to the history of karate in Southeastern Massachusetts This will also be useful in recognizing specific individuals masters and instructors that deserve the credit and acknowledgment since karate remains a sport with less recognition compared to other sports As Gichin Funakoshi often reminded his students The spirit of karate do is lost without courtesy Therefore this written account expresses the acknowledgment of those who brought karate to us beginning at the grass roots of the communities for this is how it manifested to national participation This is one courtesy we often forget it is like not knowing or forgetting where we come from So often I have come across karate practitioners that are black belts and instructing karate classes and they do not know much if anything about how and where karate began and how it spread to all parts of the world Sure if you should ask any person with some karate interest as to where karate originated and how it spread they almost always give the basic knowledge that it started from Dharma in India to China to Okinawa but not a whole lot more than that In Japan karate is a culture not just instructions on how to kick and punch As to this I quote Funakoshis writing The ultimate aim of Karate lies not in victory or defeat but in the perfection of the character of the participant Through this there are a number of dojo kun to be followed and the five most important

are the following seek perfection of character be faithful endeavor to excel respect others and refrain from violent behavior These are usually found posted on a wall in the dojo Additional dojo kun will be listed at the end of the book in both Japanese and English
