Following their arrival back at the barracks, approximately 100,000 soldiers were sent to the rear areas for a full-scale training exercise. While a small unit was being trained in ground tactics, several air divisions and headquarters moved from the rear areas to the front lines. These air divisions were located in the rear areas and were to be used in the front lines. These divisions were ordered to fly full-scale combat missions against the enemy's rear areas. The results of these operations are being reported to the command.

It is not clear how the authors will attempt to address the above-mentioned issues. The authors state that they will attempt to address the above-mentioned issues by using a series of sensitivity analyses. However, it is not clear what specific sensitivity analyses will be conducted, and it is not clear how the results of these analyses will be interpreted.
