Innovation in East Asian Schools Huixuan Xu, 2024-11-12 Following closely behind the global pandemic's recent forced challenges to schools and teachers Xu gives an overview of how educational researchers and schools in Asia respond to challenges in times of change Her research focuses on how they adjust or change curriculum policy and practice to find a balance between developing innovation in response to fast changing societal needs and maintaining the existing education systems that traditionally predict success for students In this book curriculum innovation is documented in three themes 21st century skills and competency based curriculum technology supported curriculum and equity in curriculum Xu includes three types of chapters 1 case studies that provide detailed analyses of curriculum innovation at the school or country level 2 conceptual analyses that deepen our understanding of curriculum issues using a new lens and 3 literature reviews that provide an overview of research in particular topics The volume will be of great interest to researchers and educators interested in the role of curriculum innovation in times of change In particular it focuses on the ways innovative curriculum provides opportunities for individual students to maximize their potential while also acknowledging the constraints of local education systems Genetics and the Literary Imagination Clare Hanson, 2020 Studying works by Doris Lessing Ian McEwan A S Byatt Kazuo Ishiguro and Jackie Kay this book explores the impact on literature of the gene centric model of human nature that entered mainstream culture in the wake of the discovery of the structure of DNA Driving

Intelligence: The Green Book J. Mark Bishop, Gabriel Seiberth, 2025-12-24 Driving Intelligence takes a critical and captivating tour of autonomous driving a phenomenon at the intersection of data driven platforms artificial general intelligence and the mind The journey extends from Europe to key areas such as Japan China and the US recognizing the global impact of AI autonomous driving on high tech and automotive sectors The significance of Driving Intelligence resonates beyond specialized circles encompassing a spectrum of perspectives historical economic scientific and philosophical The book addresses the pressing question of success probabilities and socioeconomic impacts not just for specialists but for a wider audience keen on understanding the evolution of AI and mobility in the 21st century Avoiding partial insights into this domain the book provides a comprehensive and multifaceted overview which will appeal to a diverse audience including business leaders and policymakers in the mobility and tech industries governmental bodies and the general public globally The Emotionally Agile Brain J.D. Pincus, 2024-12-17 A revolution has been quietly taking place in academic psychology economics neuroscience marketing and business In study after study emotional forces massively outweigh human rationality in determining our actual choices and actions This insight has reshaped both science and industry as its power is harnessed for commercial ends Those of us who are engaged in the nexus of neuroscience psychology and human potential have an obligation to raise awareness of these discoveries and more importantly to use them to actually improve people s lives AgileBrain is based on decades of psychological research conducted by the author and others published in peer reviewed academic journals It begins with the discovery of the first principles of all human motivation Motivation is fundamentally about change These principles can be phrased as two questions Where in your life do you wish to make a change To answer this question we can choose from four life domains the Self the Social the Material and the Spiritual Note that these represent pairs of opposites Self vs Social Material vs Spiritual What kind of change do you wish to make To answer this question we can choose from Aristotle s three levels of existence foundational being experiential doing and aspirational having The answers to these two questions form a Periodic Table of the Elements for human motivations in the form of a three by four matrix Because there are no other possible life domains or levels of aspiration the reader can have confidence that every possible human motivation is accounted for A key takeaway is that all twelve emotional needs are operating and directing us all the time and that a key to a happy actualized life is to pursue fulfillment of needs in a balanced way which avoids serious problems associated with unbalanced need fulfillment A recurring theme in The Emotionally Agile Brain is the value of distinguishing between authentic need fulfillment and the superficial inauthentic substitutes offered by our consumer culture After analyzing motivational data from hundreds of thousands of individuals and consulting to scores of Fortune 500 clients author J D Pincus explains it this way Everyone has a unique fingerprint of emotional needs at any given moment in time Becoming aware of that motivational state is a profound revelation for most people It cuts right through the noise and distractions of life and frees them to pursue what they really want Bare Truths Nahna James, Nina

Dolidze, Lana Charles, Khalees Richard, Deichi Joseph, 2023-01-30 Historically nudism has been rooted in the very active struggles across Western societies for personal freedom and going back to one s natural state but there is something unique in this practice in the Caribbean region particularly in Saint Lucia This study examines the different dimensions of nudism as a practice in Saint Lucia and relates it to the historical context and culture of the island nation Given the context of Saint Lucia having the effects of colonialism African people and Christian beliefs nudism in this context is more than just a lifestyle it is a weaving of one s identity amidst social expectations of decency and traditional views on women s positions in the society However in a Western context nudism is often characterized as a movement of free and public self expression characterized with group living whereas in Saint Lucia it is rather subtle restrained. Aside from a few exceptions as pointed out in the publication The Nude Caribbean Exploring Nudist Culture in the Tropics people are not free to nude in the streets in St Lucia due to the law as well as the beliefs of the culture. The island nudists on the other hand need to contend with the new order in the form of the various customs and rules on the mainland which emphasize more ideal dressing up as published on the unused brochures on nudist tourism scooped out due to the culturalization. Also having explored such issues of academic concern as that of Naked Truths The 20 Labor and Politics of Nudism and Nudity and Identity in Caribbean Tourism this paper attempts to understand how the natives of St Lucia practicing nudism manage to construct their personas in a culture where such forms of expression lay on the borders. Saint Lucia has its legal and social prohibitions against nudism practices which reveal the battle between the right to self expression and abiding by the cultural expectations with the example of the need that nudists feel to abide by the strict norms of the island. The work of Eugene Marshall Tourism Identity and Nudism in St Lucia also emphasizes on this struggle particularly showing how nudism fits into the general picture of identity culture and tourism in Saint Lucia. On the other hand the research argues that positive and predominantly socioculturally sensitive nudism in Saint Lucia is not about defiance towards society per se. Rather it is about how respondents choose to define themselves which in turn is restrained by the conservative landscape of the given island. In this regard the present study also expands on the existing literature on liberal practices formation of self identity and definition of construct within society boldness and its correlation with nudism in complex societies.

Violence Assessment and Intervention James S. Cawood, Michael H. Corcoran, 2019-10-21 Violence Assessment and Intervention The Practitioner's Handbook now in its third edition provides a proven methodology grounded in the current empirical research and the authors experience in successfully assessing and managing thousands of cases in a variety of contexts and environments for analyzing concerning behaviors and potential threatening situations and taking action in these challenging dynamic environments before tragedy occurs. Threat and violence assessment and management is an essential process in reducing violence and its consequences. The ongoing challenge for those assessors particularly in common workplace environments e.g. educational settings public agency settings and business settings is applying the applicable behavioral science research in a practical and effective manner to maximize safety. The book begins by demonstrating the threat and violence assessment process from the point of the initial call and proceeds through the steps that quantify the situation and determine the appropriate response. The next section covers information gathering victimology and formulas and tools for risk assessment. Finally the book explores organizational influences school violence ethics security and consultation issues the formation and running of threat management teams and relevant laws related to violence assessment. This book is a valuable reference for human resource professionals security professionals mental health practitioners law enforcement personnel and lawyers who are members of threat assessment teams provide threat and violence assessment and management consultations as well as
