Encyclopedia of Optimization Christodoulos A. Floudas, Panos M. Pardalos, 2008-09-04 The goal of the Encyclopedia of Optimization is to introduce the reader to a complete set of topics that show the spectrum of research the richness of ideas and the breadth of applications that has come from this field The second edition builds on the success of the former edition with more than 150 completely new entries designed to ensure that the reference addresses recent areas where optimization theories and techniques have advanced Particularly heavy attention resulted in health science and transportation with entries such as Algorithms for Genomics Optimization and Radiotherapy Treatment Design and Crew Scheduling

Brouwer Degree George Dinca, Jean Mawhin, 2021-05-11 This monograph explores the concept of the Brouwer degree and its continuing impact on the development of important areas of nonlinear analysis The authors define the degree using an analytical approach proposed by Heinz in 1959 and further developed by Mawhin in 2004 linking it to the Kronecker index and employing the language of differential forms The chapters are organized so that they can be approached in various ways depending on the interests of the reader Unifying this structure is the central role the Brouwer degree plays in nonlinear analysis which is illustrated with existence surjectivity and fixed point theorems for nonlinear mappings Special attention is paid to the computation of the degree as well as to the wide array of applications such as linking differential and partial differential equations difference equations variational and hemivariational inequalities game theory and mechanics Each chapter features bibliographic and historical notes and the final chapter examines the full history Brouwer Degree will serve as an authoritative reference on the topic and will be of interest to professional mathematicians researchers and graduate students

USCO and Quasicontinuous Mappings L'ubica Holá,Dušan Holý,Warren Moors,2021-10-25 This book presents two natural generalizations of continuous mappings namely usco and quasicontinuous mappings The first class considers set valued mappings the second class relaxes the definition of continuity Both these topological concepts stem naturally from basic mathematical considerations and have numerous applications that are covered in detail

Game Theory and Applications Tatsuro Ichiishi,Abraham Neyman,Yair Tauman,1990-12-28 Game Theory and Applications outlines game theory and proves its validity by examining it alongside the neoclassical paradigm This book contends that the neoclassical theory is the exceptional case and that game theory may indeed be the rule The papers and abstracts collected here explore its recent development and suggest new research directions

A Further Generalization of the Kakutani Fixed Point Theorem, with Application to Nash Equilibrium Points I. L. Glicksberg,RAND CORP SANTA MONICA CALIF.,1951 Kakutani s Fixed Point Theorem states that in Euclidean n space a closed point to non void convex set map of a convex compact set into itself has a fixed point Kakutani showed that this implied the minimax theorem for finite games The object of this note is to point out that Kakutani s theorem may be extended to convex linear topological spaces and implies the minimax theorem for continuous games with continuous payoff as well as the existence of Nash equilibrium points
