The Daughters of Madurai Rajasree Variyar, 2023-02-28 The Daughters of Madurai is both a page turning mystery and a heartrending story of the fraught family dynamics and desperate choices that face a young mother in India Spanning 1990s South India and present day Australia the novel follows Janani a mother who will do anything to save her unborn daughter and Nila a young woman who embarks on a life changing journey of self discovery Madurai 1992 A young mother in a poor family Janani is told she is useless if she can't produce a son or worse if she bears daughters They let her keep her first baby girl but the rest are taken away as soon as they are born and murdered But Janani can't forget the daughters she was never allowed to love Sydney 2019 Nila has a secret one she's been keeping from her parents for too long Before she can say anything her grandfather in India falls ill so she agrees to join her parents on a trip to Madurai Nila knows little about where her family came from or who they left behind What she's about to learn will change her forever While The Daughters of Madurai explores the harrowing issue of female infanticide it's also a universal story about the bond between mothers and daughters the strength of women the power of love in overcoming all obstacles and the secrets we must keep to protect the ones we hold dear Fans of historical and contemporary fiction novels about India such as Alka Joshi's The Henna Artist from the Jaipur Trilogy and Thrity Umrigar's The Space Between Us as well as Kristin Hannah's books exploring sisterhood and mother daughter relationships will enjoy Variyar's poignant debut This extraordinary work of fiction tells a story that deserves to be read and discussed for years to come

If It's Monday It Must Be Madurai Srinath Perur, 2018-02-15 What is it like to travel with others for adventure lust and god This delightful travelogue in which Srinath Perur embarks upon ten conducted tours is full of rich experiences hanging on to a camel in the Thar Desert joining thousands on a pilgrimage in Maharashtra crossing living root bridges near Cherrapunji rediscovering music while on the trail of Kabir and a lot more As much about people as it is about places the book is also a reflection of the nature of popular travel today which is marked by the packaging of experiences the formation of tourist economies and compulsive picture taking How this influences tourists comes across vividly in their creation of a mini India on a bus as they race through treasured sights in Europe in their perfunctory devotion as they hop from temple to temple in Tamil Nadu and in their enjoying with sex workers far away from home Ironic and often comic If It's Monday It Must Be Madurai is an idiosyncratic portrait of India and her people

Women's Rights and Bioethics Dennerstein, Lorraine, 2001-12-31 Advances in the biomedical sciences have raised pertinent and often paradoxical questions concerning the relationship between women's health and their rights This book based on the Round Table on Bioethics and Women held at UNESCO during the Fourth Session of the International Bioethics Committee IBC presents the experience of field workers and actors in areas as diverse as health legal affairs governance education and psychology It takes into account both the various stages of the biological life span and the insertion of women in a particular socio economic and cultural context Although the book does not claim to be exhaustive it shows to what extent the specificity of issues related to women in relation to bioethical issues has sometimes been underestimated Based on numerous socio cultural experiences throughout the world it also provides a useful general view for readers who wish to pursue research or studies in this field UNESCO website The Times of India Directory and Year Book Including Who's who Sir Stanley Reed,1980 Issues for 1919 47 include Who's who in India 1948 Who's who in India and Pakistan Listen to the House Ratna Rao Shekar,2024-03-07 It is the countries the cities the streets the houses we have grown up in that define our lives How can we ever escape them We look at our life years later by the streets we have played in the houses we have lived in and the cities whose bylanes we crisscrossed We are that memory finally Listen to the House is the story of two girls who travel the world but are rooted in the houses they grew up in and anchored to each other by the long letters they exchange no matter where they are And this they do through their lives in whatever situations they are The novel evokes an old Hyderabad that no longer exists a slowness of life that has died and friendships that have all but disappeared Annual Report United Church Board for World Ministries,1982 Vols for 1970 include Calendar of prayer with directory of missionaries formerly called pt 3 Gods, Kings & Slaves Venketesh R.,2013-10-25 War is coming Peninsular India fourteenth century The Pandyan empire is at its peak its enemies subdued and its people at peace Having left behind his step brother Sundar in the race to the throne Crown Prince Veera Pandyan is set to rule from Madurai reputed to be the richest city in the subcontinent But invisible fractures within the kingdom threaten to destroy it and a new enemy approaches swifter than anyone can imagine In Delhi Sultan Alauddin Khilji's trusted general the eunuch Malik Kafur has trained his eyes on the distant south fabled for its riches A slave captured by the Khiljis Kafur is renowned for his ambition and cunning None not even the mighty Mongols have defeated him no empire can withstand the trail of destruction he leaves in his wake And all he wants is to see Madurai on its knees its wealth pillaged its temples destroyed As an ancient city combusts in flames of treachery bloodlust and revenge brother will battle brother ambition will triumph over love slaves will rise to rule cities will be razed to dust and the victor will be immortalized in history The Seven Year-Old Pilot Capt. Steven Archille,2012-03-23 Flying has been my dream since before I can remember literally My Aunt Odette tells me that when I was three years old she took me with her to the Port au Prince International Airport to pick someone up and when I saw an airliner up close for the first time I excitedly yelled out I want to drive that I don't recall that event but it serves as evidence that my fascination with flying began at a remarkably young age My first memory of wanting to fly came a few years later at the age of seven I was on my very first flight from Port au Prince to New York City where I was going to start a new life in a new country I remember looking at all the people boarding the airplane and wondering how that big silver bird was going to get us into the air that silver bird was an American Airlines Boeing 727 To this day the whole experience is vivid in my mind being greeted with a smile by the captain at the aircraft entry door the funny feeling in my stomach as the plane accelerated down the runway leaping into the air and my utter disbelief that we didn't drop out of the sky I was mesmerized by it all and by the time the plane came to a stop at our gate my dream had been born I wanted to become an airline pilot I have been blessed to be living that dream since 1999 It's a dream from which I hope never to awaken This is the story of the lifelong journey I have taken in realizing that dream I invite you to come along with me as we go from my birth in Haiti to the present day as I live my dream every day You will come with me as I move to America at the age of seven a country I knew nothing about and whose language I didn't speak a land that would truly prove to be the land of opportunity You will feel my sense of wonder and bewilderment growing up in New York City trying to understand my new world You will face my struggles to fit in with the kids in the housing project where my family lived for a decade as Mom and Dad saved money to buy a house You will meet my parents who encouraged my dream of flying and my fifth grade teacher who helped me to see that it was possible not only to dream it but also to achieve it It's a story of potential fulfilled and my family's sacrifices to get me through college and flight school You will fly with me from my first lesson to my first airline job as a copilot to the day I earned my four stripes and first heard someone call me Captain You will sit with me in the captain's seat as I fly an airline jet over Haiti for the first time looking down from thirty eight thousand feet onto the land of my birth where my dream had been born You will soar with me over the majestic Amazon jungle in Brazil over the desert flanked Nile River in Egypt and the sparkling Mediterranean Sea You will fly with me through New York City blizzards Indian monsoons and Arabian sandstorms You will travel with me on adventures to Europe South America the Middle East South Asia the Caribbean and other parts of the world I used to dream of going to as a child places that have affected me profoundly and where I left a little part of myself I have seen all these things through the eyes of the seven year old boy from Haiti that I was and in many ways still am the little boy who had a sense of just how incredible the world and life are who dreamt of a life of worldwide adventure and was blessed to have his dream come true That is the reason for the title of this book The Seven Year Old Pilot because even after years of flying around the world in many ways I still feel like that little boy and I always try to approach my travels and my life with his sense of gratitude amazement and awe I truly believe that every one of us has life experiences and lessons worth sharing that can inspire enlighten teach and benefit others because we have all lived

Deepa A Agarwal, 2021-04-08 Nidhi Verma finds herself having an extraordinary experience whilst she is on her death bed under unexpected circumstances As the doctors work furiously to identify the underlying causes that led to her sudden collapse her mind starts to take a walk down memory lane to find its own reasons With each increasing dosage of medication she slips deeper and deeper into the storehouse of her memories many of which she had kept carefully buried She desperately tries to shut them out but one unwanted scene continues to play after another She is forced to now watch the movie of her entire life only this time as a viewer and not the actor Each vision raises uncomfortable questions and reveals aspects of her personality that she had denied Forced to now confront issues related to her forgotten sexuality jealousy and the complicated relationships with her best friend Ziya and husband Kumar Nidhi begins to see herself in a new light As illusions start to fade she is keen to live a more authentic life and become a better version of herself while equally embracing her flaws and vulnerabilities knowing none of these define her The question remains Will she make it alive to life differently The Hangover of Choices is an engaging story which will surely make the readers ask If I was on my deathbed what would I see

The Grammar of Caste Ashwini Deshpande, 2011-08-03 Is the caste system disappearing Are traditional hierarchies being replaced by competing equalities Do globalization and liberalization automatically result in diminishing disparities Are modern labour markets intrinsically meritocratic and efficient Challenging the dominant discourse and demolishing various myths this book provides answers to these and other critical questions on caste in its contemporary avatar Linking the economics of caste with its politics sociology and history this innovative book provides a stimulating assessment of continuities and changes in caste disparities over the last two decades Deshpande uses rich empirical data to uncover how contemporary formal urban sector labour markets reflect a deep awareness of caste religious gender and class cleavages She convincingly argues that discrimination is neither a relic of the past nor is it confined to rural areas but is very much a modern formal sector phenomenon This insightful book is an important step towards a multidisciplinary dialogue for understanding and mitigating inequalities based on birth and descent Attendance ,2003 Spotted Goddesses Roja Singh,2018 Roja Singh s critical ethnography on caste and gender is rooted in interactions and lived experiences in communities of Dalit women in Tamil Nadu India Situated in transnational feminist discourses Singh s perspective as a Dalit woman provides an intersectional social analysis of power structures that sustain caste dominance in South India today She describes strategies of social change in Dalit women s activism as rooted in subversive applications of imposed identities of difference thwarting social boundaries and punishment traditions The core of this Interdisciplinary work is Dalit women s songs oral and written testimonial narratives including Singh s personal story
