Gunahon Ka Devta Dharamvir Bharati:

Chander and Sudha Dharamvir Bharati, 2016-06-08 In the idyllic university town young women daydreamed as they lay on the grass and gazed up at the clouds Young men took morning walks at Alfred Park Hot summer afternoons were for drinking sherbet and eating watermelons and evenings were meant for reading poetry It was also a time of stifling social mores and love was an unattainable ideal seldom realized Allahabad of the 1940s is the serene backdrop to the turbulence of Chander's love for his professor's daughter Sudha Driven by his passionate belief in the transcending purity of their love Chander persuades Sudha to marry another man to devastating consequences Unhinged by his separation from Sudha and consumed by a restless desire to make sense of love Is it really about sex Is the purity of love a lie Chander spirals into a destructive affair with the seductive Pammi Immensely popular since its publication more half a century ago Chander Sudha continues to seduce readers with its potent mix of tender passion and heartbreaking tragedy Transformative Fictions

Daniel Just, 2022-07-27 Transformative Fictions World Literature and Personal Change engages with current debates in world literature over the past twenty years addressing the nature of literary influence in centers and peripheries the formation of transnational literary and pedagogical canons and the role of translation and regionalism in how we relate to texts from around the globe The author Daniel Just argues for a supranational but sub global perspective of regions that emphasizes practical reasons for reading and focuses on the potential of literary texts to stimulate personal transformation in readers One of the recurring dilemmas in these debates is the issue of delimitation of world literature The trouble with the world as a frame of reference is that no single researcher is bound to have the in depth knowledge and linguistic skills to discuss works from all countries In response this book revives literary theory and recasts it for the purposes of world literature by making a case for the continuing relevance of literature in the age of new media With the examples of fictional and nonfictional writings by Milan Kundera Witold Gombrowicz and Bohumil Hrabal Just shows that regional literatures offer differing methods of activating readers and thereby prompting personal change This book would be of general interest to anyone who wants to explore personal change through literature but is particularly indispensable for literary professionals researchers and postgraduate and graduate students Gunahon Ka Devta Dharmveer Bharati, 2006-01-01 Unsuitable Boy Karan
