Habermas and the Unfinished Project of Modernity Maurizio Passerin d'Entrèves, Seyla Benhabib, 1997 Modernity versus postmodernity Jürgen Habermas The discourse of modernity Fred Dallmayr Deconstruction postmodernism and philosophy Christopher Norris Splitting the difference David C Hoy Habermas and Foucault James Schmidt Intersubjectivity and the monadic core of the psyche Joel Whitebook Two versions of the linguistic turn James Bohman Habermas and the question of alterity Diana Coole The causality of fate Jay M Bernstein The subject of justice in postmodern discourse David Ingram

Philosophical Interventions in the Unfinished Project of Enlightenment Axel Honneth, 1992 These 11 essays by noted philosophers and social theorists take up the philosophical aspects of Jürgen Habermas's unfinished project of reconstructing enlightenment rationality They range in subject matter from classical problems to contemporary debates covering historical perspectives theoretical issues and post enlightenment challenges A companion volume of essays will take up the cultural and political aspects of the work Together the two volumes underscore the richness and variety of Habermas's project Contributors Karl Otto Apel Richard J Bernstein Peter Bürger Martin Jay Thomas McCarthy Herbert Schnedelbach Charles Taylor Michael Theunissen Ernst Tugendhat Albrecht Wellmer On the Pragmatics of Communication Jürgen Habermas, 1998 This anthology brings together for the first time in revised or new translation ten essays that present the main concerns of Jürgen Habermas's program in formal pragmatics Jürgen Habermas's program in formal pragmatics fulfills two main functions First it serves as the theoretical underpinning for his theory of communicative action a crucial element in his theory of society Second it contributes to ongoing philosophical discussion of problems concerning meaning truth rationality and action By the pragmatic dimensions of language Habermas means those pertaining specifically to the employment of sentences in utterances He makes clear that formal is to be understood in a tolerant sense to refer to the rational reconstruction of general intuitions or competences Formal pragmatics then aims at a systematic reconstruction of the intuitive linguistic knowledge of competent subjects as it is used in everyday communicative practices His program may thus be distinguished from empirical pragmatics for example sociolinguistics which looks primarily at particular situations of use This anthology brings together for the first time in revised or new translation ten essays that present the main concerns of Habermas's program in formal pragmatics Its aim is to convey a sense of the overall purpose of his linguistic investigations while introducing the reader to their specific details in particular to his theories of meaning truth rationality and action

Communicative Action and Rational Choice Joseph Heath, 2003-01-24 In this book Joseph Heath brings Jürgen Habermas's theory of communicative action into dialogue with the most sophisticated articulation of the instrumental conception of practical rationality modern rational choice theory Heath begins with an overview of Habermas's action theory and his critique of decision and game theory He then offers an alternative to Habermas's use of speech act theory to explain social order and outlines a multidimensional theory of rational action that includes norm governed action as a specific type In the second part of the book Heath discusses the more philosophical dimension of Habermas s conception of practical rationality He criticizes Habermas s attempt to introduce a universalization principle governing moral discourse as well as his criteria for distinguishing between moral and ethical problems Heath offers an alternative account of the level of convergence exhibited by moral argumentation drawing on game theoretic models to specify the burden of proof that the theory of communicative action and discourse must assume

Cultural-Political Interventions in the Unfinished Project of Enlightenment Axel Honneth,1992 These thirteen essays by noted philosophers and social theorists continue a timely celebration and examination of J rgen Habermas s unfinished project of reconstructing enlightenment rationality Focusing on the cultural and political aspects of Habermas s work the essays take up critical theory and political practice the sociology of political practice historical philosophical reflections on culture moral development in childhood and society and the foundations of critical social theory Essays in a companion volume Philosophical Interventions in the Unfinished Project of Enlightenment look at the metaphysical aspects of Habermas s work Together the two volumes underscore the richness and variety of Habermas s project Contributors Johann P Amason Andrew Arato Seyla Benhabib Hauke Brunkhorst Cornelius Castoriadis Jean Cohen Helmut Dubiel Klaus Eder G nter Frankenberg Hans Georg Gadamer Axel Honneth Johann Baptist Metz Gertrud Nunner Winkler Claus Offe

Entanglements of Modernity, Colonialism and Genocide Jack Palmer,2018-05-08 This book offers a novel sociological examination of the historical trajectories of Burundi and Rwanda It challenges both the Eurocentric assumptions which have underpinned many sociological theorisations of modernity and the notion that the processes of modernisation move gradually if precariously towards more peaceable forms of cohabitation within and between societies Addressing these themes at critical historical junctures precolonial colonial and postcolonial the book argues that the recent experiences of extremely violent social conflict in Burundi and Rwanda cannot be seen as an object apart from the concerns of sociologists as it is commonly presented Instead these experiences are situated within a specific route to and through modernity one entangled with Western modernity A contribution to an emerging global historical sociology Entanglements of Modernity Colonialism and Genocide will appeal to scholars of sociology and social theory with interests in postcolonialism historical sociology multiple modernities and genocide

The Semblance of Subjectivity Tom Huhn,Lambert Zuidervart,1997 The essays are organized around the twin themes of semblance and subjectivity Whereas the concept of semblance or illusion points to Adorno s links with Marx Nietzsche and Freud the concept of subjectivity recalls his lifelong struggle with a philosophy of consciousness stemming from Kant Hegel and Lukacs

The Power of Dialogue Hans-Herbert Kögler,1999 Exemplifying a fruitful fusion of French and German approaches to social theory The Power of Dialogue transforms Jurgen Habermas s version of critical theory into a new critical hermeneutics that builds on both Hans Georg Gadamer s philosophical hermeneutics and Michel Foucault s studies of power and discourse

At the book's core is the question of how social power shapes and influences meaning and how the process of interpretation while implicated in social forms of power can nevertheless achieve reflective distance and a critique of power. It offers an original perspective on such issues as the impact of prejudice and cultural background on scientific interpretation, the need to understand others without assimilating their otherness and the truth of interpretation.

Postmetaphysical Thinking Jürgen Habermas, 1992. Considers the nature and future of philosophy in a post-metaphysical age. In the first part Habermas examines the legacy of Kant and assesses some recent attempts to return to metaphysical modes of thought. In the second part he develops and defends the concepts of communicative reason.

Hannah Arendt Larry May, Jerome Kohn, 1996. This collection of essays brings Arendt's work into dialogue with contemporary philosophical views.

On the Pragmatics of Social Interaction Jürgen Habermas, 2002. Habermas's 1971 Gauss Lectures plus two additional essays outlining an intersubjective approach to social theory.

The Sovereignty of Art Christoph Menke, 1998. In this book Christoph Menke attempts to explain art's sovereign power to subvert reason without falling into an error common to Adorno's negative dialectics and Derrida's deconstruction. Recent discussions of aesthetics, whether in the hermeneutic or the analytic tradition, understand the place of art and aesthetic experience according to a model of autonomy as just one among the many modes of experience that make up the realm of reason situated beside the other spheres of value. In contrast, Theodor Adorno and Jacques Derrida view art and aesthetic experience as a medium for the dissolution of nonaesthetic reason, an experientially enacted critique of reason. Art is not only autonomous, following its own law, different from nonaesthetic reason, but sovereign: it subverts the rule of reason. In this book Christoph Menke attempts to explain art's sovereign power to subvert reason without falling into an error common to Adorno's negative dialectics and Derrida's deconstruction. The error which already appeared in romanticism is to conceive of the sovereignty of art as reflecting the superiority of its knowledge. For art entails no knowledge and its negativity toward reason cannot be articulated as an insight into the nature of reason: art is sovereign not despite but because of its autonomy. Menke brings to his arguments a firm grounding in both philosophy and literary studies as well as familiarity with German, French, and American sources.

The Moral Self Gil G. Noam, Thomas E. Wren, 1993. This follow-up to The Moral Domain carries forward the exploration of new ways of modeling moral behavior. This follow-up to The Moral Domain carries forward the exploration of new ways of modeling moral behavior. Whereas the first volume emphasized the work of Lawrence Kohlberg and the tradition of cognitive development, The Moral Self presents a paradigm that also incorporates noncognitive structures of selfhood. The concerns of the sixteen essays include the diversity of moral outlooks, the dynamics of creating a moral self, cognitive and noncognitive prerequisites of the psychological development of autonomy and moral competence, and motivation and moral personality.

Contributors and Content: Part I: Conceptual Foundations. Harry Frankfurt, Amos Oksenberg, Rorty, Ernst Tugendhat, Ernest S. Wolf, Thomas Wren. Part II: Building a New Paradigm. Augusto Blasi, Anne Colby, William Damon, Helen Faste, Mordecai Nisan, Gil G. Noam, Larry Nucci.

John Lee Part III Empirical Investigation Monika Keller Wolfgang Edelstein Lothar Krappmann Leo Montada Gertrud Nunner Winkler Ervin Staub Perversion and Utopia Joel Whitebook, 1996-10-31 In this sweeping challenge to the postmodern critiques of psychoanalysis Joel Whitebook argues for a reintegration of Freud's uncompromising investigation of the unconscious with the political and philosophical insights of critical theory Perversion and Utopia follows in the tradition of Herbert Marcuse's Eros and Civilization and Paul Ricoeur's Freud and Philosophy It expands on these books however because of the author's remarkable grasp not only of psychoanalytic studies but also of the contemporary critical climate Whitebook a philosopher and a psychoanalyst writes with equal facility on both Habermas and Freud A central thesis of Perversion and Utopia is that there is an essential affinity between the utopian impulse and the perverse impulse in that both reflect a desire to bypass the reality principle that Freud claimed to define the human condition The book explores the positive and negative aspects of the relationship between these impulses which are ubiquitous features of human life and the requirements of civilized social existence Whitebook steers a course between orthodox psychoanalytic conservatism which seeks simply to repress the perverse utopian impulse in the name of social continuity and cohesion and those forms of Freudian Marxism postmodernism and psychoanalytic feminism that advocate its direct and full expression in the name of emancipation While he demonstrates the limitations of the current textual approaches to Freud especially those influenced by Lacan Whitebook also enlists the lessons of psychoanalysis to counteract the excessive rationalism of the Habermasian brand of critical theory thus making a substantial contribution to current discussions within critical theory itself His analysis and interpretation of perversion narcissism sublimation and ego bring new insight to these central and thorny issues in Freud and his discussions of Adorno Marcuse Castoriadis Habermas Ricoeur Lacan and others are equally penetrating

Varieties of Transition Claus Offe, 1997 The nine essays in this volume explore such topics as the characteristics and shortcomings of state socialist societies and of democratic capitalism the role of ethnic politics in East European transitions issues of retribution and restitution in the transition to a democratic society based on a private economy and the effects the collapse of Communism have had on Western democracies and on the Left in particular Audiovisual Posthumanism Evi D. Sampanikou, 2017-05-11 This volume deals with the challenges posthumanism meets as a successor to postmodernism in the field of artistic literary and aesthetic expression It also explores the ways social sciences and humanities are affected by posthumanism and it asks how posthumanism can be an expansion of humanism in the contemporary world rather than a transcendence of humanism The chapters authors come from different countries cultural backgrounds and study areas to present a varied perspective on posthumanism The Routledge Companion to Postmodernism Stuart Sim, 2012-05-23 This fully revised third edition of The Routledge Companion to Postmodernism provides the ideal introduction to postmodernist thought Featuring contributions from a cast of international scholars the Companion contains 19 detailed essays on major themes and topics along with an A Z of key terms and concepts As well as revised essays on philosophy
