Haunted Violet Sherwood,2021-11-15 The disturbing experience of psychological infanticide reflects the darkest aspect of the wounding of the Sacred Feminine the Death Mother archetype that annihilates rather than nurtures life Through myth story classic literature biography poems art and dreams Dr Violet Sherwood weaves together symbolic aspects of psychological infanticide with psychoanalytic theory of traumatic attachment and the literal truth of a centuries old history of infanticide She illuminates the Death Mother archetype in the dynamic between the unwilling or unsupported mother and the unwelcome child Her personal and archetypal journey into through and beyond the underworld offers hope and guidance for the restoration of the relationship between the Sacred Feminine and the Divine Child She draws on her professional experience as a psychotherapist and her lived experience of psychological infanticide as a result of closed stranger adoption to explore the intimate connection between life and death revealing the life task of the infanticided psyche is to embrace death and discover the life that lies beyond the realm of the underworld The Trail to Tincup Joyce Lynnette

Hocker,2025-07-30 In The Trail to Tincup Love Stories at Life's End a psychologist reckons with the loss of four family members within a span of two years Hocker works backward into the lives of these people and forward into the values perspective and qualities they bestowed before and after leaving Following the trail to their common gravesite in Tincup Colorado she remembers and recounts decisive stories and delves into artifacts journals and her own dreams In the process the grip of grief begins to lessen death braids its way into life and life informs the losses with abiding connections Gradually she begins to find herself capable of imagining life without her sister and best friend Toward the end of the book Hocker's own near death experience illuminates how familiarity with her individual mortality helps her live with joy confidence and openness A Life of Meaning James Hollis, Ph.D.,2023-07-25 A Masterful Author and Jungian Analyst Examines the Qualities That Bring Meaning to Our Human Journey What is it that brings meaning to your life Our culture tells us to seek wealth power prestige or even enrollment in someone else's idea of a worthy cause yet where do we turn when these paths fail to fulfill our need for purpose When the old stories and beliefs that once defined us have played out and grown exhausted teaches Dr James Hollis our task is to access our inner compass the promptings of the psyche that help us find our way through the complex thickets of choice A Life of Meaning is Hollis's profound exploration of the nature of meaning and how we can orient toward it or away from it with the choices we make Hollis offers an examination of myth literature historical figures and the wisdom of depth psychology that provides penetrating insight into the search for purpose Join him to explore How even cherished narratives splinter and lose potency over time Why dreams are windows into your internalized patterns and base assumptions How to excavate and understand your earliest most foundational beliefs The power of fear and how it shapes unconscious reactions Recognizing and rising to the occasion of a summons of the soul How to anchor yourself during times of uncertainty and change Why it's important to be aware of and closely examine your shadow How to reckon with old feelings of shame betrayal resentment and regret We all have to discover our own sense of meaning No one else can do it for us In A Life of Meaning Hollis offers no easy answers or feel good certainties instead he shares his most valuable questions and reflections to help you find the courage persistence and inspiration to navigate your own odyssey It's humbling work this process of getting our lives back he teaches Yet I submit to you that's worth the price of the ticket for in the journey our lives become ever more luminous Quiet Wisdom in Loud Times Kayta Curzie Gajdos,2014-04-20 In The Girl Who Played with

Fire the second story of the Larsson trilogy Lisbeth Salander the protagonist is shot by her father and buried by her half brother But at dawn her hand rises from the grave Stunning Here it is the rise of the wounded feminine despite patriarchy's destructive violence Quiet Wisdom in Loud Times considers her attempted murder by a brutal father and her resurrection despite it to be the resounding metaphor of our times we are in a global crisis of an old order of the patriarchy that wants to maintain the status quo of wealth and power Yet the feminine principle so wounded by the violence against it continues to rise up The wounded feminine principle refers to both women and men Women have come a long way since the 1960s but that really isn't the whole story In fact the story is not even about women only It is about men also It is about something in fact beyond both men and women and that is the rise of the wounded feminine soul energy that needs to be part and parcel of all of us Why now We are at a very important time where there are huge psychic upheavals happening Right now life is still in patriarchal dominator mode But this is not about gender Women can be daughters of a rigid patriarchal structure as much as men can be its sons Likewise men as well as women can carry the collaborative partnership model that attends to the feminine relational aspects of life Quiet Wisdom in Loud Times explores the rise of the wounded feminine principle as well as its burials in relation to the environment money politics and the media with particular attention to the Larsson trilogy By addressing the rise of the wounded feminine Quiet Wisdom in Loud Times can help us face courageously the powers that be while not collapsing into the indifference and apathy that define letting the patriarchy continue its violent way This book elucidates how in relationship to one another and to the earth the wounded feminine shall rise The Family Tree Karen Branan, 2016-01-05 The provocative true account of the hanging of four black people by a white lynch mob in 1912 written by the great granddaughter of the sheriff charged with protecting them Jungian Analysts Working Across Cultures Catherine Crowther, Jan Wiener, 2021-05-31 Jungian Analysts Working Across Cultures From Tradition to Innovation gives a fascinating account of the wide variety of experiences of Jungian analysts working in different cultures across the world They describe and reflect on experiences of both offering and receiving training within these cross cultural partnerships This is a book not only about training but is also an enlightening cultural commentary for our times The powerful bi-directionality of cultural influence and discovery is apparent in different ways in every chapter prompting a re-appraisal of concepts essential to the core values of Jungian practice which show an outdated adherence to culture bound attitudes The publication of this book is a timely reminder that when Jungian analysis as we know it is floundering in some Western countries new projects in countries seeking to develop an analytic culture give hope for sustaining our professional practice The Art of Decision Making Joseph Bikart, 2019-07-09 Drawing insights from philosophy psychology literature and theology a longtime executive business coach explores how and why we make the decisions we do What is it that makes some of us better or worse than others at committing to a choice What are the forces that hold us back and how can we successfully overcome them Every facet of our lives depends on the decisions we make Yet how often do we pause to reflect on our ability to make the best and smartest choices The key is how we confront and refine the decision making process Here Joseph Bikart explores the intricacies of decision making challenging us to understand why we make the choices we do He explores how the true power of decisions especially the toughest among them help us to face our fears and may in turn change how we think about ourselves Breaking his study into four clear parts and short practical essays Bikart presents a lively and compelling exploration of the process of decision making He covers Indecision Indecision What makes us indecisive What holds us back and why Where Art Thou How and where we get stuck and the importance of relaxing one's grip The Momentum of Decisiveness Keeping our focus and proactivity The Deciding Mind Making our smartest choices Drawing from such different fields as philosophy psychology neurology literature art history and theology The Art of Decision Making takes us on a journey from the depths of procrastination to the elation of decision making Presenting a fresh perspective on what to do at the proverbial fork in the road Bikart's unique philosophy is insightful thought provoking and potentially life changing
