an unforgettable trip throughout Afghanistan in Nowroz 1978 only three weeks before the bloody communist coup d tat the author uses places along the way to describe how foreign conquerors nationalist policies a variety of ethnicities and religions and the Silk Route combined to mold present day Afghanistan Such places provided the stage for the famous battles of ancient and modern times as they provided the different livelihoods of the afghan population that still lives mostly from agriculture and livestock production Gripping accounts on the political and security transitions since 9 11 have not been matched by similar ones on the economic and social ones which is the purpose of this book Based on what she saw in a more recent visit in 2011 the author explains to a general audience how misguided economic policies misplaced priorities and wasteful aid have led Afghanistan to an infamous record the country not only relapsed into conflict but became the most aid dependent country in the world Muddling through as in the past is no longer an option as NATO troops withdraw and aid falls sharply The author makes a proposal to help the country to move away from the vicious circle of insecurity aid drug and food dependency to a virtuous one of genuine investment rural development employment opportunities and improved livelihoods The cost of the Afghan war in terms of human lives and taxpayers money has been outrageous and taxpayers should demand a debate among all stakeholders on how to move forward Pathans ,1918 Afghanistan at War Tom

Entezar,2008-01-04 Afghanistan 101 is an introduction to Afghan culture More specifically this dimensional analysis discusses Power Distance PD Uncertainty Avoidance UA Individualism IND and Masculinity MAS in the Afghan national culture These dimensions are based on the work of the well known Dutch anthropologist Geert Hofstede The manifestations of these cultural dimensions explain the attitudes and actions of Afghans Each chapter on dimensions also includes a section where the implications of a particular dimension are pointed out to the Westerner working in Afghanistan Power Distance the first dimension of culture describes the relationship between a less powerful person and a more powerful one As Afghanistan is on the high side of PD social power is coercive in Afghanistan One comes to power by force and is ousted by force wealth and power are inseparable decision making is autocratic and consultative expert power does not carry much weight age and charisma are important and in Afghanistan it is the authority of the person rather than the authority of position or rule that counts most Uncertainty avoidance the second dimension involves dealing with fear and ambiguity fear of nature fear of other men and fear of the supernatural UA is negatively related to PD A high PD society is on the low side of UA Cultures use three methods to deal with fear and ambiguity law technology and religion Being on the low side of UA Afghans rely heavily on Islam to reduce fear and uncertainty because they cannot rely on technology or the rule of law The fundamental religious beliefs that help Afghans cope with fear and uncertainty are 1 life in this world temporary 2 the source of both good and evil is God and 3 God is just and will punish the oppressors and evil doers in this world and in the next Individualism versus collectivism the third dimension of culture relates to the relationship of an individual to a collectivity In nonindividualistic societies such as Afghanistan one's loyalty and devotion is first and foremost to the family ethnic or other collectivity rather than to the country as a whole Such loyalties are characteristic of nonnation states and are best explained as Afghan nationalism that is based on ethnicity sect region and ideology Afghanistan is not and has never been a nation state In a nation state people rally around the constitution the flag the national anthem and other such symbols instead of their ethnicity sect region ideology and so on Furthermore a nation state is based on the rule of law checks and balances human rights freedom of the press political parties free and fair elections accountability and transparency The concept of a nation state is a Western phenomenon although the roots of a nation state are deep in some Islamic countries shallow in others and nonexistent in others Turkey the first Islamic country to have become a nation state falls into the first category whereas Afghanistan into the last For Afghanistan to move in the direction of becoming a nation state some type of federalism may be the only way to prevent further ethnic conflict and another civil war Masculinity the fourth dimension of culture describes the degree to which there is a gender gap within a culture Afghanistan is on the high side of MAS As such sex roles are set in the family and are reinforced in the schools workplace and other social organizations In general males are taught to be assertive and females nurturing In Afghan society male assertiveness generally involves aggressiveness bravery endurance leadership power dominance and independence Female nurturance on the other hand is characterized by submissiveness patience
