Holy Places in the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict Marshall J. Breger, Yitzhak Reiter, Leonard Hammer, 2009-12-16 This book addresses the major generators of conflict and toleration at shared holy places in Palestine and Israel Examining the religious political and legal issues the authors show how the holy sites have been a focus of both conflict and cooperation between different communities Bringing together the views of a diverse group of experts on the region Holy Places in the Israeli Palestinian Conflict provides a new and multifaceted approach to holy places giving an in depth analysis of relevant issues Themes covered include legal regulation of holy places nationalization and reproduction of holy space sharing and contesting holy places identity politics and popular legends of holy sites Chapters cover in detail how recognition and authorization of a new site come about the influence of religious belief versus political ideology on the designation of holy places the centrality of such areas to the surrounding political developments and how historical background and culture affect the perception of a holy site and relations between conflicting groups This new approach to the study of holy places and the Israeli Palestinian conflict has great significance for a variety of disciplines and will be of great interest in the fields of law politics religious studies anthropology and sociology

Contested Holy Places in Israel-Palestine Yitzhak Reiter, 2017-04-07 Religious leaders and political actors often use holy places to rally citizens to protect or liberate national territory as hallowed land The Holy Land Palestine or Eretz Israel is the most obvious case of the process of religionizing ethnic national and territorial conflicts This book analyzes fourteen case studies of conflicts over holy sites in the Holy Land each representing a particular archetype of conflict It seeks to understand the many facets of disputes and the triggers for the outbreak of violence in and around such sites It also analyses the effectiveness of the conflict mitigation and resolution tools used for dealing with such disputes

The Politics of Sacred Places Nimrod Luz, 2023-09-07 The Politics of Sacred Places is a study of the socio political dimensions of sacred sites in Israel Palestine drawing on over 20 years of in depth ethnographic research which introduces cutting edge theories on secularization struggles for recognition and diversity issues This book focuses on contemporary sacred sites and their socio political meanings for minorities within a hegemonic and a secularizing state system It argues that sacred places provide a space that is less scrutinized by the state and where alternative visions of the socio political may be produced A plethora of sites and case studies are examined including the rural shrine of Maqam abu al Hijja in the lower Galilee the Mosque of Hassan Bek in the heart of Tel Aviv Jaffa and the most disputed sacred place in the region the Haram al Sharif in Jerusalem These sites are explored through mostly a phenomenological lens and in various contexts from the individual body to the global This book offers a critical analytical study of the socio political aspects of sacred sites in contemporary societies within the broader understanding of scale and the spatial turn in the study of religion

Voices of the Ritual Nurit Stadler, 2020-05-15 Voices of the Ritual analyzes the revival of rituals performed at female saint shrines in the Middle East In the midst of turbulent political contention over land and borders Nurit Stadler shows religious minorities lay claim to space through rituals enacted at sacred spaces in the Holy Land Using ethnographic analysis Stadler explores the rise of these rituals their focus on the body female materiality and their place in the Israeli Palestinian landscape Stadler examines the varied features of the practice and implications of the rituals looking at themes of femininity and material experience She considers the role of the body in rituals that represent the act of birth or the circle of life and that aim to foster an intimate connection between the female saint and her worshippers Stadler underscores the political cultural and spatial elements of this practice bringing attention to how religious minorities Jews Christians Muslims and Druze among others have utilized these rituals to assert their right to the land Voices of the Ritual offers a valuable assessment of religious ritual practice that encrypts female themes into a landscape that has historically been defined by war and conflict Jews, Christians, Muslims John Corrigan, Frederick Denny, Martin S Jaffee, Carlos Eire, 2016-01-08 Thematic examination of monotheistic religions The second edition of Jews Christians Muslims A Comparative Introduction to Monotheistic Religions compares Judaism Christianity and Islam using seven common themes which are equally relevant to each tradition Provoking critical thinking this text addresses the cultural framework of religious meanings and explores the similarities and differences among Judaism Christianity and Islam as it explains the ongoing process of interpretation in each religion The book is designed for courses in Western and World Religions The Caucasian Archaeology of the Holy Land Yana Tchekhanovets, 2018-05-07 The Caucasian Archaeology of the Holy Land investigates the complete corpus of available literary epigraphic and archaeological evidence of the Armenian Georgian and Caucasian Albanian Christian communities activity in the Holy Land during the Byzantine and the Early Islamic periods This book presents the first integrated approach to a wide variety of literary sources and archaeological evidence previously unpublished or revised The study explores the place of each of these Caucasian communities in ancient Palestine through a synthesis of literary and material evidence and seeks to understand the interrelations between them and the influence they had on the national churches of the Caucasus Holy Places of Jerusalem in Middle East Peace Agreements Enrico Molinaro, 2009-12-01 Throughout history Jerusalem and its Holy Places have witnessed fierce religious controversy and political dispute This study analyses an international and diplomatic perspective which highlights the state national territorial versus global transnational approach to Jerusalem with respect to possession and the right to worship The Contest and Control of Jerusalem's Holy Sites Marshall J. Breger, Leonard M. Hammer, 2023-08-17 The Holy Places of Jerusalem s Old City are among the most contested sites in the world and the ground zero of the Israeli Palestinian conflict Tensions regarding control are rooted in misperceptions over the status of the sites the role of external bodies such as religious organizations and civil society and misunderstanding regarding the political roles of the many actors associated with the sites In this volume Marshall J Breger and Leonard M Hammer clarify a complex and fraught situation by providing insight into the laws and rules pertaining to Jerusalem s holy sites Providing a compendium of important legal sources and broad form policy analysis they show how laws pertaining to Holy Places have been implemented and engaged The book weaves aspects of history politics and religion that have played a role in creation and identification of the law It also offers solutions for solving some of the central challenges related to the creation control and use of Holy Places in Jerusalem

The Struggle for Jerusalem's Holy Places Wendy Pullan, Maximilian Sternberg, Lefkos Kyriacou, Craig Larkin, Michael Dumper, 2013-11-20 The Struggle for Jerusalem's Holy Places investigates the role of architecture and urban identity in relation to the political economy of the city and its wider state context seen through the lens of the holy places Reflecting the broad disciplinary backgrounds of the authors this book provides perspectives from architecture urbanism and politics and provides in depth investigations of historical ethnographic and policy related case studies The research is substantiated by fieldwork carried out in Jerusalem over the past ten years as part of the ESRC Large Grants project Conflict in Cities By analysing new dynamics of radicalisation through land seizure the politicisation of parklands and tourism the strategic manipulation of archaeological and historical narratives and material culture and through examination of general appropriation of Jerusalem's varied rituals memories and symbolism for factional uses the book reveals how possibilities of co existence are seriously threatened in Jerusalem Shedding new light on the key role played by everyday urban life and its spatial settings for any future political agreements about the city and its religious sites this book is a useful reference work for students and scholars of Middle East Studies Architecture Religion and Urban Studies

Daily Life in the Medieval Islamic World James E. Lindsay, 2005-06-30 From the time of its birth in Mecca in the 7th century C E Islam and the Islamic world rapidly expanded outward extending to Spain and West Africa in the west and to Central Asia and the Indian Subcontinent in the east An examination of the daily life in these Islamic regions provides insight into a civilized powerful and economically stable culture where large metropolitan centers such as Damascus Baghdad and Cairo thrived in many areas including intellectual and scientific inquiry In contrast with medieval Europe there is little common knowledge in the West of the culture and history of this vibrant world as different from our own in terms of the political religious and social values it possessed as it is similar in terms of the underlying human situation that supports such values This book provides an intimate look into the daily life of the medieval Islamic world and is thus an invaluable resource for students and general readers alike interested in understanding this world so different and yet so connected to our own Chapters include discussions of the major themes of medieval Islamic history Arabia the world of Islamic origins warfare and politics the major cities of Damascus Baghdad and Cairo religious rituals and worship and a section on curious and entertaining information

Author James E Lindsay further provides a focused look at the daily lives of urban Muslims during this time period and of their interactions with Jews Christians and other Muslims Timelines tables including a calendar conversion to align the Islamic lunar and the Christian solar dates and a dynastic table highlighting the major genealogies of the ancient ruling families a bibliography and a glossary of important dates and technical terms are also provided to assist the reader

Christianity & Christians in the Jewish State Amnon Ramon, The establishment of the State of Israel presented the Christian churches and the Christian World with a complex theological dilemma in light of the traditional Christian belief that the Jews had been condemned to permanent exile and humiliation However the Historical and religious resentments were not confined to the Christian side The leaders of the State of Israel as representatives of the Jewish people who for centuries had lived as a minority at the mercy of Christian and Muslim rulers found themselves in the role of an emperor responsible for attending to the affairs of the local Christian communities the holy places and the extensive church properties This inversion of the historical relationship and the complex and delicate relations between the Christian world and the State of Israel form the central theme of this book Dr Ramon has produced a rich and suggestive account His achievement synthesizing history current affairs and public policy throws down a challenge to scholars outside Israel working on Christian Jewish relations Raymond Cohen Emeritus Professor Hebrew University of Jerusalem The book is a treasury of information and an important tool in order to understand the delicate and complex relations between the authorities in Israel and the Christian communities It constitutes yet another brick in the attempt to build good relations between Jews and Christians in our country David Neuhaus SJ Superior of Holy Land Jesuits Former Patriarchal Vicar of Hebrew speaking Catholics in Israel
