This book will show you how with an effective and consistent framework to help galvanize decision makers around leadership potential. Time and time again organizations place too many leaders in roles they are not a good fit for. The financial, strategic, and human costs of poor leadership are staggering and unnecessary. But organizations that effectively identify high potential talent are likely to financially outperform those that do not do this work by a factor of 4 to 1, not to mention all the other positive impacts. Backed by the authors' research including a study with 50 global CEOs, the insights and strategies packed into this book will help you eliminate the shocking variation that exists in how people think about determining leadership potential and empower decision makers to be game changers to optimize their organizations.
