Enjoy nine of Fulton J Sheen's most treasured books on the Seven Last Words brought together into one special collection. During the 1930s and 40s, Fulton Sheen was the featured speaker on The Catholic Hour radio broadcast, and millions of listeners heard his radio addresses each week. His topics ranged from politics and the economy to philosophy and man's eternal pursuit of happiness. Possessing a burning zeal to dispel the myths about Our Lord and His Church, Sheen gave a series of powerful presentations on Christ's Passion and His seven last words from the Cross. As a Scripture scholar, Archbishop Sheen knew full well the power contained in preaching Christ crucified. With St. Paul, he could say, "For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified." (1 Cor 2:2). During his last recorded Good Friday address in 1979, Archbishop Sheen spoke of having given this type of reflection on the subject of Christ's seven last words from the cross for the fifty-eighth consecutive time. Whether from the young priest in Peoria, Illinois, the university professor in Washington, D.C., or the bishop in New York, Sheen's messages were sure to make an indelible mark on his listeners. Given their importance and the impact they had on society, it seemed appropriate to bring together in this anthology some of Archbishop Sheen's meditations on the Seven Last Words. Our Blessed Lord spoke from the Cross on Calvary. The meditations contained in this book are taken from several books and articles written by Sheen between 1933 and 1945: The Seven Last Words (New York: Century, 1933), The Seven Last Words and Our Father (Huntington, Indiana: Our Sunday Visitor, 1935), Calvary and the Mass (New York: P.J. Kenedy and Sons, 1936), The Cross and the Beatitudes (P.J. Kenedy and Sons, 1937), The Rainbow of Sorrow (P.J. Kenedy and Sons, 1938), Victory over Vice (P.J. Kenedy and Sons, 1939), The Seven Virtues (P.J. Kenedy and Sons, 1940), Seven Words to the Cross (P.J. Kenedy and Sons, 1944), Seven Words of Jesus and Mary (P.J. Kenedy and Sons, 1945). These meditations have been selected to provide nine unique reflections for study and meditation on the Seven Last Words: First Meditation: A reflection on the words spoken by Christ from the Cross; Second Meditation: A reflection on a passage from the Lord's Prayer; Third Meditation: A reflection on a part of the Mass; Fourth Meditation: A reflection on one of the Beatitudes; Fifth Meditation: A reflection about sorrow and suffering; Sixth Meditation: A reflection addressing one of the seven deadly sins; Seventh Meditation: A reflection on the virtues; Eighth Meditation: A reflection on dealing with individuals who reject the Church and Christ's teachings; Ninth Meditation: A reflection on the unity of Jesus and Mary. As the reader ponders these reflections, they might have to pause for a moment or two over a sentence that is full of deep meaning that stirs the heart. He might also find that Archbishop Sheen has repeated certain lines throughout these reflections to drive home a point or an important theme, as any good teacher would do. Archbishop Sheen's dynamic personality, combined with his brilliant mind, tireless pen, and eloquent voice, has made him one of the best-known figures in the world. His radio and television appearances have been phenomenally successful and are still viewed today. His books and magazine articles continue to gratify and attract a boundless circle of readers. This collection of meditations gives still another example of why this continues to be so today The Seven Last Words Explained Fulton J. Archbishop Sheen knew full well the power contained in preaching Christ crucified With St Paul he could say For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified 1 Cor 2 2 Given their importance and the impact they had on society it seemed appropriate to reintroduce these reflections once again on the rainbow of sorrow The Cries of Jesus from the Cross Fulton John Sheen, Archbishop Fulton Sheen, 2018 For the first time ever Archbishop Fulton Sheen's complete writings and reflections on Christ's last words have been compiled into this one book Victory Over Vice Fulton J. Sheen, 2022-04-13 Victory Over Vice 1939 is one of several books by Archbishop Fulton J Sheen exploring the Seven Last Words of Christ during His Crucifixion In this short work Archbishop Sheen considers each of the final utterances of Christ from the perspective of one of the capital sins He demonstrates how each phrase proves the purity of Jesus Christ and he uses each as an instruction on how we too can overcome these mortal vices Archbishop Fulton J Sheen 1895 1979 was a well known priest and media personality throughout the mid 20th century First ordained in 1919 he began his priesthood in the Diocese of Peoria Always seeking greater theological and philosophical understanding he continued his education at the Catholic University of America the Catholic University of Leuven in Belgium and the Pontificium Collegium Internationale Angelicum in Rome In 1930 Archbishop Sheen became a weekly contributor to the popular radio show The Catholic Hour a position he held for 20 years In the 1950s he expanded his media appearances to include Life is Worth Living a successful Catholic television program This show earned him an Emmy for Most Outstanding Television Personality in 1953 While sharing his wisdom on television and radio he also taught at the Catholic University of America and wrote dozens of books and essays on matters of scripture faith and spirituality In several works Archbishop Sheen returned to the topic of Christ's Seven Last Words in his writing including in Victory Over Vice In this work Archbishop Sheen uses the Seven Last Words as a guide through the perils of the seven deadly sins Each of these sins led to the crucifixion But we were also given a guide to overcoming them during the life and death of Jesus Christ By understanding them we can guard against them and use His example to guide our own lives Archbishop Sheen is careful to define each of these sins and to explain when they cross from an acceptable behavior or trait into a dangerous failing Envy for example can be justified and even helpful when it inspires us to emulate good example and to progress with those who are our betters But it becomes a sin when it is a wilful grieving at another's good either spiritual or temporal for the reason that it seems to diminish our own good Throughout each of the Seven Words Christ shows us how we should behave when faced with sin in ourselves or in others When he is faced with the anger of the masses he begs Father forgive them for they know not what they do When faced with the thief to the left who envies His Power he instead turns to the thief on the right and pronounces that This day thou shalt be with me in paradise When faced with the pride of those who have turned from God He permits Himself to feel God lessness and it broke His heart in the saddest of all cries My God my God why hast thou forsaken me Faced with anger envy lust pride gluttony sloth and covetousness leading up to and throughout His death Christ shows us how to respond to each in others and in ourselves It is a simple matter to preach what we should do to avoid sin But to see how Christ responded when faced with it and avoided it in His own purity is a true gift The study of Christ s final words is an important area of meditation for the faithful They prove the consistency of His teachings From the Sermon on the Mount to His actions through His life to these last phrases we see how He traversed the trials of life And we find a blueprint to avoid sin and cleanse our own souls The Lord's Prayer and The Seven Last Words Fulton J Sheen,2023-11-22 THE LORD S PRAYER AND THE SEVEN LAST WORDS During the 1930s and 40s Fulton Sheen was the featured speaker on The Catholic Hour radio broadcast and millions of listeners heard his radio addresses each week His topics ranged from politics and the economy to philosophy and man s eternal pursuit of happiness Possessing a burning zeal to dispel the myths about Our Lord and His Church Sheen gave a series of powerful presentations on Christ s Passion and His seven last words from the Cross As a Scripture scholar Archbishop Sheen knew full well the power contained in preaching Christ crucified With St Paul he could say For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified 1 Cor 2 2 During his last recorded Good Friday address in 1979 Archbishop Sheen spoke of having given this type of reflection on the subject of Christ s seven last words from the Cross for the fifty eighth consecutive time Whether from the young priest in Peoria Illinois the university professor in Washington D C or the bishop in New York Sheen s messages were sure to make an indelible mark on his listeners Given their importance and the impact they had on society it seemed appropriate to reintroduce a number of these reflections from 1933 and 1935 on the Seven Last Words and The Lord s Prayer Fulton Sheen wrote Our Lord is the only King who ever stumbled to His throne But that was because He is God and God reveals His Power through the weakness of a crucifixion and His Wisdom through the foolishness of a cross What message will the King deliver from His unkingly throne Last words are always important but particularly the last words of Him Who gave His Life for the redemption of many It will be recalled that one day the Apostles approached Him saying Lord teach us to pray He answered their request by giving them the perfect prayer the Our Father Now the time comes for Him to say His own Our Father As there were seven petitions in the Our Father He taught us so there are seven petitions in His own last prayer They are known as the Seven Last Words We shall meditate conjointly on our Our Father and His Our Father Our Father Who art in heaven Father forgive them for they know not what they do Hallowed be Thy Name Amen I say to thee this day thou shalt be with me in paradise Thy Kingdom Come Woman behold thy son Thy Will be done on earth as it is in heaven My God My God why hast thou forsaken me Give us this day our daily bread I thirst Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us It is consummated Deliver us from all evil Amen Father into thy hands I commend my spirit The Lord s Prayer and the Seven Last Words have been referred to as Two Bridges Connecting Heaven and Earth In the pages that will follow Archbishop Sheen will help us to understand this in a more deep and meaningful way

The Seven Last Words, by Fulton J. Sheen Fulton John Sheen, The Wedding Present Margaret Long, Viscountess Margaret Long, 1999 Life of Christ Fulton J. Sheen, 1977-08-16 Widely proclaimed a classic work of Christian faith Life of Christ has been hailed as the most eloquent of Fulton J Sheen's many books. The fruit of many years of reflection, prayer and research, it is a dramatic and moving recounting of the birth, life, Crucifixion and Resurrection of Christ and a passionate portrait of the God-Man, the teacher, the healer and most of all, the Savior whose promise has sustained humanity for two millennia. With his customary insight and reverence, Sheen interprets the Scripture and describes Christ not only in historical perspective but also in exciting and contemporary terms, seeing in Christ's life both modern parallels and timeless lessons. His thoughtful, probing analysis provides new insight into well-known Gospel events. An appealing blend of philosophy, history and biblical exegesis from the best-known and most-loved American Catholic leader of the twentieth century, Life of Christ has long been a source of inspiration and guidance. For those seeking to better understand the message of Jesus Christ, this vivid retelling of the greatest story ever lived is a must-read.

The Vicious Circle Margaret Case Harriman, 2018-09-03 In June 1919 the Algonquin Hotel became the site of the daily meetings of the Algonquin Round Table, a group of journalists, authors, publicists and actors who gathered to exchange bon mots over lunch in the main dining room. The group met almost daily for the better part of ten years. Some of the core members of the Vicious Circle included Franklin P. Adams, Robert Benchley, Heywood Brown, Marc Connelly, Jane Grant, Ruth Hale, George S. Kaufman, Harpo Marx, Neysa McMein, Dorothy Parker, Harold Ross, Robert E. Sherwood and Alexander Woollcott. George S. Kaufman, Heywood Brown and Edna Ferber, who influenced writers like F. Scott Fitzgerald and Ernest Hemingway, were also a part of the August assembly and as founders of The New Yorker magazine, all hotel guests receive free copies to this day. Frank Case, owner of the Algonquin Hotel from 1907 until his death in 1946, ensured a daily luncheon for the talented group of young writers by treating them to free celery and popovers and they were provided with their own table and waiter. All members were affiliated with the Algonquin Round Table, although they referred to themselves as the Vicious Circle. In this memoir, first published in 1951, Frank Case's daughter, Margaret Case Harriman, recounts the diverting history of what was an innocent lunch group at her father's hotel and illustrates how it grew to become an important factor in literature, the theatre and American wit and humor. A lively, chatty, entertaining work touched with nostalgia, Chicago Sunday Tribune Mrs. Harriman brings vividly to mind and to memory some of the most vivid people who ever sat around a table. She writes with enthusiasm and charm. New York Herald Tribune Book Review Phenomenal. Congrats as Connolly says from the Bunch. Franklin P. Adams: A lovingly observed and brilliantly written chronicle of an era that didn't know it was one. Deems Taylor, Books on Trial, 1955.
