the Sea and Other Stories Alberto Moravia,1978 Alberto Moravia Alberto Moravia,1983 Contempt Alberto Moravia,2011-07-20 Contempt is a brilliant and unsettling work by one of the revolutionary masters of modern European literature All the qualities for which Alberto Moravia is justly famous his cool clarity of expression his exacting attention to psychological complexity and social pretension his still striking openness about sex are evident in this story of a failing marriage Contempt which was to inspire Jean Luc Godard s no less celebrated film is an unflinching examination of desperation and self deception in the emotional vacuum of modern consumer society Alberto Moravia Jane E.

Cottrell,1974 Conjugal Love Alberto Moravia,2007-01-17 To begin with I d like to talk about my wife To love means in addition to many other things to delight in gazing upon and observing the beloved From Conjugal Love When Silvio a rich Italian dilettante and his beautiful wife agree to move to the country and forgo sex so that he will have the energy to write a successful novel something is bound to go wrong Silvio s literary ambitions are far too big for his second rate talent and his wife Leda is a passionate woman This dangerously combustible situation is set off when Leda accuses Antonio the local barber who comes every morning to shave Silvio of trying to molest her Silvio obstinately refuses to dismiss him and the quarrel and its shattering consequences put the couple s love to the test Later Editions and Reissues of Novels by

Alberto Moravia, Not Catalogued Separately. Alberto Moravia,1968 The Time of Indifference Alberto Moravia,1953 Set in Rome The Time of Indifference tells a deceptively simple story Five characters are cast loose on the sea of modern life obsessed with what they want what they feel they are owed the wrongs that have been done them their loneliness The intrigues of these family members and lovers serve to expose the hollow core of bourgeois society in the early twentieth century and what Moravia destroys forever in this pitiless novel is the illusion that a world of ever growing material comfort can ever feed the human soul Life of Moravia Alberto Moravia,Alain Elkann,2000 Moravia the prolific writer and translator whose long career spanned periods of radical change in his native Rome as in Italy was a great observer of daily life Italian newspapers frequently asked him for articles on every subject making him a public voice This volume takes the form of a year of interviews conducted with the author Elkann during 1989 1990 the last year of Moravia s life Of interest to students of Italian literature and history and anyone who enjoys reading about writers this volume provides a personal view of politics in Italy as a boy Moravia watched Mussolini s troops enter Rome the writers from many countries whom he knew

A Ghost at Noon Alberto Moravia,1961 Boredom Alberto Moravia,2004-07-31 The novels that the great Italian writer Alberto Moravia wrote in the years following the World War II represent an extraordinary survey of the range of human behavior in a fragmented modern society Boredom the story of a failed artist and pampered son of a rich family who becomes dangerously attached to a young model examines the complex relations between money sex and imperiled masculinity This powerful and disturbing study in the pathology of modern life is one of the masterworks of a writer whom as Anthony Burgess once remarked was always trying to get to the bottom of the human imbroglio The Conformist Alberto Moravia,2011-09-27 Secrecy and Silence are second nature to Marcello Clerici the hero of The Conformist a book which made Alberto Moravia one of the world's most read postwar writers Clerici is a man with everything under control a wife who loves him colleagues who respect him the hidden power that comes with his secret work for the Italian political police during the Mussolini years But then he is assigned to kill his former professor now in exile to demonstrate his loyalty to the Fascist state and falls in love with a strange compelling woman his life is torn open and with it the corrupt heart of Fascism Moravia equates the rise of Italian Fascism with the psychological needs of his protagonist for whom conformity becomes an obsession in a life that has included parental neglect an oddly self conscious desire to engage in cruel acts and a type of male beauty which to Clerici's great distress other men find attractive The Empty Canvas Alberto Moravia,1961 Mediocre artist Dino is obsessed with young model Cecilia and distraught that she shares her sexual favors with him as well as with actor Luciani In an effort to derail her plan to vacation in Capri with his rival Dino proposes marriage and when Cecilia rejects his offer he invites her to join him at the Rome estate of his domineering mother a wealthy American so that he can seduce her with his glamorous lifestyle Despairing that he will never have a monogamous relationship with her Dino crashes his sportscar into a wall While recovering in the hospital he realizes that his feelings will never be reciprocated When Cecilia returns from her trip assuming their liaison will continue Dino announces that the affair is over Bitter Honeymoon, and Other Stories [by] Alberto Moravia [pseud.]. Alberto Moravia,1961 The Woman of Rome Alberto Moravia,2011-09-27 The glitter and cynicism of Rome under Mussolini provide the background of what is probably Alberto Moravia's best and best known novel The Woman of Rome It's the story of Adriana a simple girl with no fortune but her beauty who models naked for a painter accepts gifts from men and could never quite identify the moment when she traded her private dream of home and children for the life of a prostitute One of the very few novels of the twentieth century which can be ranked with the work of Dostoevsky The Woman of Rome also tells the stories of the tortured university student Giacomo a failed revolutionary who refuses to admit his love for Adriana of the sinister figure of Astarita the Secret Police officer obsessed with Adriana and of the coarse and brutal criminal Sonzogno who treats Adriana as his private property Within this story of passion and betrayal Moravia calmly strips away the pride and arrogance hiding the corrupt heart of Italian Fascism Moravia Giuliano Dego, 1967 The Time of Indifference [by] Alberto Moravia [pseud.] Trans. from the Italian by Angus Davidson Alberto Moravia, 1970
