Non-Standard Architectural Productions Sandra Karina Löschke,2019-07-30 This book captures concepts and projects that reshape the discipline of architecture by prioritizing people over buildings In doing so it uncovers sophisticated approaches that go beyond standard architectural protocols to explore experience based aesthetics encounters action based research critical practices and social engagement If these are widely understood as singular or incompatible approaches the book reveals that they form a growing network of interrelations and generate levels of flexibility and dynamism that are reshaping the discipline The thirteen chapters analyze thought provoking projects branded museums restaged exhibitions home work spaces multi cultural spaces ageing apartment blocks abandoned homes and urban slums amongst them Together they enliven the stalled debate about a single architectural response to the complex challenges of the contemporary world by highlighting pluralistic perspectives on architecture that offer fresh solutions on how architecture can improve people s lives Featuring essays from an international range of authors this book makes a vital contribution to our understanding of the wider conditions under which and in relation to which contemporary architecture is produced

Frontiers of Creative Industries Candace Jones,Massimo Maoret,2018-04-03 Creative industries are a growing and globally important area for both economic vitality and cultural expression of industrialized nations This volume examines their institutional categorical and structural dynamics to provide an overview of new trends and emerging issues in scholarship on this topic Enhancing Disaster Preparedness A. Nuno Martins, Mahmood Fayazi, Faten Kikano, Liliane Hobeica, 2020-10-07 Enhancing Disaster Preparedness From Humanitarian Architecture to Community Resilience relates to the fourth priority of the UNDRR's Sendai Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction 2015-2030 Taking a wide understanding of disaster preparedness the book deals with resilient responses and building capacities related to hazardous events bringing some practical experiences and theoretical insights in this regard Mostly based on field research conducted in the Global South by architects and other built environment professionals the book covers both post disaster interventions rebuilding and recovery and development related processes Its three parts address the interlinkages between humanitarian design community resilience and inclusive governance which are crucial for fostering effective disaster preparedness Part I discusses the changing roles of architects and urban designers involved in the humanitarian sphere Part II concentrates on resilience as a socioecological capacity to enhance preparedness within community based spatial processes Focused on global dynamics Part III covers topics emphasizing the link between the management of crises whether political or economic at different levels of governance and the vulnerability of communities and structures on the national and local scales As such the book approaches rising global priorities and brings timely lessons to support building a more equitable safe and resilient environment in a rapidly urbanized world Explores Sendai's fourth priority through a spatial lens Examines the role of humanitarian design in building resilience Critically revisits concepts such as incremental housing and building back better Provides examples of methodological tools for community engagement in resilience building processes Light in Gaza Jihad Abusalim, Jennifer Bing, Mike Merryman-Lotze, 2022-08-30 Imagining the future of Gaza beyond the cruelties of occupation and Apartheid Light in Gaza is a powerful contribution to understanding Palestinian experience Gaza home to two million people continues to face suffocating conditions imposed by Israel This distinctive anthology imagines what the future of Gaza could be while reaffirming the critical role of Gaza in Palestinian identity history and struggle for liberation Light in Gaza is a seminal moving and wide ranging anthology of Palestinian writers and artists It constitutes a collective effort to organize and center Palestinian voices in the ongoing struggle As political discourse shifts toward futurism as a means of reimagining a better way of living beyond the violence and limitations of colonialism Light in Gaza is an urgent and powerful intervention into an important political moment Resilient Cities in the Global South Lakshmi Priya Rajendran, NezHapi-Dellé Odeleye, Aysegul Can, 2025-07-22 Post pandemic cities face new challenges in adapting to global changes while also addressing the needs practices and capabilities of diverse populations Resilience as a key factor enables cities to adapt and transform in response to these challenges Development driven by resilience is crucial for urban society's ability to adapt and evolve on multiple levels However in developed countries increasingly standardised planning and development practices often hinder citizen engagement and participation which are essential for building resilient cities This book adopts an interdisciplinary approach to examine how diverse social and spatial behaviours within informal urban environments particularly in developing countries can provide fresh insights for robust urban planning and development The book is structured in three parts 1 North South Relations this part explores the global discourse on informality highlighting its presence in both the Global North and South 2 Grassroots this part focusses on grassroots initiatives and community driven resilience within urban informality and 3 Institutional Strategies and Professional Alliances the final part delves into the role of institutions and professional collaborations in shaping urban informality By presenting a range of perspectives and experiences this book contributes to a unique Southern framework that positions informality as a dialogue for enabling resilience It will appeal to a multidisciplinary audience including professionals from fields such as sociology history environmental psychology cultural studies human geography urban design and planning architecture and anthropology
